

GETTING IT ALL TOGETHER

Chris,
"You are really a nice guy to know. If I had known where you lived this summer, and
I wouldn't been home more, we could've done
some partying
along with Paul.
Have a good year.
Kisses
Always.
Love,
Jody ♡"

As the pieces of life
are falling in place,
we are growing
and changing
and in general
"keeping the pace."

Sometimes it seems
the world is turning faster and faster
day by day,
And sometimes
it's hard to relax and enjoy
the fact that we are young.

Today we walk
the paths to tomorrows,
Tomorrow is the dream
we dream of,
the goal
we want for,
and the smiles
we cannot explain
— and today will seem so far away.

Piece by piece
the jumble
of people,
places,
smiles,
and frowns,
start to form a picture.
Like the hours
fill a day...
Days, a week...
and weeks, a year...
or the moments of your life...

Our home ... our family...
Our teachers ... our friends.
The corner stones on which we build ...

Border the picture
with Western,
the building
and spirit,
holding us all together.

Fill it in
with people,
the students
and staff.

We make each other live...
 We fill each other's lives...
 Just when we think we have it all together - someone bumps the table-
 jars the pieces out of place...
 And our life is scattered about...

Then we fail to function
 as a member of this jigsaw system
 til eventually the pieces,
 are turned face up
 with a kind word or deed,
 a compliment from a stranger,
 or just a "hello".

The pieces start to work their way back into the frame
 and form a form again.

This year itself is a puzzle
— arriving before 7 —
leaving at 12:02 —

no teams to root for —
— only 9 minutes to socialize —
But still it's a year,
A year we won't forget,
A year in our lives
Like the pages of a book...
We turn the pages so quickly,
Comprehending very little,
Eager to go on...

If only we could read the end first then go through it slowly
and enjoy
these chapters.

FINAL CEREMONIES HIGHLIGHT

Mr. Bryant congratulates Mike Balwinski on his success.

Karen Krawczyk reflects on the result of four years of hard work.

The graduating class of 1978 awaits the final step.

YEAR FOR SENIORS

Seniors solemnly participate in Baccalaureate ceremonies.

Todd Upleger and Mark Laracey look forward to Baccalaureate.

Tracy Cousins, Laura Schultz, and Marie Hoffman engage in the candlelight service.

Ever since these seniors were young children in elementary school and up until they were teens in high school, they've looked forward to their Commencement and Baccalaureate. They've gone through thirteen years of school and then suddenly they're challenged by a completely different type of lifestyle. No more school work, sitting through five classes a day, or any of the everyday hassles each student has faced. But also, they have left behind a special part of their lives which can only be brought back through memories. Commencement and Baccalaureate are memories that are cherished forever by every graduate.

REGISTRATION PREPARES

I thought you were supposed to get numbers in prison! says Jerry Janowicz.

Registration was held on August 21, 22 and 23. The freshmen were the first to register on Monday the 21st in morning and afternoon shifts. Tuesday the sophomores returned to Western in the morning while the juniors came in the afternoon. On the last day the seniors came in the morning, and the new Western students came in the afternoon.

A loyal bunch of students helped to register everyone by typing, taking pictures, cutting, sorting, making I.D. cards and handing out schedules.

The auditorium and commons were full of students comparing classes and teachers and filling each other in on their summers. Although not everyone wanted to give up his summer, all the students enjoyed seeing everyone again.

Laura Schindler and Leslie Greenwood have different reactions to Terry Troxell's joke.

FOR A NEW YEAR

Wow! Modern technology does it again!

Cindy Bryant and Val Rozek cut mugs for the yearbook.

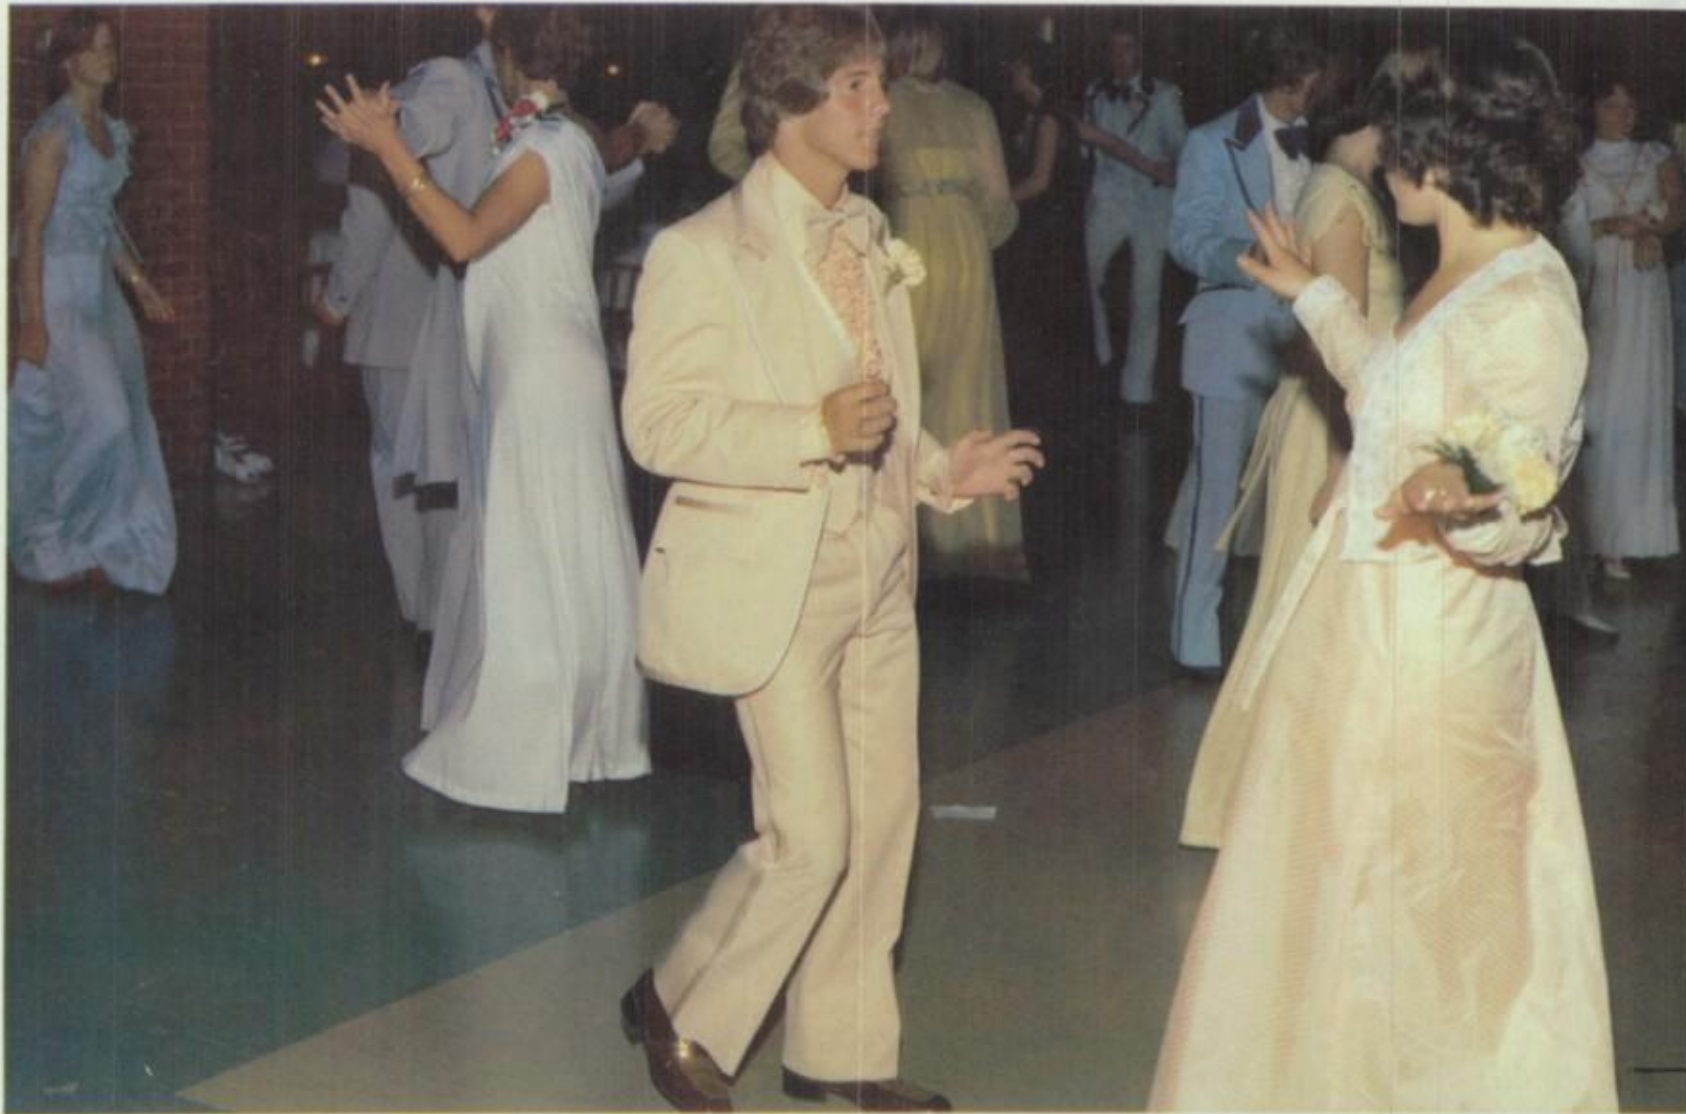

It seems like an endless production line of mugs.

Back to school causes a dismal look for Scott Rechsteiner.

"WE MAY NEVER PASS

Senior Mike Balwinski and his date, Carrie Pieniozek, enjoy a fast dance.

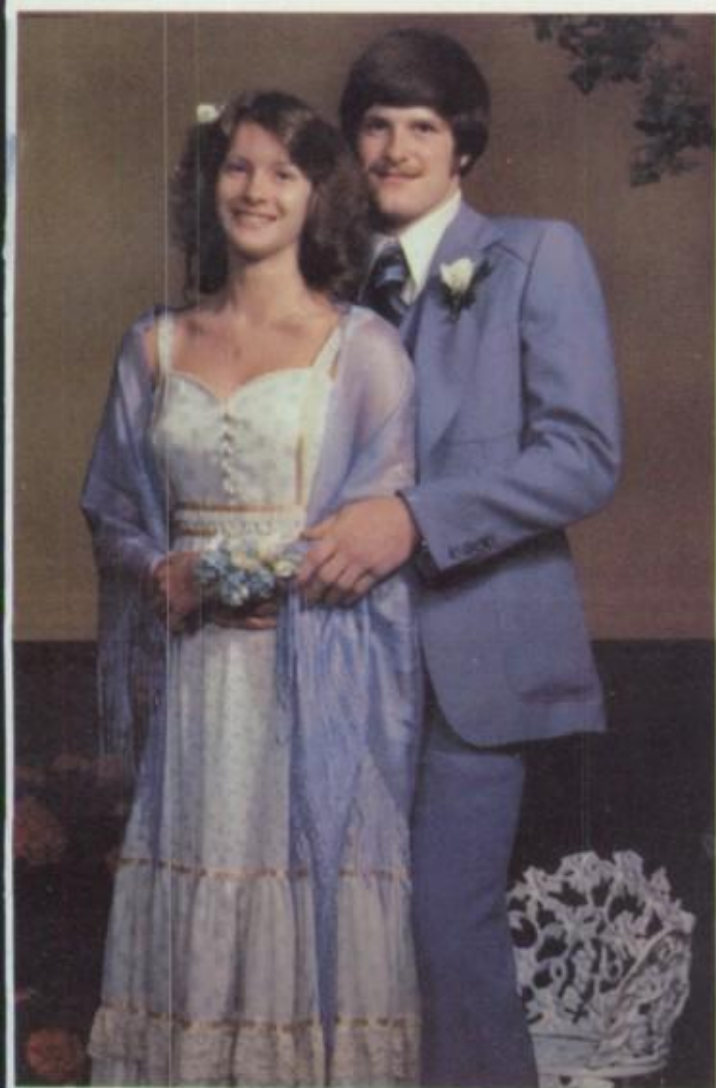

"We May Never Pass This Way Again" was the theme for the 1978 Junior Senior Prom. On May 20 the 5th annual Junior Senior Prom was held at the Delta College Commons. The air was crisp, but the couples still found the atmosphere and the beautiful scenery of the Japanese garden refreshing. During the course of the evening, the couples had an opportunity to have their picture taken by W.J.S. Hicks while the remaining juniors and seniors enjoyed dancing to the music of Ceyx. Everyone present realized that this was a night they would always remember.

Couples romantically dance to the music of Ceyx.

THIS WAY AGAIN"

Mr. Hicks captures the excitement of the evening in this picture of Sandy Wackerly and Shane Reinhardt.

Chaperones for the evening Mr. and Mrs. Warren Sinke, Mr. and Mrs. Alan Bryant and Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Link pose at the punch bowl.

Karen Cisky and her escort, Steve Rolka, display their dancing talents.

Theresa Markel and Ron Bedell dance the night away.

ASSEMBLY KEEPS UP SPIRIT

Student Council is introduced at the assembly.

Members of the court congratulate the queen.

This year's Homecoming celebration started out with a pep assembly. The assembly was a great success in spite of the absence of a varsity football game. The student council was introduced and there were several contests between the classes. Then Mr. Langenburg introduced the court and announced the queen.

The junior-senior game, which was held Saturday, October 28, provided almost as much excitement as the former varsity football rivalries. In the end the seniors pulled off the victory, handing the juniors a 12-6 defeat. The halftime show featured the marching band, Westernettes, majorettes and the crowning of the queen and her court.

The Homecoming celebration ended that night with the dance. Music was supplied by Ceyx and the dance was a big success.

Co-Chairmen Linda Prill and Mary Ellen Kelly speak to students.

Kellie Rezler shows her happiness after being announced queen.

HOMECOMING AND COURT

Members of the court include front row: Sue Braun, Zoanne Hnatiuk, Beth Cerva. Second row: Cathy Kaczmarek, Vicki Knoerr, Karen

“REMINISCING”

Queen Kellie is escorted by her date, Nick Johnson.

Everyone enjoys music by Ceyx..

Greg Richards and his date, Nancy Smith, dance to the music of Ceyx.

HOMECOMING A SUCCESS

Beth Alarie is escorted by her parents.

Queen Kellie reigns over the halftime celebrations.

Mark Pajot and Kevin Miller prepare for the hit.

Bob Rugenstein watches over his teammates.

WESTERN SPIRIT

Sue Toth, and Dawn Dupree bring Hat and T-Shirt Day to life.

Jersey Day is everyone's favorite, right Robin Martin?

Jerry Widmar wears boots and suspenders for Farmer Day.

Brenda Schumacher shows her spirit.

WILL NEVER DIE

It's not that bad Tom Furland.

Gayle Bragiel's real personality shows on Hat and T-Shirt Day.

Twirp Week is an annual spring event every year. We had Jersey Day, Farmer Day, Dress-Up Day, Hat and T-Shirt Day, and Clash Day. Western was brought to life by all of those who participated. Even though many things were unusually different this year; Western's spirit will go unchanged.

Jeff Saxton likes to start the newest styles.

WESTERN TOPS IN BLOOD DRIVE

Just a little big longer, Kathy Krueger.

You can handle it, can't you, Theresa Fournier?

One of the nurse's awaits another victim.

Many students are anxious to give blood.

Renda Huber doesn't feel it's all that bad.

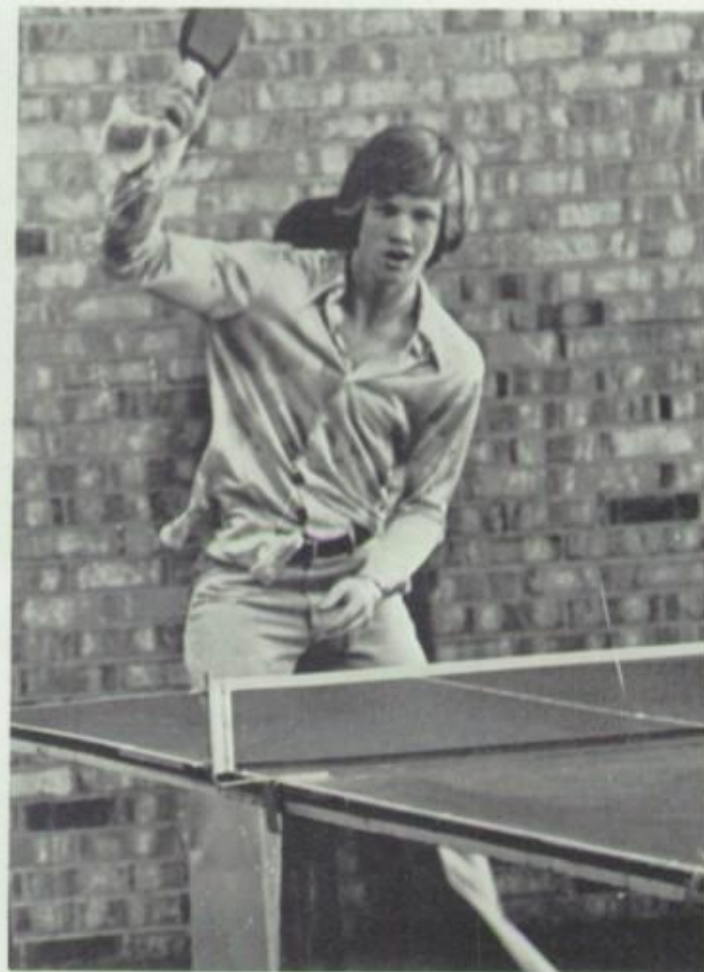

The students at Western High, participated in the annual Blood Drive. While some students enjoyed the event, others seemed to be a little "shaky". Not only were students involved but also many faculty members participated. All in all, the drive proved to be another big success.

PING PONG BOUNCES ALONG

The Champs are John Rabidue, 3rd place; John Trompeter, 1st place; Rick Hanover, 2nd place.

George Horne loves to pong!

Easily returning the ball is Jim Trompeter.

Dave Ropp really gets into it and makes his shot hard!

CHOIRS GET TOGETHER AGAIN

Mr. Sabourin leads the Westernaires.

"Keep your eyes on that music."

The Concert Choir sings their hearts out.

Laura Beekman performs a solo.

Kim Marlinga enjoys singing as a Westernaire.

"DOWN A DIFFERENT ROAD"

Jim Rabideau has deep concentration, as he performs his solo.

Girls chorus performs once again.

Concert Choir can't remember all their music?!

Mr. Robert Sabourin takes a bow.

A few members of the Bell Choir are caught in action.

On April 5, 1978, a recital of solo, voice and piano music was presented by students from Western High School vocal music department.

This program was organized to offer students who are taking private lessons an opportunity for individual musical expression and recognition. These students worked very hard on their personal musical development, and the concert was a big success.

"EXIT THE BODY" PRESENTED

Jennifer DeLorge and Ann Bradley try to calm down Diane Griggs.

Ron Timmer and Carol Anderson see eye to eye.

"I don't believe you," says Stacy Baker.

Jennifer DeLorge and Fred Western have an amusing honeymoon.

On March 16, 17, and 18, 1978 the Western Stage Company presented "Exit the Body" by Fred Carmichael. The three act play took place in the auditorium under the direction of Mr. J. Frank Bradley. The tech crew was in charge of lighting, sound, music, and curtain pulling. Fred Western and Dan Hitz took care of set design and construction. The eleven member cast included Jennifer DeLorge as Lillian Seymour, Stacey Baker as Jenny, Dan Hitz as Randolph, Carol Anderson as Helen O'Toole, Ann Bradley as Kate Bixley, Diane Griggs as Crane Hammond, Ron Timmer as Vernon Cookley, Fred Western as Lyle Rogers, Don Rozek as Philip Smith and Dave Sharp as Richard Hammond.

The tech crew consisted of Tony Kierpiec, Jim Bauer, Dan Yurgaites, Brad Wishowski, Milan Bissonette and Kent Winslow.

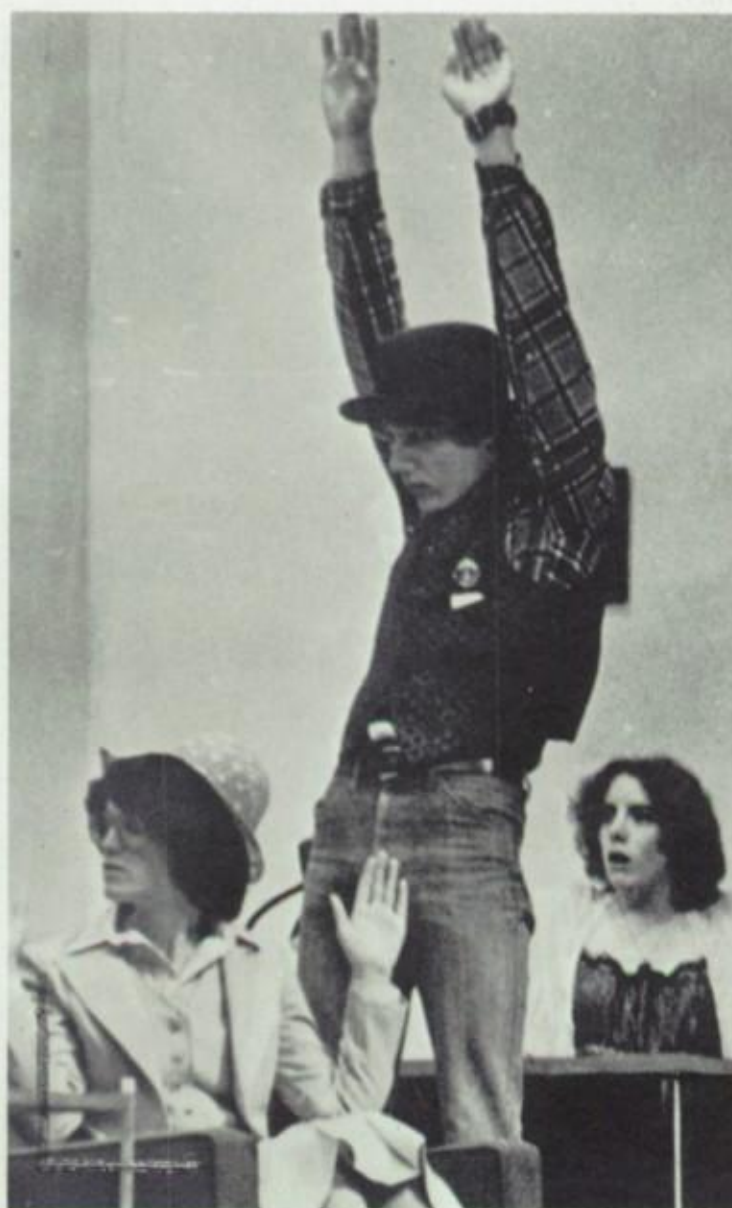

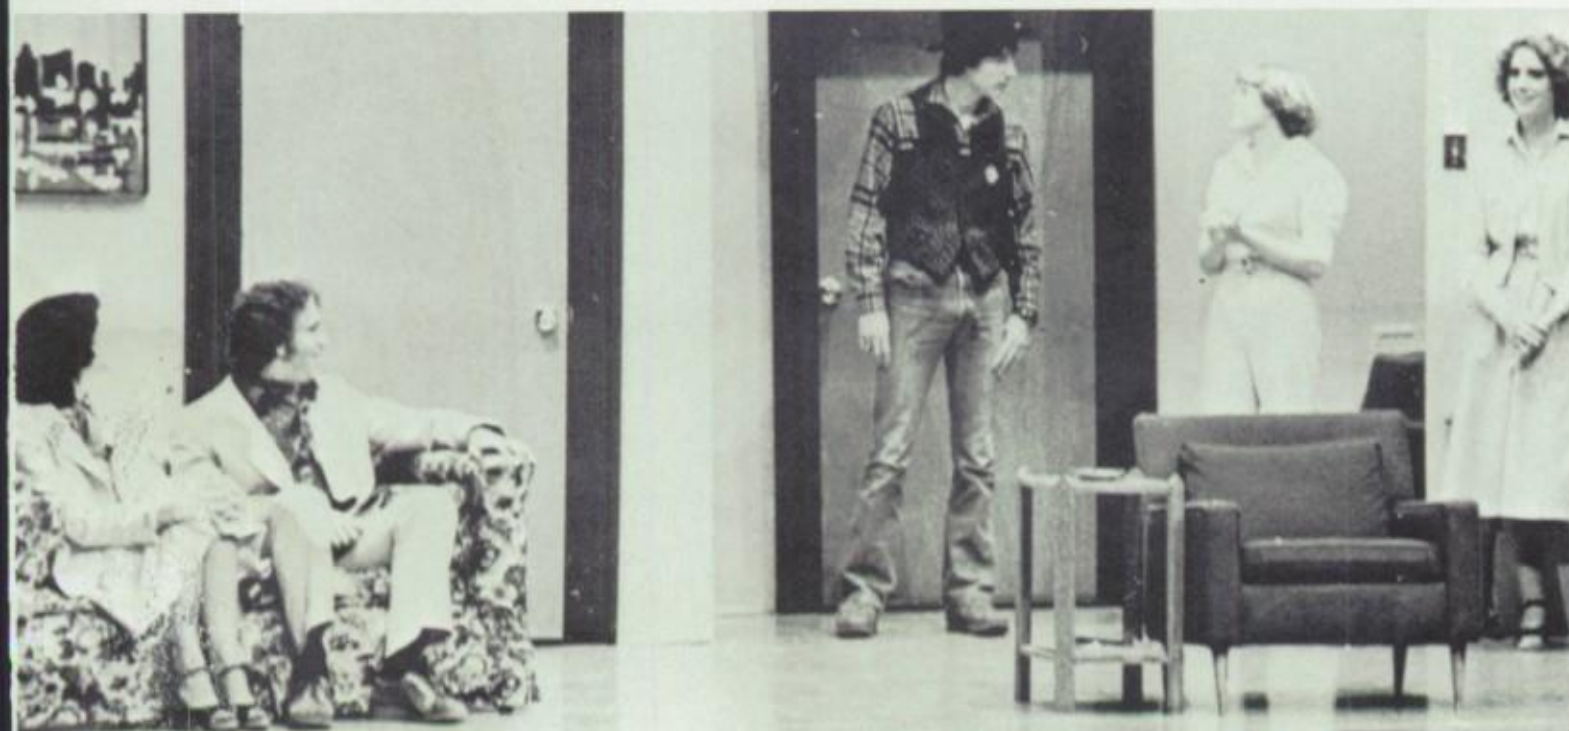

"I still don't know what's going on!"

Diane tries to explain matters to her husband, Dave Sharp.

It's a hold-up!

The cast members put on a fine performance!

STUDENTS HAVE THE

Al Bryant, Marty Gottesman, Dick Harmon, and Senior Jay Meilstrup seem to be missing out on the action of the game.

Al Bryant is caught at a moment of indecision during the game.

Mr. Harmon watches the action down court.

LAST LAUGH

Mr. Gottesman gets pampered by his teammates.

Mr. Manwell thinks maybe he ought to stick to swimming.

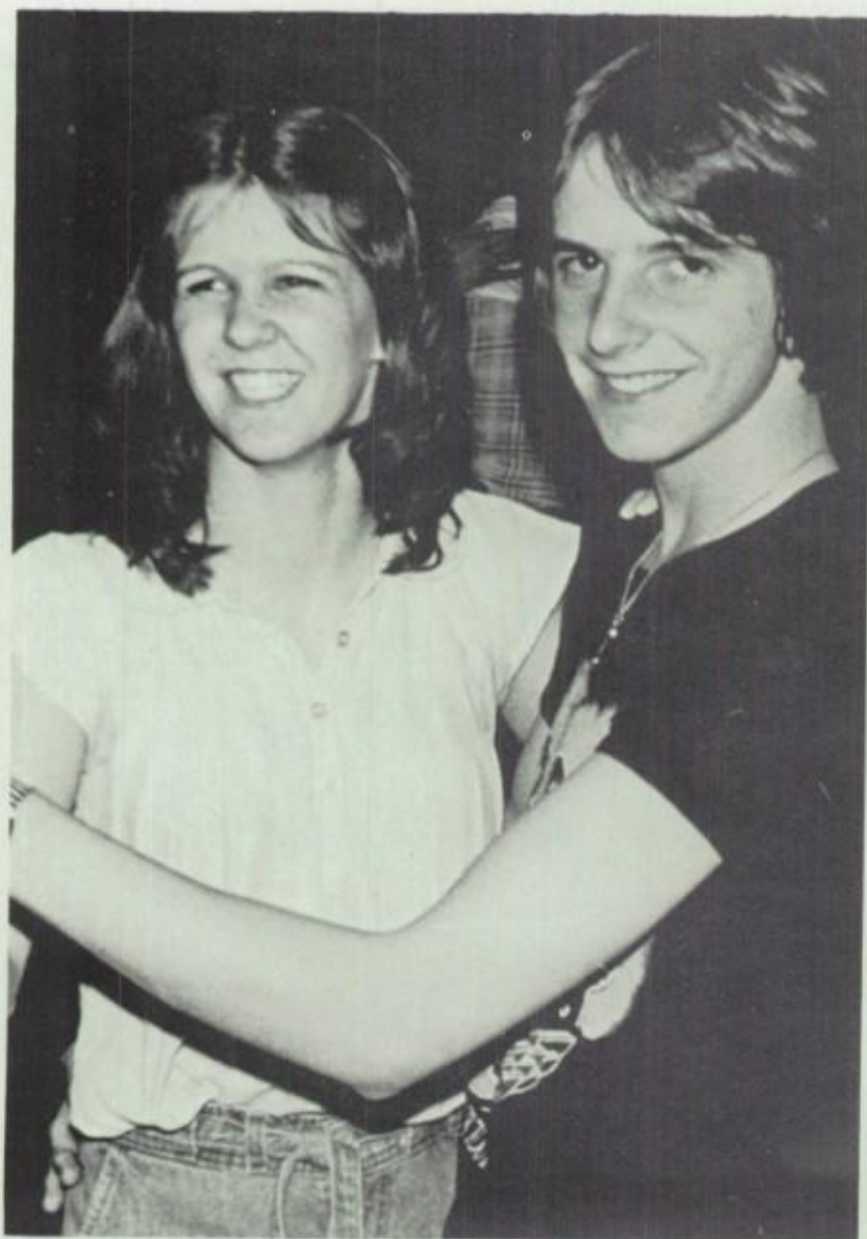

Mike Balwinski does a fine job keeping Mr. Harmon busy.

Just as in the past, the student-faculty game was an entertaining match of the brute strength of the seniors and the brains of the faculty.

The students led by a few players from the varsity basketball team, literally blew the inexperienced faculty off the court. The faculty put up a good fight, but the experience and brawn of the seniors won out.

COUPLES DANCE TO THE MUSIC

Posing for a quick picture are Robin Dasky and Chris Moyer.

No. 33 Mark Gorney and his girl dream to the music.

Diane Stransky and Steve Janson boogie to the music.

"Mars" Beiser and "Kent" Briggs get crowned!

AT SADIE HAWKINS

Twirp King and Queen receive their awards.

The Reverend Gibson and Joan Castrodale hitch another couple.

Taking a break are Pete Ackley and Karen Stevens.

On Tuesday, April 4, 1978, Marlene Beiser and Kent Briggs were voted by the students with pennies to be the Twirp King and Queen.

The Sadie Hawkins Dance was supposed to be on April 7, 1978; but there was a minor conflict so it was held on April 14 from 8:00 until 11:30. Tickets were sold at the Corner Shop for $1.75 stag and $3.00 a couple. The dance was sponsored by the seniors.

JUNIORS BATTLE SENIORS - TIE

Gayle Gehringer battles to gain yardage.

Coach Jay Meilstrup delivers his strategy.

Junior teammates plan how to break the twelve to twelve tie.

CMU DANCERS DAZZLE WESTERN

CMU students wait to perform.

"Yee-Ha!! Everybody clap now."

Kathy Sauer watches closely how it's done.

Mr. Langenburg and Western students get into the act.

MUSIC DEPARTMEN

Westernaires stand waiting patiently for their cue to begin their part in the entertainment of the evening.

Concert Band performs with perfection.

On December 14, 1978, the Music Departments of Western presented a musical concert called Spectrum. The concert was presented through the coordinated efforts of the Intermediate and High School music groups. All of the students worked well together to make the show a one to remember.

Brenda Leonard sings her part with Westernaires.

PRESENTS "SPECTRUM"

The Clarinet section toots away during performance.

Delores Grewe plays the flute for Concert Band.

Mr. Saxton directs the Concert Band.

GIRLS LEAGUE DANCE

No one holds back during a fast dance.

Extensive equipment is used for special effects.

Dave Piotrowski encourages Jodi Morley to dance.

On January 12 Girls League held a dance in Western's Commons from 8:00 to 11:30. H & L Sound provided a variety of music for the students. This gave the students an opportunity, not only to get down and jive but also to socialize. Students from all grades attended and seemed to have a good time.

Everyone expresses his own style on the dance floor.

These guys enjoy socializing rather than dancing.

A NIGHT TO REMEMBER

Dave Dannesberger and Wendy Martin are in the Christmas spirit.

Couples find the punch and cookies refreshing.

Mr. Hicks strives for perfection.

Slow dancing is so romantic.

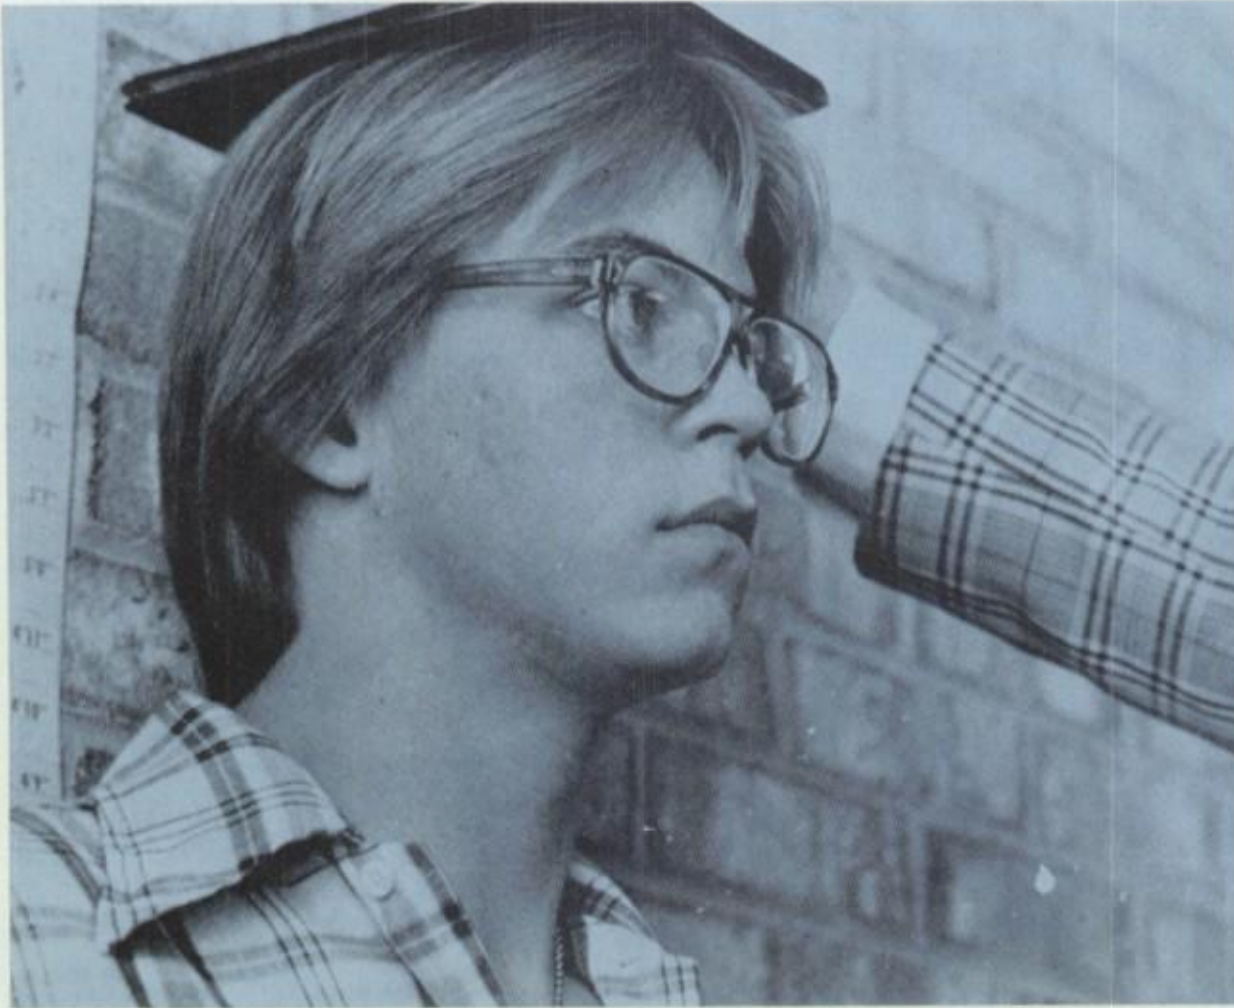

Decorations set the scene for Cathy Ivan and Joe Biskner.

Western's 5th annual Christmas Prom was held on December 16th with the theme "A Christmas Night To Remember." Couples danced to the music of Westwood while the snow fell softly outside. Dress for the prom was semi-formal with a two-way bid, and all the classes were invited. Everyone had an opportunity to purchase a portrait taken by W.J.S. Hicks to provide them with lasting memories of "A Christmas Night To Remember."

SENIORS GET MEASURED

Dan Tomczak holds a straight face.

This year's senior class was measured for their caps and gowns early in February. They went down a few at a time and were measured by Mr. Titus. It made graduation seem all the nearer, and it brought them another step toward that day.

"Maria, hold still!"

Linda Wildman smiles sweetly.

"Aw c'mon Jenny, it won't hurt!"

STUDENTS RECEIVE SCHEDULES

"Where am I?" wonders Kent Winslow.

Chris Enzer and Steve Beyer relax before beating the crowd.

This year at Western the students received their second semester schedules after school in the Commons. There were four lines, one for each class, and at the front, a person handing out the schedules. Although it was very crowded, it ran smoothly and gave the students a chance to socialize.

The crowd grows larger and larger and larger.

SWEETHEARTS AND . . .

Tony and Kelly will have something to remember.

Juniors Chris and Audrey are all smiles.

Scott and Linda feel very important.

Jeff and Beth did rather well their first year.

VALENTINES

Kelly and Cindy — twinkles or what?

Chris Stevens gets into the mood.

Chris and Pam boogie down.

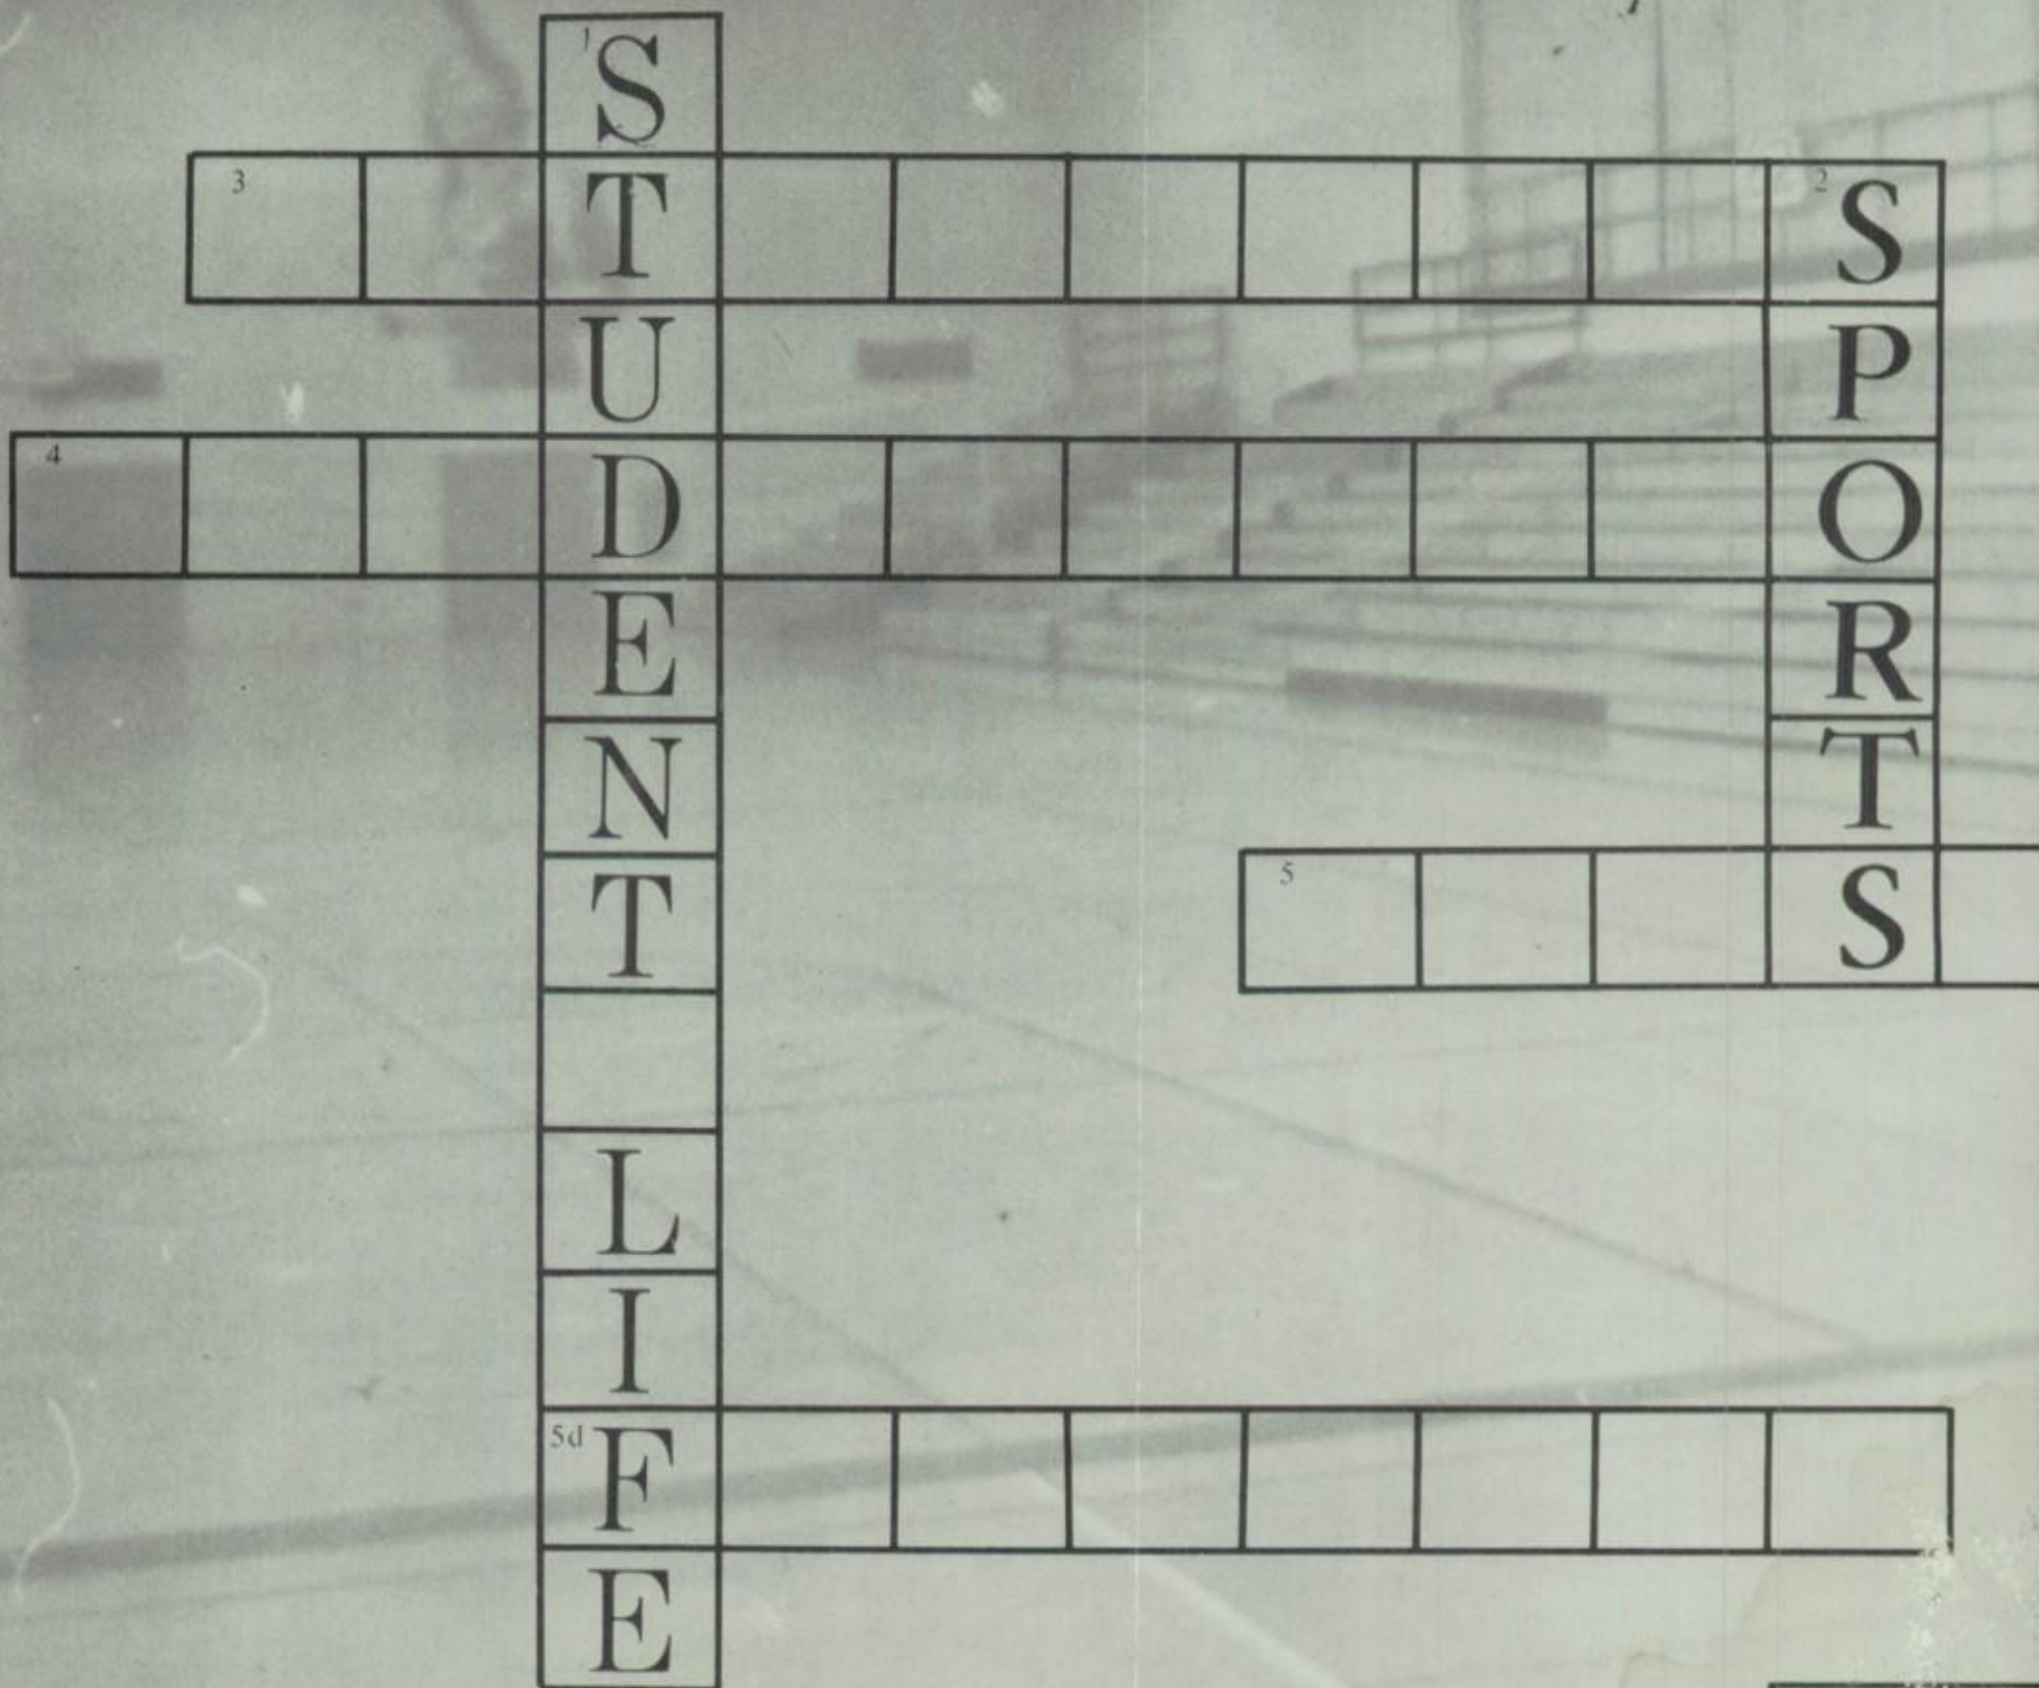

Ron Gorney enjoys a slow dance with his partner.

The Valentine's dance of 1979 was enjoyed by all. The dance floor was crowded with young and old. The ceiling was decorated with pink and white balloons, streamers, and red hearts which was done by the freshmen. This was the first dance given by the freshmen this year, and everyone had a riot. Nominees were picked from every class, and the winners were announced over the P.A. Friday the sixteenth. For seniors, Tony Lupo and Kelly Coates ... juniors, Chris Mathewson and Audrey Beuchler ... sophomores, Scott Rechsteiner and Linda Long, ... and, last but not least, ... freshmen, Jeff Cooley and Beth Alarie. Everyone was surprised at the results but greeted our new royal sweethearts.

WESTERN STUDENTS MUST

Kelly Coates puts on her catcher's equipment.

Kevin Schonbein readies himself in the field.

Mark Rahn squares around to bunt as Bill Kohn waits for the ball.

Bill Anderson takes his stance at the plate.

Paul Steih takes some warmup pitches.

FIND COMPETITION ELSEWHERE

Cheryl Schwab looks for a teammate to pass the ball to.

Monkey see, monkey do, huh? Maria Putt.

Melanie Clauss, Ann Klepser, Sarah Auernhammer and Kelly O'Riordan cheer their team on as they take a break from action.

Gail Klepser puts a move on a defender.

With the millage defeat in Bay City this year, sports, a main item for many students, were eliminated. Luckily for some of them city sponsored leagues were available for them to participate in.

Many sports were taken up by students, ranging from softball to boxing.

It was a very sad picture over all for many students, who, because of jobs or lack of transportation, couldn't participate as they could have if school sports had been maintained.

Hopefully, students of the future will not be hindered by the atrocities we have had to suffer.

Sarah Auernhammer sets the ball as Peggy Schlatter looks on.

Sally Rechsteiner gets ready to serve.

N.H.S. PROVIDES LEADERSHIP

The advisor, Mrs. Post, explains the agenda for the year.

Speaking at the induction ceremony is Dr. Fultz.

Members vote confidentially during the election of officers.

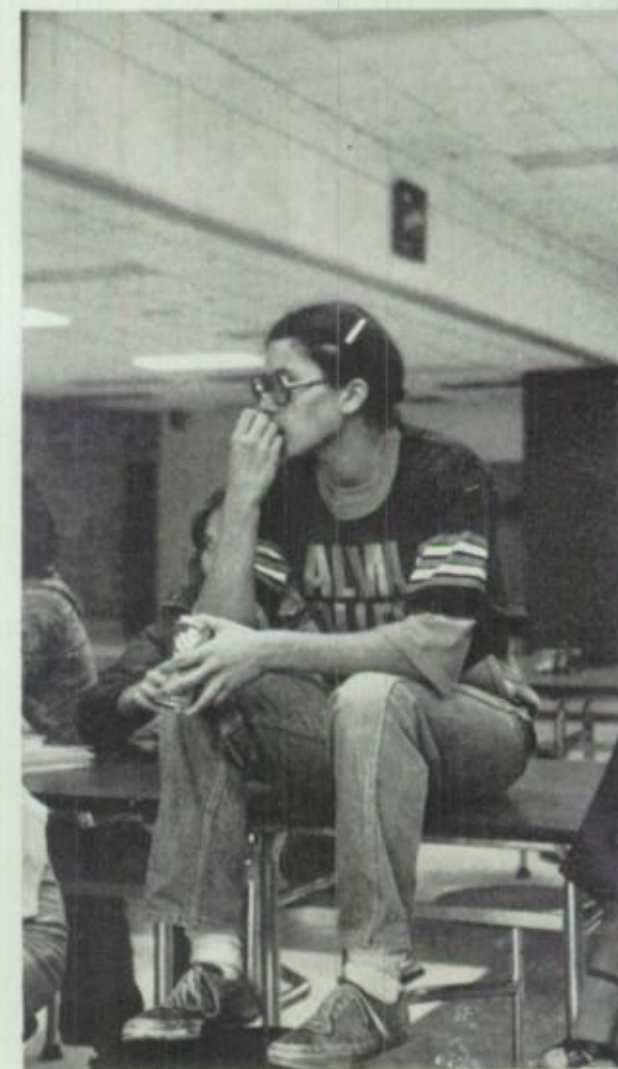

Students of Western High School are proud to be members in Aesthetikos, the Western Chapter of the National Honor Society.

This organization's membership is based on overall leadership, character and service. Mrs. Becky Post serves as advisor for this selective group of students.

Family and friends had the opportunity to attend an induction ceremony held last spring. This honor will remain with these students for the rest of their lives.

What's so amusing, Brenda Eisenman?

Maria Putt listens intently.

Mueller. 1st row L to R: Linda Prill, Kelly Coates, Deb Auernhammer, Tammy Braun, Cathy Kaczmarek, Lisa Rase, Joan Castordale, Amy Wiesenauer, Kelly Knight, Sally Rechsteiner, Janet Warner, Sue Pfund. Seated on steps: Maria Putt, Norm Walters, Mike Goulet, Greg Rorrer, Mark Goulet, Paul Steih, Steve Datte, Bill Kohn, Judy Neumeyer.

Lisa Rase keeps her vote private but Wally Vogtmann proudly votes for himself.

Officers for the year are: Yvonne Meiske, Vice-President; Paul Steih, President; Judy

Neumeyer, Secretary; Cheryl Roth, Treasurer.

THE STAR SHINES ON

Editor Cindy Miller uses her favorite expression, "Dah!"

Although the school budget was drastically cut this year, the Star shines on. It is produced on the same schedule it was last year, one every three weeks. In order to sustain the fine quality and standards it has had in past years, the Star has, for the first time, sponsored a dance to raise funds.

On the newspaper everyone is directly involved in every issue. The editor and page editors take everyone's work and form it into the finished product. The editor this year is Senior Cindy Miller, who uses the help of page editors. They are News Editor Kelley Coates, Editorial Editors Joan Casterdale and Bill Kohn, Feature Editor Judy Reder, and Sports Editor Sue Rytlewski. The page editors in turn are assisted by the rest of the staff, which is made up of juniors and seniors.

Mrs. Hoyle is the advisor who guides these students in their work to produce the Star.

Mrs. Hoyle also teaches introduction to journalism where prospective news staff members are trained.

Checking to see if her story sounds good is Sue Rytlewski.

"I wonder if they'll ever make the deadline?" ponders advisor Carole Hoyle.

Judy Reder and Theresa Fournier work together on a news scoop for the next deadline of the star.

Bill Kohn takes time out to smile for the camera.

Three of the photographers, Bryan Chapman, Leo Grotkowski, and Chuck McIntyre work together like the three stooges.

ON TRUCKIN'

Deb laughs at Judy while she does the work.

Problems of layouts are solved by Editor Chuck McIntyre, Sponsor Miss Judy Ransom, Photographer Dave Dannesberger and Student Dan Yurgaite.

Kandy Bridgewater and Beth Hooper look in their purses for "munchie money."

Debbie Geneseo laughs at Val Rozek, while Paula Pichiotino turns away in disgust.

"Getting It All Together" was our choice for the theme in the 1979 yearbook. The class this year was the biggest since Western opened. With 17 seniors, 14 juniors and 2 sophomores. We all strived to make the '79 book the best year ever in spite of the lack of extracurricular activities. With 16 returning staff members the class hopes to carry on their tradition of great yearbooks.

STUDENT COUNCIL KEEPS ON MOVING

Student Council members listen intently to the agenda of the meeting.

Western Student Council played an important role in school this year. During the course of the year Student Council planned various activities for the students such as dances, assemblies, fund raising drives, and spirit week.

Student Council consists of two Co-Chairmen, secretary, treasurer and eight representatives from each class. Elections were held last spring except for the freshmen. Due to millage defeat, the elected Co-Chairmen chose to attend another school, therefore, new Co-Chairmen had to be elected. Student Council decided to give the seats to the next running mates, Linda Prill and Mary Ellen Kelly. Along with the Co-Chairmen is Secretary Beth Birr and Treasurer Judy Reder.

Student Council gratefully acknowledges the help given by Mr. Charles Schwartz, Mr. Dick Syring, Mr. Wayne Przybylski, Mr. Ralph Brissette and Mr. Elmer Link. Also many thanks to all who helped them throughout the school year for without their help and cooperation Student Council could not have been as successful.

Mr. Syring listens to the Student Council.

Do you have something important to discuss, Gigi Wessely?

Kelly Coates wants to voice her opinion while Paul Steih and Jay Handy seem to be another place.

Robin Martin, Leslie Greenwood, Pat Schmidt, Paul Steih, Linda Prill, Mary Ellen Kelley, Judy Reder, Tim Fournier. Front Row L. to R. Audrey Buechler, Sue Brinkman, Jim Campbell, Tony Lupo, Ann Trompeter, Beth Birr, Colleen Herner.

Co-Chairmen Mary Ellen and Linda provide leadership throughout the meeting. Student Council Secretary Beth Birr keeps notes while Cindy Miller expresses herself.

Sue Brinkman, Kendy Bridgewater, and Jeannine Sinke are in deep thought.

GIRL'S LEAGUE

WESTERN HIGH SCHOOL

Front Row L. to R. Wendy Martin, Karen Rytlewski, Yvonne Meiske.
Back Row L. to R. Nancy Haas, Becky Zettle, Annette Dore, Lynn Rytlewski, Carrie Dore, Mrs. Janice Wiles, Marie Lukowski, Lauri

Dengler, Angie Witbrodt, Julie Koch, Mrs. Lois Verity, Jody Morley, Judy Leppek, Connie Luptowski, Becky Baney, Lynn Genge.

Girls League at Western High School is a very important activity. The members helped by ushering at special shows or events put on by Western. Girls League also sold jerseys and candy to raise money. This year Wendy Martin was the president.

Girls League is open to any girl attending Western regardless of her grade. It gives freshmen and sophomore girls a chance to become active in their early high school year. The sponsors of Girls League were Mrs. Janice Wiles, and Ms. Lois Verity.

Wendy Martin, president, stops to pose for a picture.

MAKES PLANS

Yvonne Meiske, vice president, watches as the secretary takes notes of the day.

Pam Fournier and Nancy Haas discuss their opinions.

"Boy do I have a secret to tell you."

Cheryl Roth seems to be amused.

The group listens to ideas for the future.

INTERNATIONAL CLUB —

Members of the club attend a French dance exhibit at Flint.

Mr. Bloenk demonstrates how to fill the snack machines.

This year's International Club, under the leadership of its sponsor Miss Barbara Mitchell, accomplished many things.

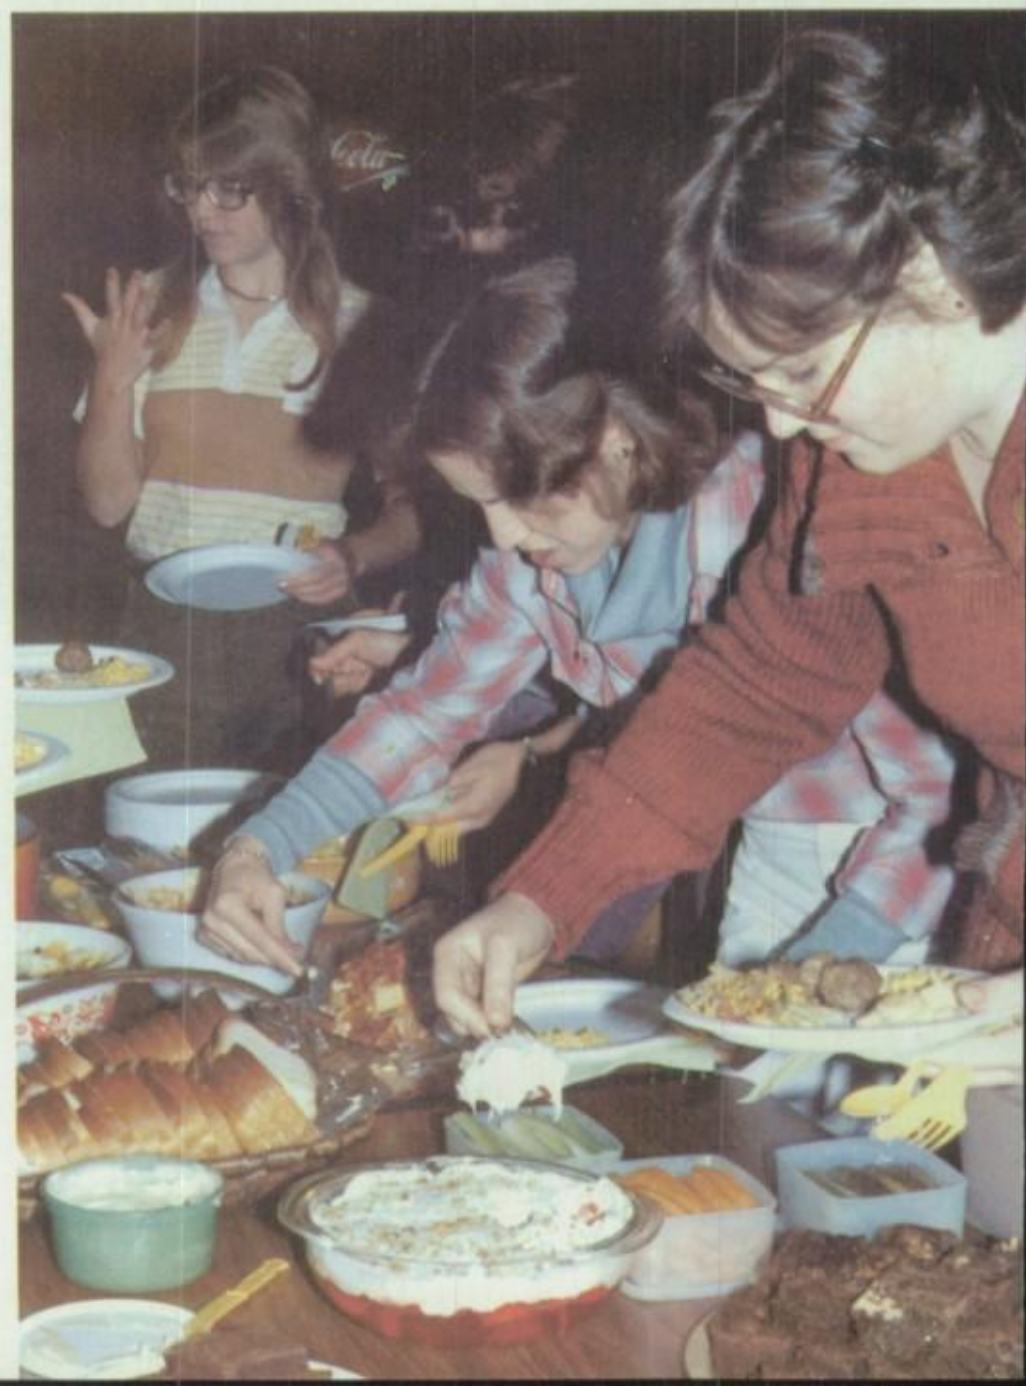

An International Dinner was held in the fall as a chance for new members to join. To be eligible to join, one semester of any foreign language must have been completed.

Under the direction of the elected officers Brenda Eisenman and Margaret Carbary, co-chairmen, and Barb Schwab, secretary-treasurer, the club raised money through a candy sale and filling the vending machines in the commons. The money earned helps defray the cost of a trip taken at the end of the school year.

Miss Mitchell sings with club members at the International Dinner.

Maggie Carbary and Beth Birr dig in as Kelley Knight stands by.

Dan Kukla smiles for the camera.

A smiling McDonald's fan is Delores Kukla.

Greg Grocholski enjoys working at L & S Recordings.

Mr. Russ Jacobs advises the hard working co-op students. These students spend three hours in school and then go for one hour on the job training. Hopefully, this will help them in finding a job in the field that they are interested in. Some students from these jobs are hired to continue after their co-op jobs are done.

TECH CREW IS BLINDED

The tech crew is a highly specialized group of students that is responsible for all the technical needs at Western, which range from maintaining the public address systems in the gym and commons to designing the lighting and staging for all of the productions in the auditorium.

Under the supervision of Advisor Mr. Ron Ferguson and Co-Chairmen Brad Wishowski and Dan Yurgaites, the tech crew has moved out into the Disco field, providing the latest music and Disco lighting for many high school dances.

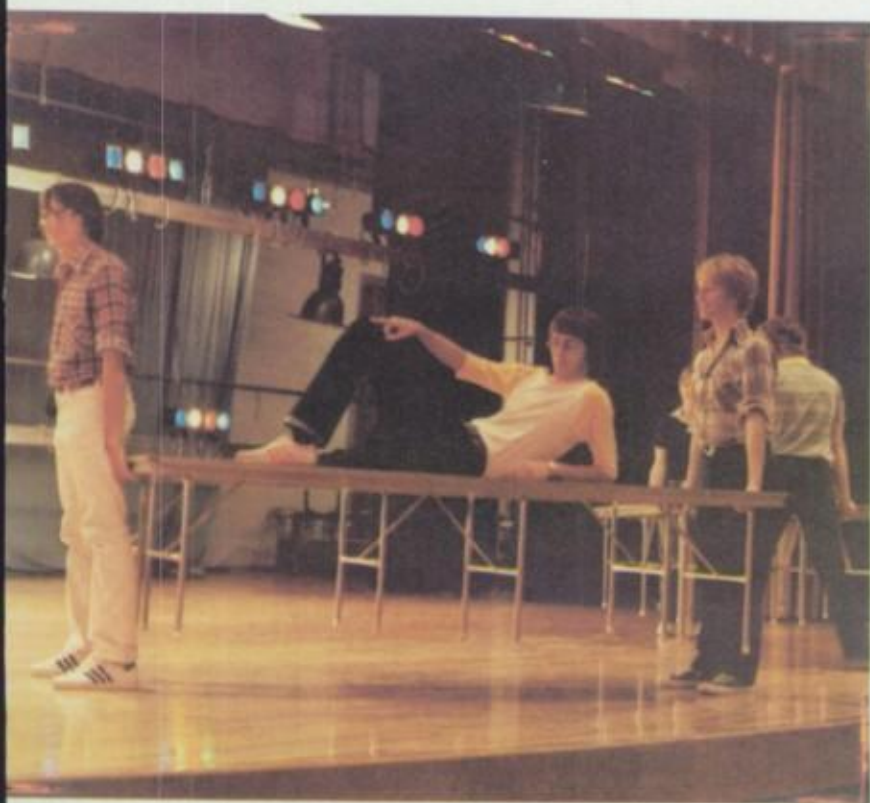

The Advisor is Mr. Ron Ferguson.

NEW SUPERINTENDENT HIRED

The new superintendent is Raymond Duch.

Board president is Susie Pederson.

The resigning superintendent was David Fultz.

Katherine Serumgard

Eldon Claymond

Kitty Ralph

Velma Phillips

On December thirty-first, after David Fultz resigned his position as superintendent of the Bay City Public Schools, Raymond Duch became our new Superintendent. Raymond Duch proves to be very enthusiastic about making new adjustments in our school system and has already begun to do so.

This year's president was again Susie Pederson and new members elected to the board were, Eldon Claymond, Alex Murray, and George Freel.

Alex Murray

ADMINISTRATORS WORK HARD

Mr. Bryant looks concerned.

Mr. Bloenk likes his new job as assistant principal.

Assistant Principal, Mr. Langenburg, has a warm smile for everyone.

Western's Dean of Students, Mr. Brissette, always looks busy.

As the result of the milage defeat this year the administrators were faced with many problems from conflicts in scheduling to finding educational entertainment for the students. Although the year started out with a few frowning faces, one new face added to our administration this year was the smiling face of our new assistant principal, Mr. Bloenk, previously a teacher at Handy.

Even with all of the unusual problems the administration faced this year, they all worked together to make this year a prosperous year.

ART DEPARTMENT

Western art students are given the opportunity to develop a greater understanding and creative experiences in many of the visual arts. They often help shape a life long appreciation and interest in a wide variety of experiences found in this department. Vocational interests connected directly with the advanced fields of art and also the vocational areas indirectly with art are discussed and explored.

These careers are discussed through an in-depth exploration of processes which involve the techniques, skills, ideas and the art students. There is a large assortment of techniques which allow a student to express his or her talents. A few of these techniques include sculpture, clay construction, paintings, printmaking, jewelry designing, and both perspective and figure drawing.

Mr. Schwartz and Mrs. Miller are this years Art instructors.

Trina Markel puts the last coat of varnish on her wood project.

"Gosh, I love Art!" exclaims Mark Balwinski.

SHOWS TALENT

How much is that doggie in the window?

Mr. Schwartz shows Lynn Bowman 'how it's done.'

Can't you see I'm busy!" says Teri Thornton.

Dave Rader and Matt Saia look for an inspiring idea.

Art students work hard on their clay projects to meet the deadline.

Vicki Bloss proudly shows off her project.

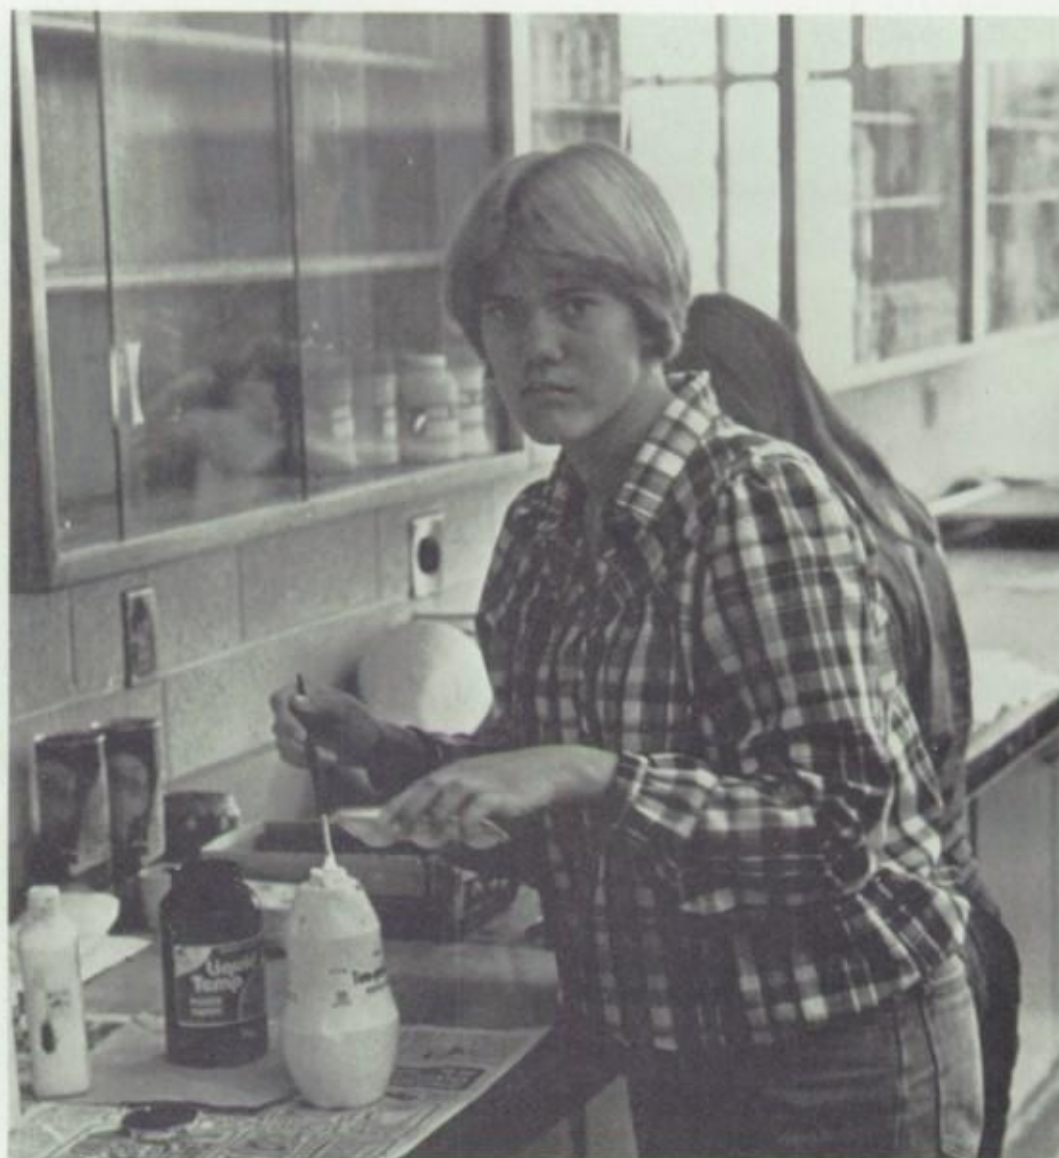

Buffing her pewter bracelet to perfection is Linda Prill.

Kirk Craddock clears a spot to work on his clay project.

M. Garza and D. Feinauer trace their pictures.

Ben Seitz shows imagination in originality.

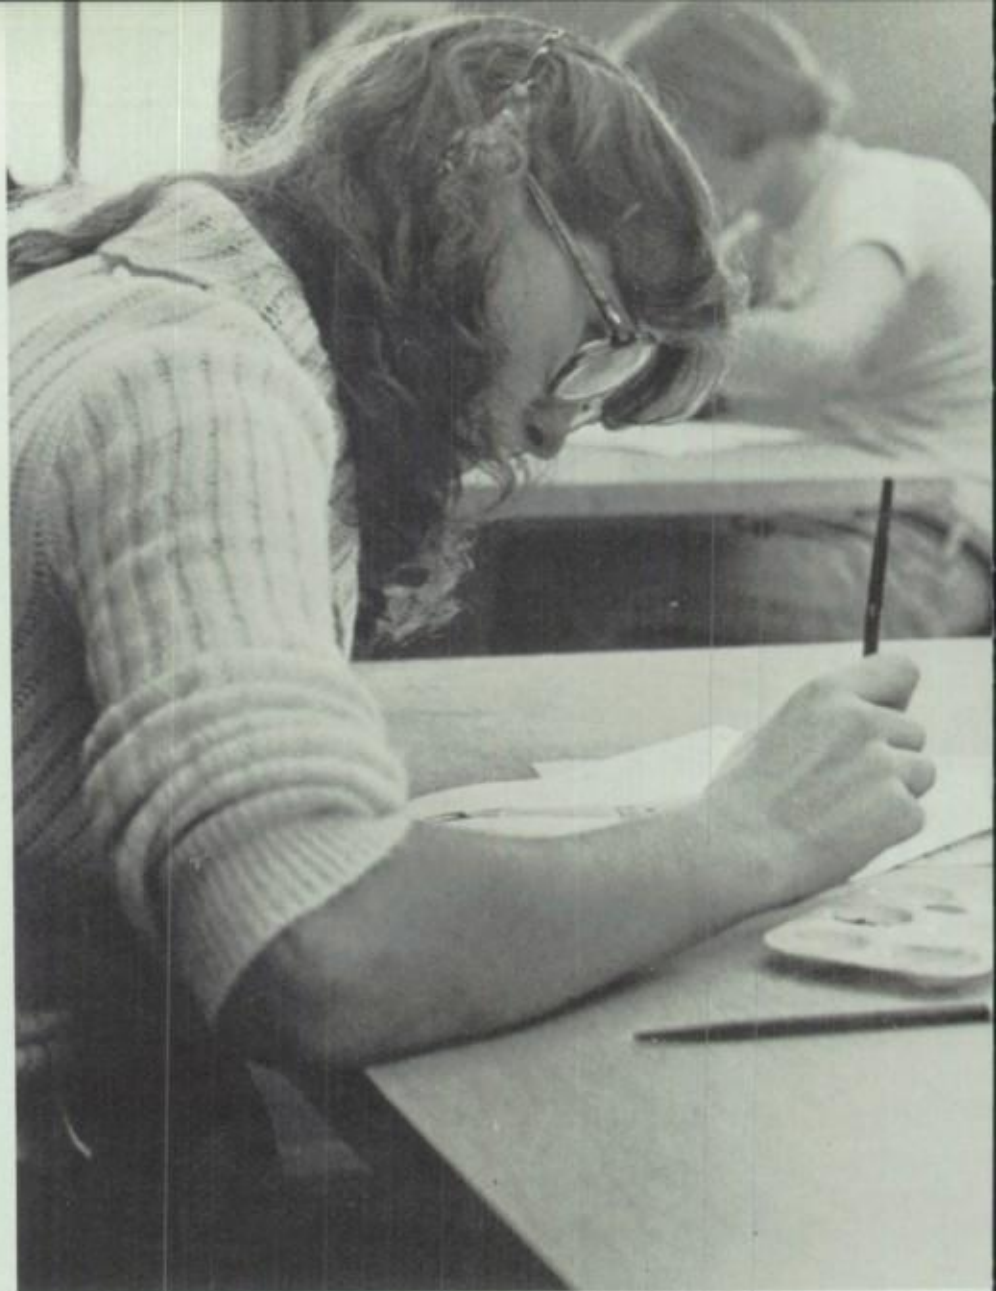

Tools for batiking and the finished pictures make a nice display.

Painting always puts a smile on Nancy Kaczynski's face.

Kari Broderick concentrates on getting her painting 'just right.'

Connie Schultz and Cathy Barber 'talk it over.'

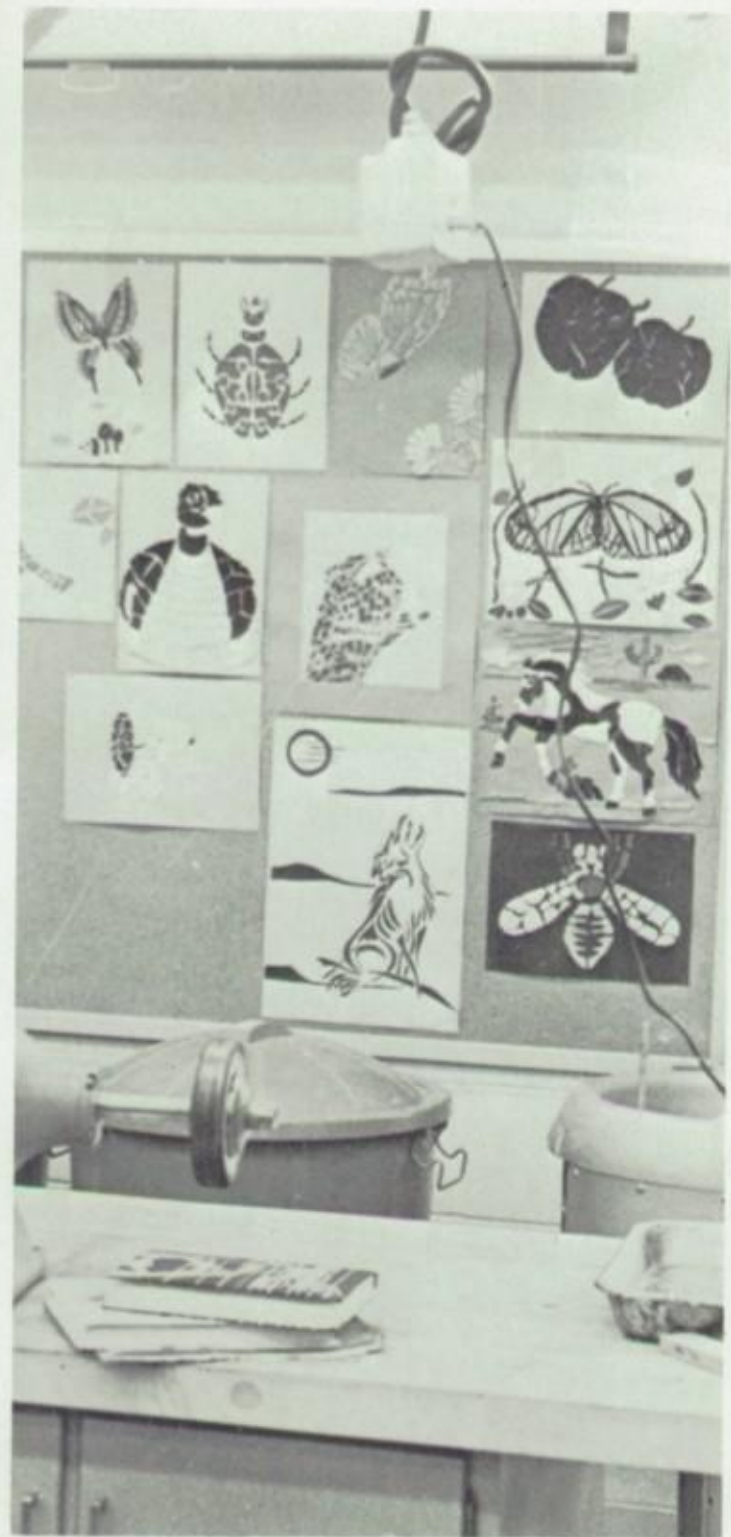

Kathy Behmlander works hard to meet a due date.

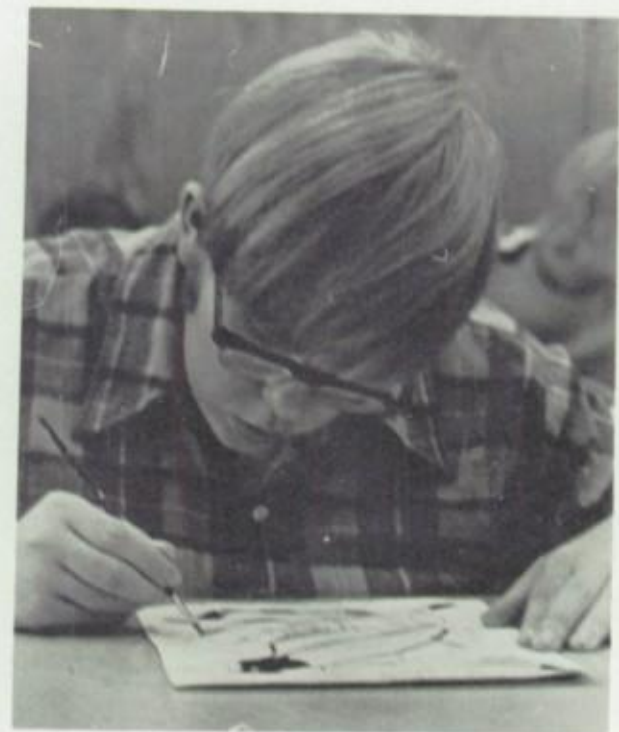

What's so surprising, Trina Markel?

Working hard to finish their art project is Tammi Taylor and Kim Brandt.

Pictures add a touch of class to the room.

Dave Sharp concentrates on his painting.

CADET BAND

Mr. Saxton, left, Cadet Band Director; Center, Choir Director; Right, Concert Band Director.

The Cadet Band this year was made up of 46 freshmen. Cadet Band was set up so that young musicians could perfect themselves before going on to the Concert Band. The Cadet Band members performed at the homecoming game and other concerts during the year.

Pat and Theresa are an important part of the brass section.

LOOKS IMPRESSIVE

Trumpets take a break to study their music.

A drummer waits for her cue.

Laurel Miller enjoys playing in the band.

Lynda and Anita work hard on their music.

CHOIR WORKS FOR A

Carrie, Debbie, Paula, and Judy enjoy their hour of choir.

Lynn, Cindy, Renee, and Cheryl prepare for their upcoming concert.

Julie Marlinga and Shelley Garza take their singing seriously.

HARMONIOUS SOUND

Joanne, Ann, Kara, and Brenda find time to have fun in class.

Kelli, Shari, Noreen, and Connie pause to relax their voices.

Sharon Tomczak takes advantage of a rest to look at the camera.

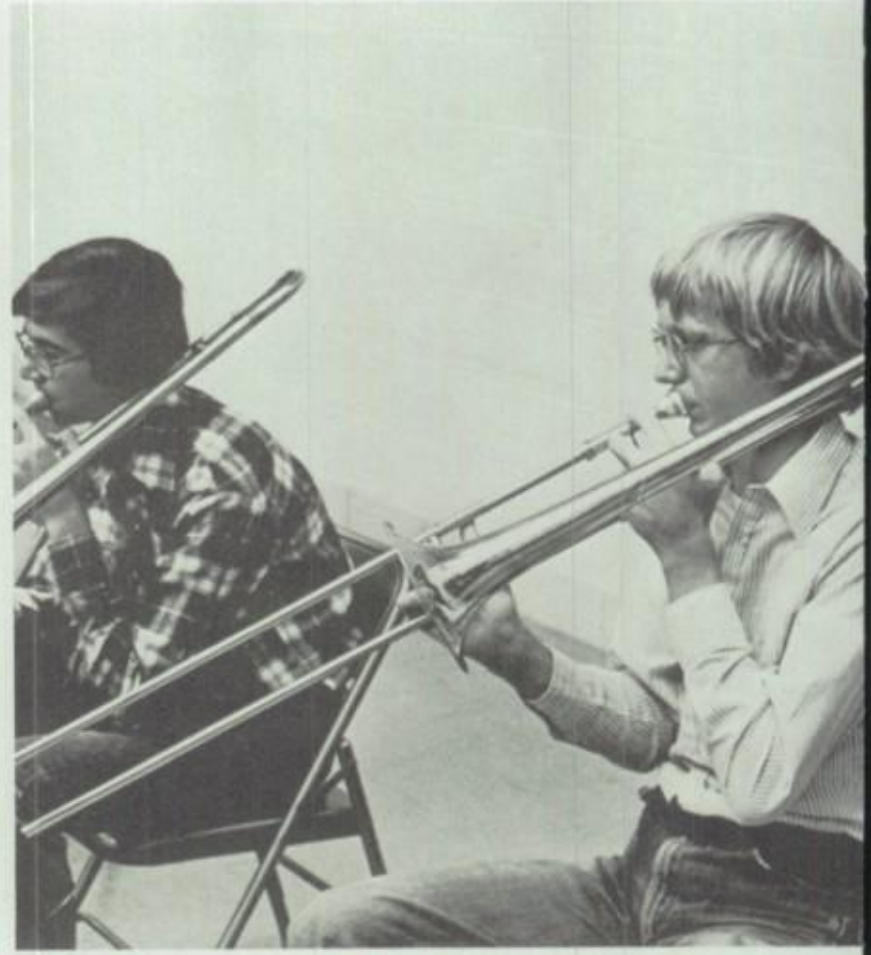

Westernaires was the only choir in existence this year. It consisted of 36 girls. Included in the total were 6 freshmen, 10 sophomores, 16 juniors, and 4 seniors. Westernaires' performances were limited this year. However they practiced hard for the times they did perform.

CONCERT BAND STRIVE

The sophomore baritone players stick together.

Mike Appold and Tim Mueller concentrate hard on their music.

Richard Koehler, Russ Vogtmann, and Don Ruether play the fight song to promote Western's spirit.

FOR PERFECTION

Barb Neering and Cathy Ivan check-out the music.

The band shows its spirit by playing at assemblies.

Cheryl concentrates during the homecoming game.

The Concert Band consisted of 78 members 41 sophomores, 23 juniors, and 14 seniors. Due to the millage defeat the band was limited in their performances. However, they did perform at the homecoming game, assemblies, and other concerts during the year.

HOME ECONOMICS EXPLORES POSSIBILITIES

Patty Kennedy shows her talent with kids.

The Home Economics Department shares the students' concerns for living and helps develop adult life skills. The department not only cooks but also offers courses such as Independent Living Skills, Exploring Childhood and Clothing and Textiles.

Family Health and Home Nursing is also taught by Red Cross standards. The semester course covers nursing skills that almost everyone will use in the future.

Lori Wilberding knows how to cook.

What are you staring at Tim Banaszak?

Tina Karnath concentrates on her sewing project.

Miss Kirkpatrick smiles for the camera.

Mrs. Morales explains the assignment carefully.

Consumer Concerns class learns about cars.

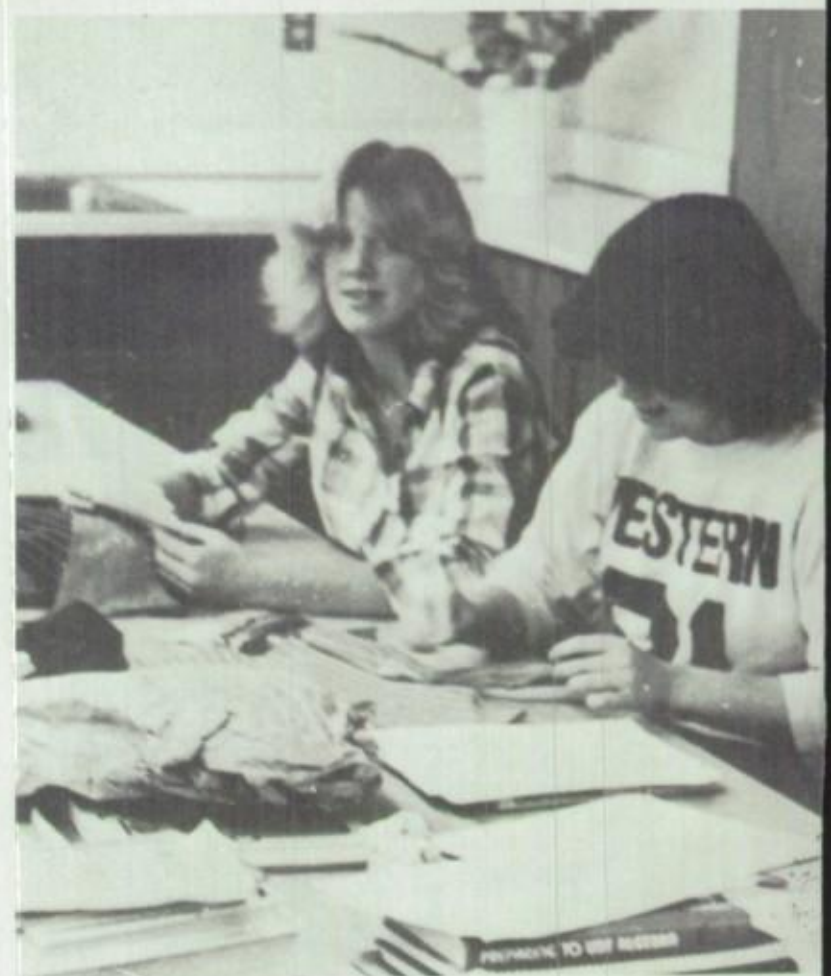

Cheryl Dietlein copies a favorite recipe — the one that didn't burn.

Carefully mixing her ingredients is Kim Mapes.

Lisa Schimdt learns of child care as the class looks on.

Is that what they teach you in Home Ec., Laurie Goss and Anne Ludwig?

Amy Klepser learns about trailer life on a Consumer Concerns field trip.

Members of foods class watch an exciting demonstration.

Measuring her baking powder is Tammy Gorski.

Jan Redick attacks her sewing enthusiastically!

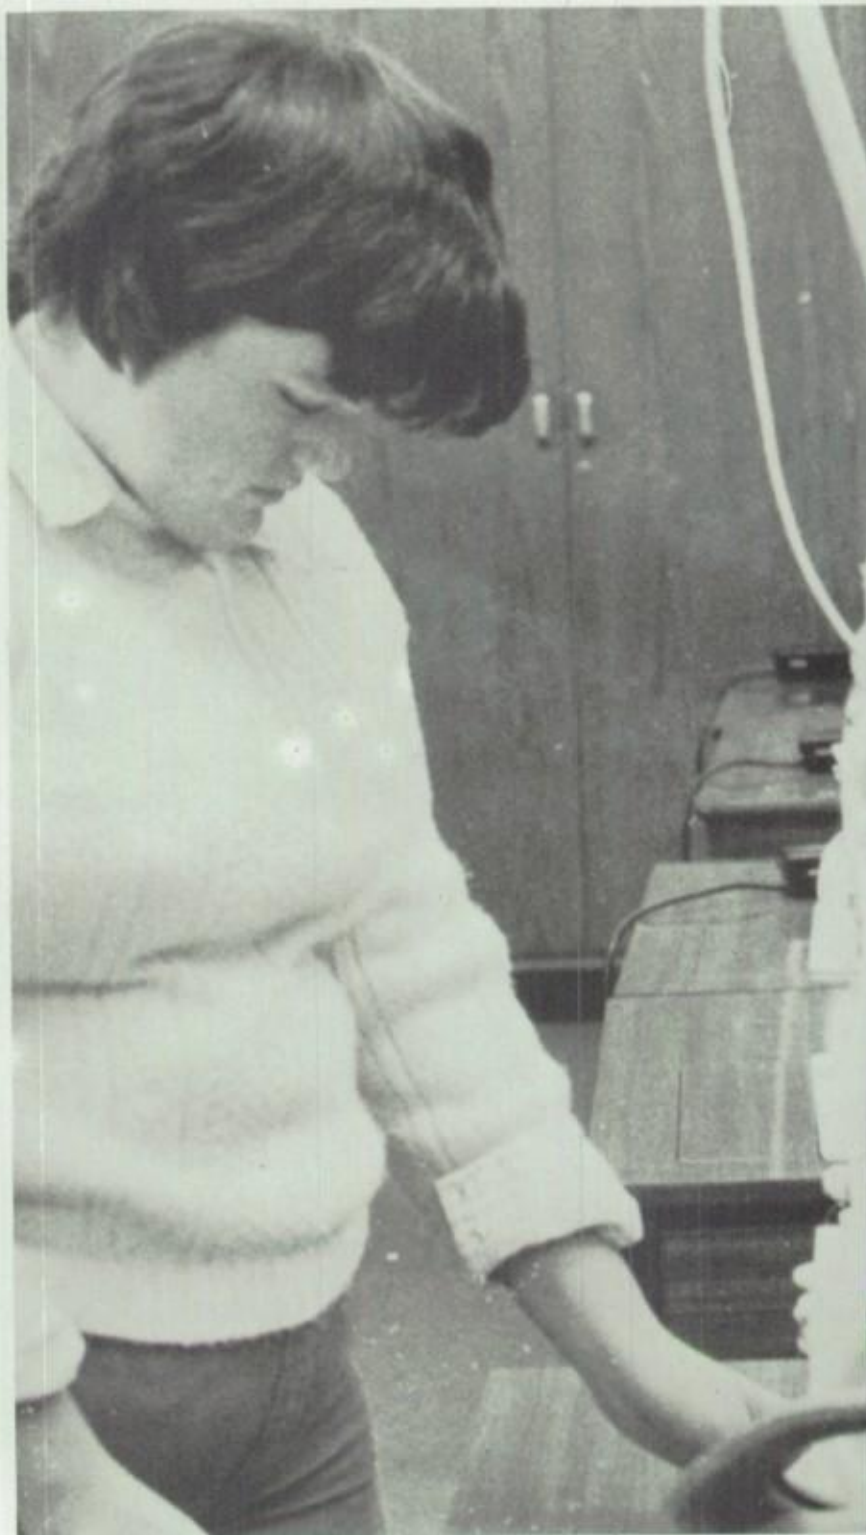

Don't pick yourself, Bonnie Barber!

Jan Redick seems to know what she's doing.

Becky Zettle wonders what's wrong with the sewing machine.

Tammy Gorski and Beth Ann Pelton's coffee cake sure looks good!

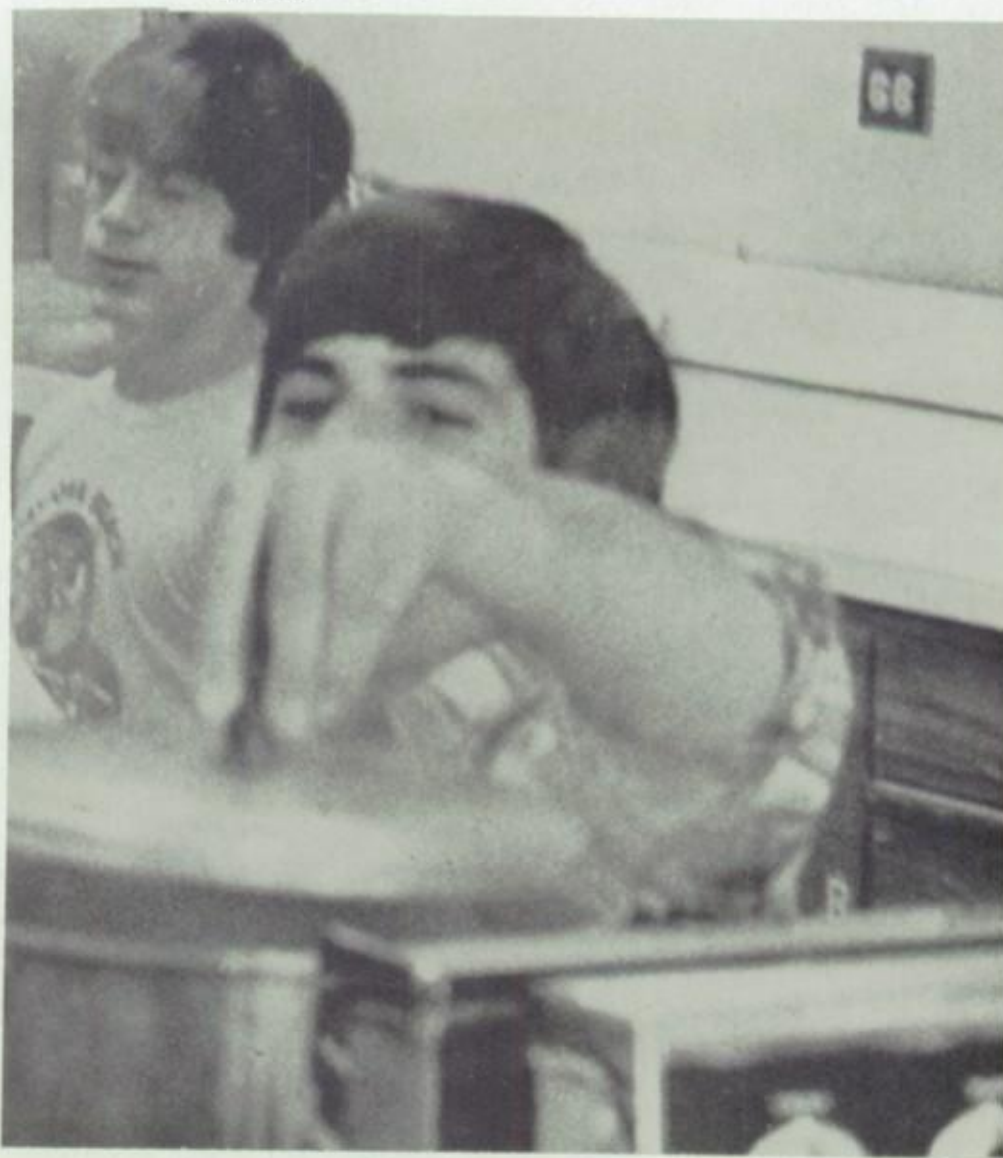

Is that your jeans you're cutting, Wendy Heinz?

Does Miss Kirkpatrick teach you how to lift chairs, Rod Lemuel?

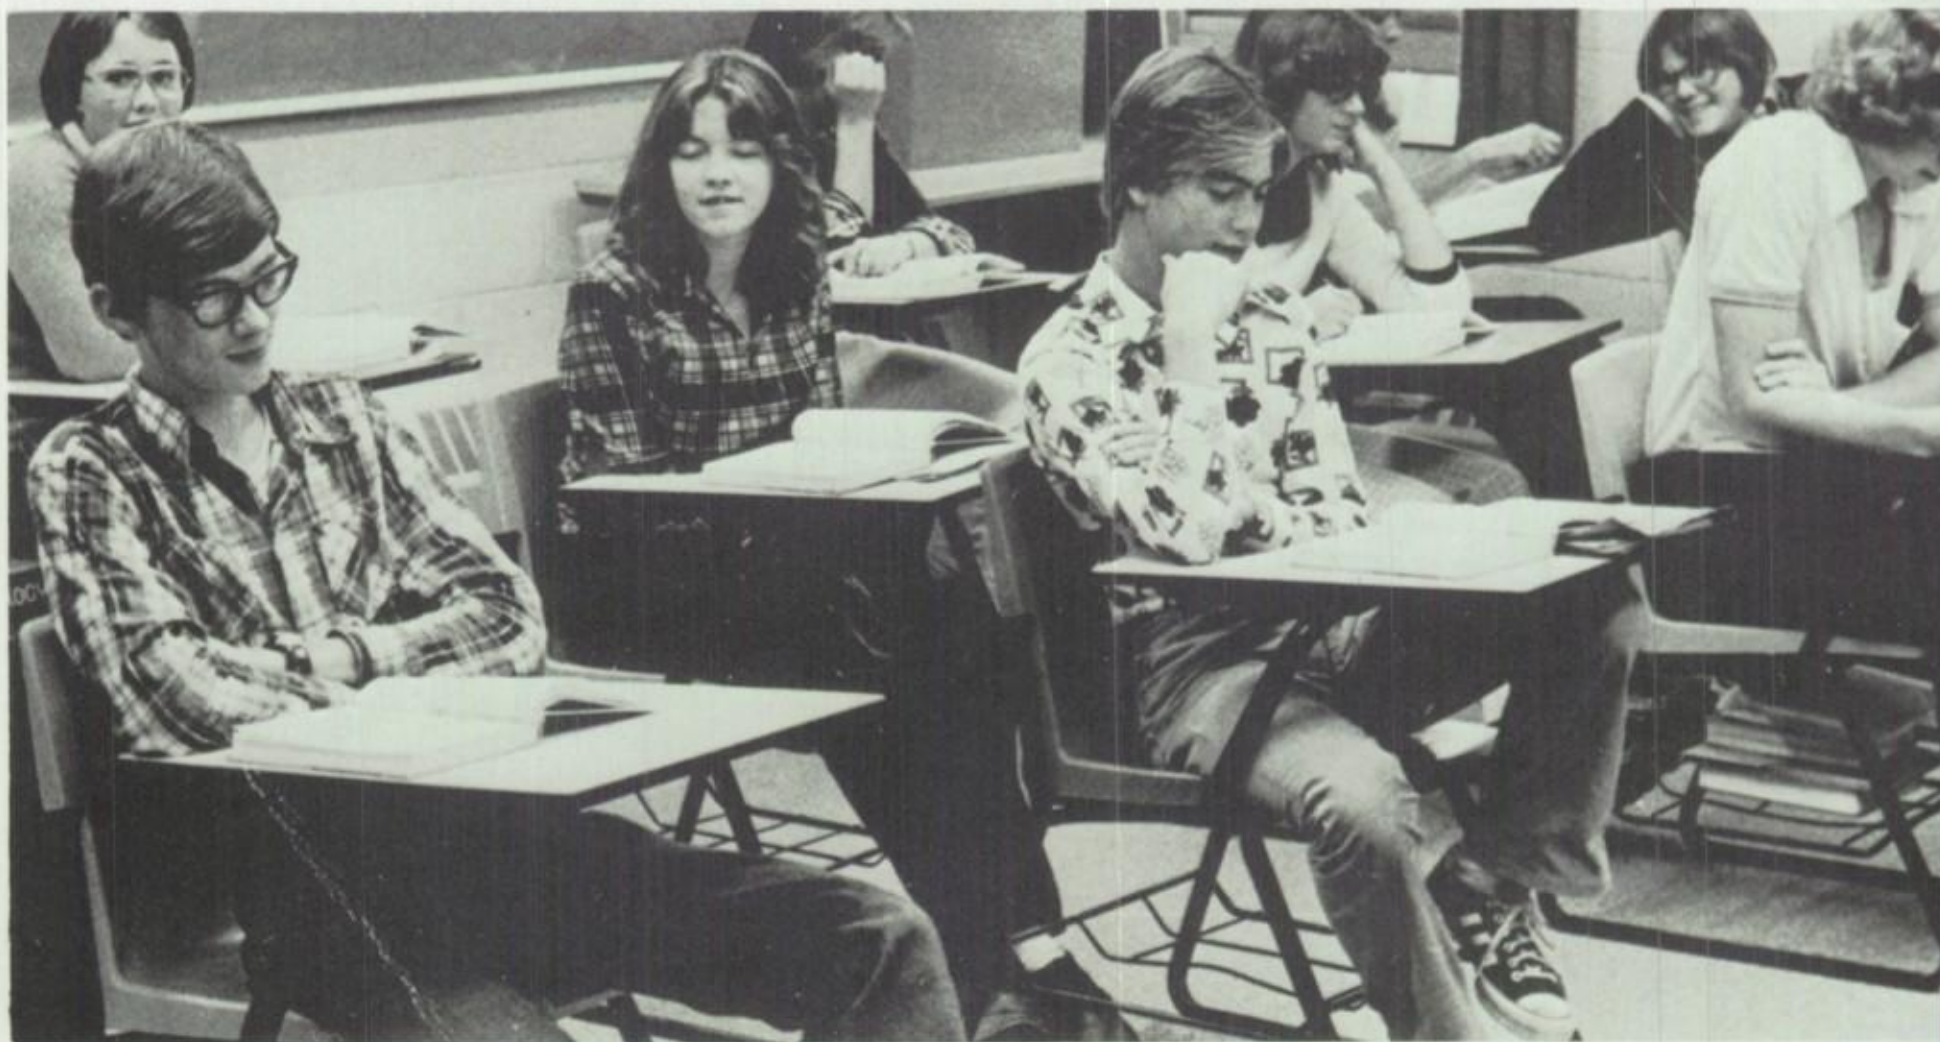

Kim Mapes is busy getting her hands greasy.

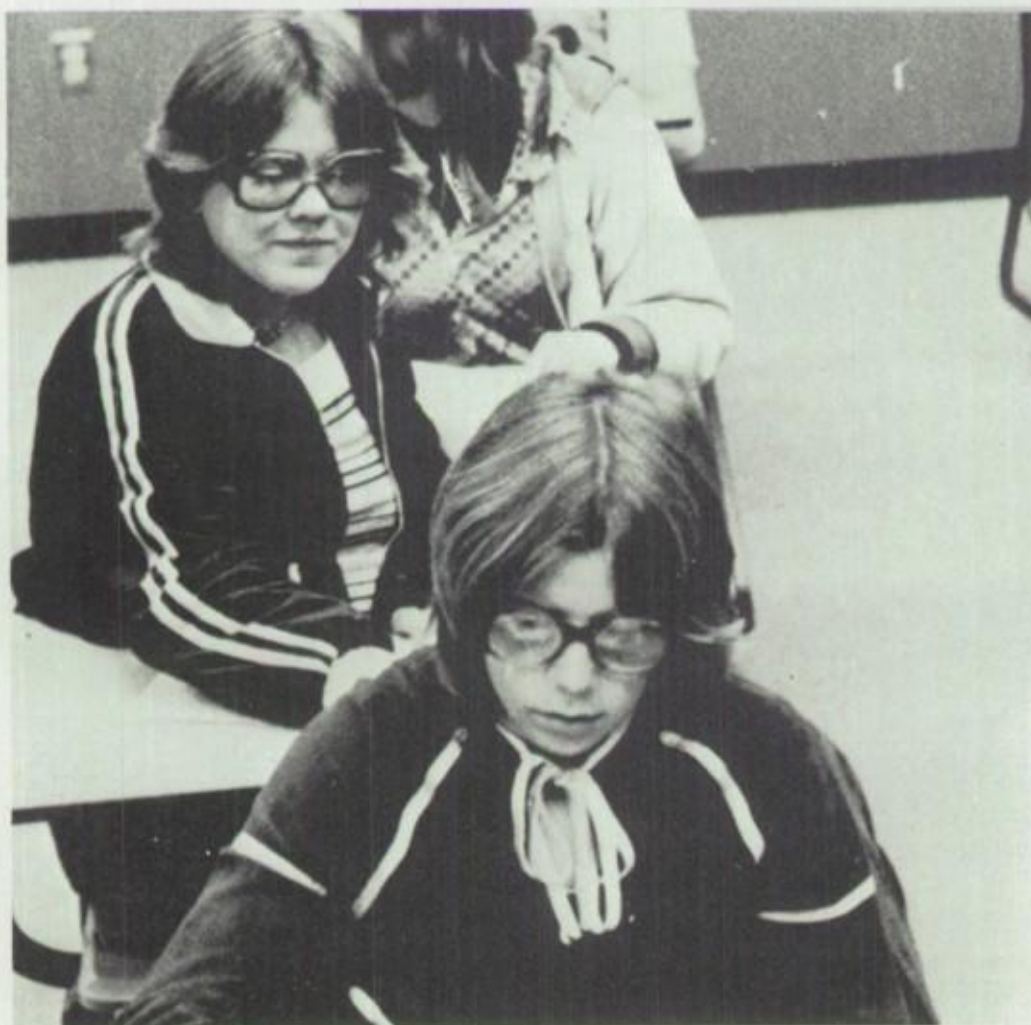

Caught: Pot Peeker, Mark Pajot, in action!

WHEN YOU $+$ IT ALL $\uparrow$ MATH

Steve Ensing, Lisa Storrs, Debbie Marshal, and Jim Szutkowski enjoy math class.

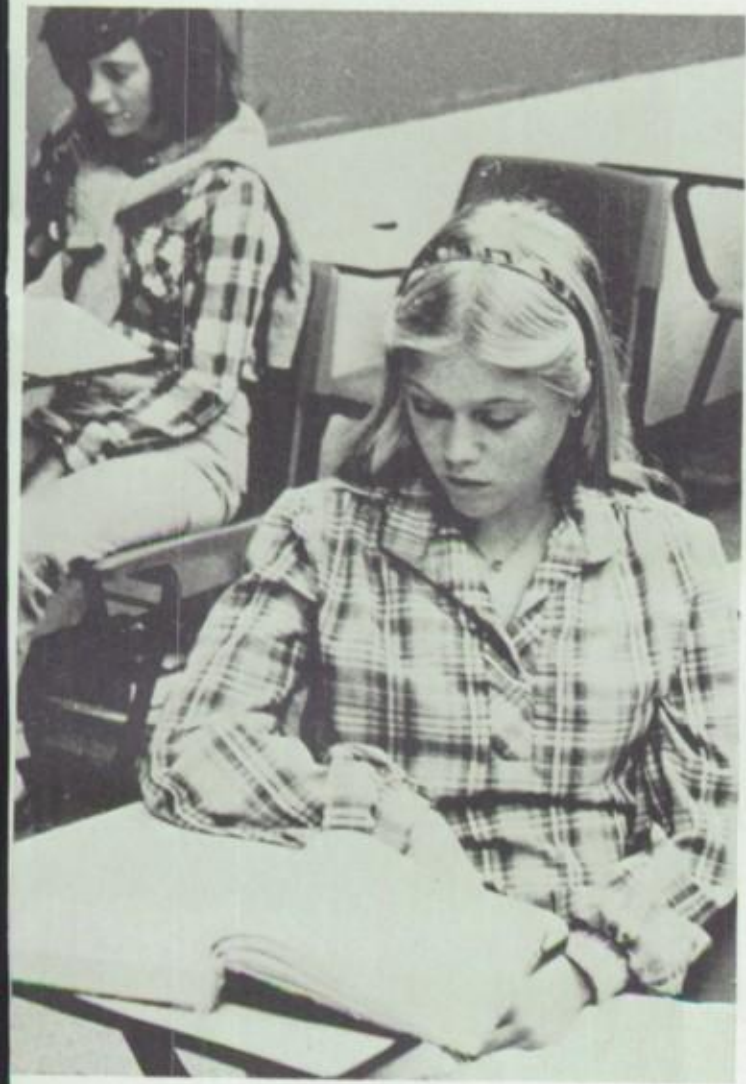

Students act camera shy.

Dave Sharp looks puzzled.

ISN'T SO BAD

Kristin Vandemark concentrates on a problem.

Students listen to the teacher during their math class.

Doing some work in math is amusing.

Debbie Marshal grins for the camera.

Scott Gwizdala does not seem to be paying attention.

Tina Gavord likes math.

Math teachers are left to right: William Carr, Kathy Langenburg, Dave Johnson, Kenneth Greenhoe, Rebecca Post, Carl Learman.

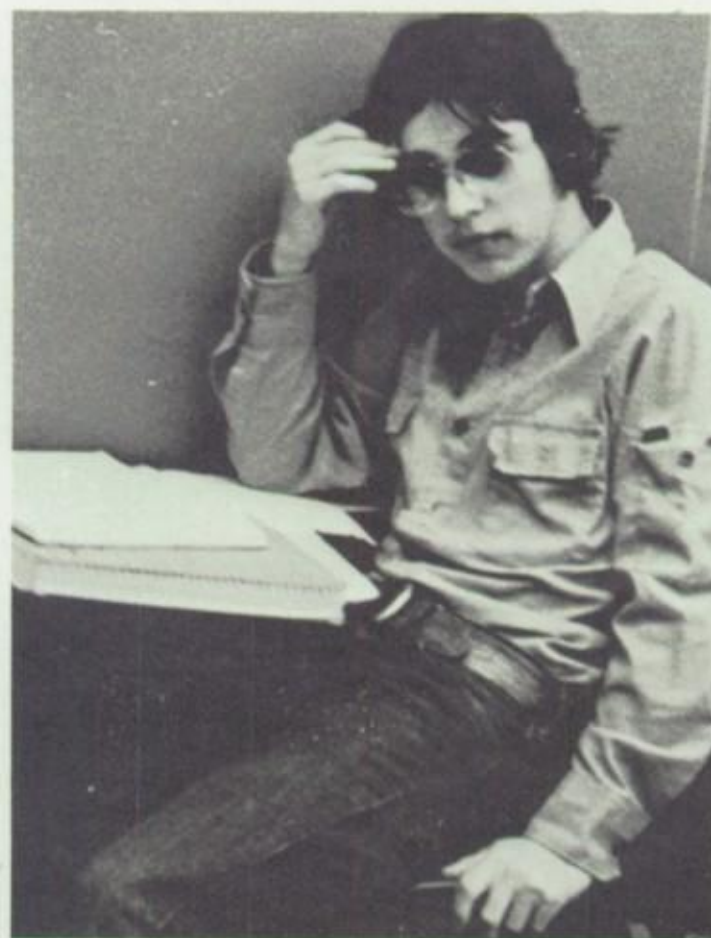

Students find math class amusing.

Wendy Szymanski dreams on.

Students find in math it's necessary to study.

Wayne Geiersbach takes a break from studying.

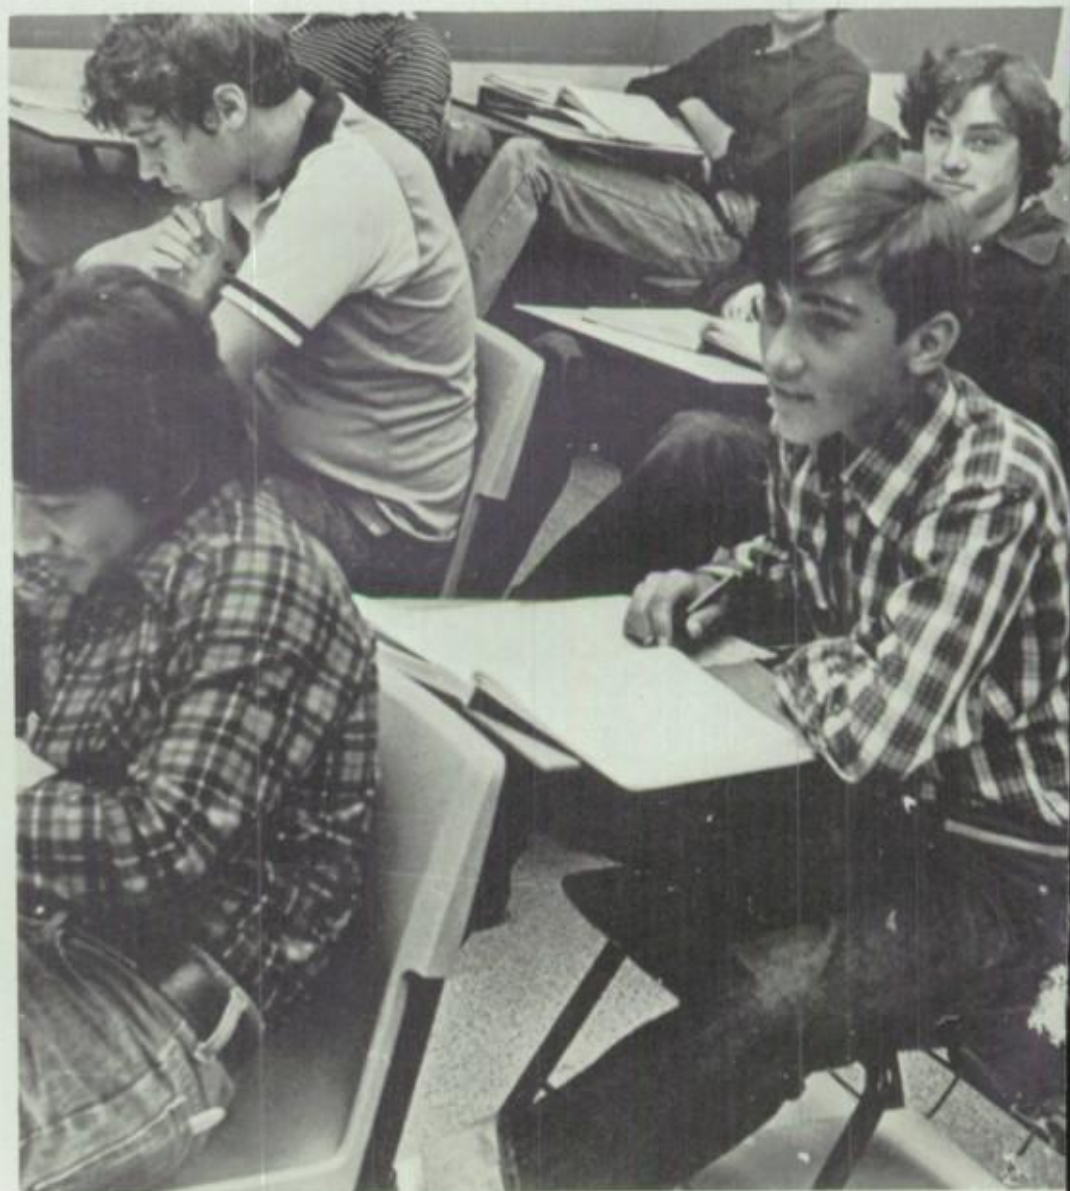

Peggy Kernstock does her job.

Pauline Behmlander thinks that math is a joke.

Mike Evans and Troy McCormick look excited.

Consumers math is a problem to some students.

Bob Velaco looks over his math assignment.

Frento Cortes looks over a magazine in free time.

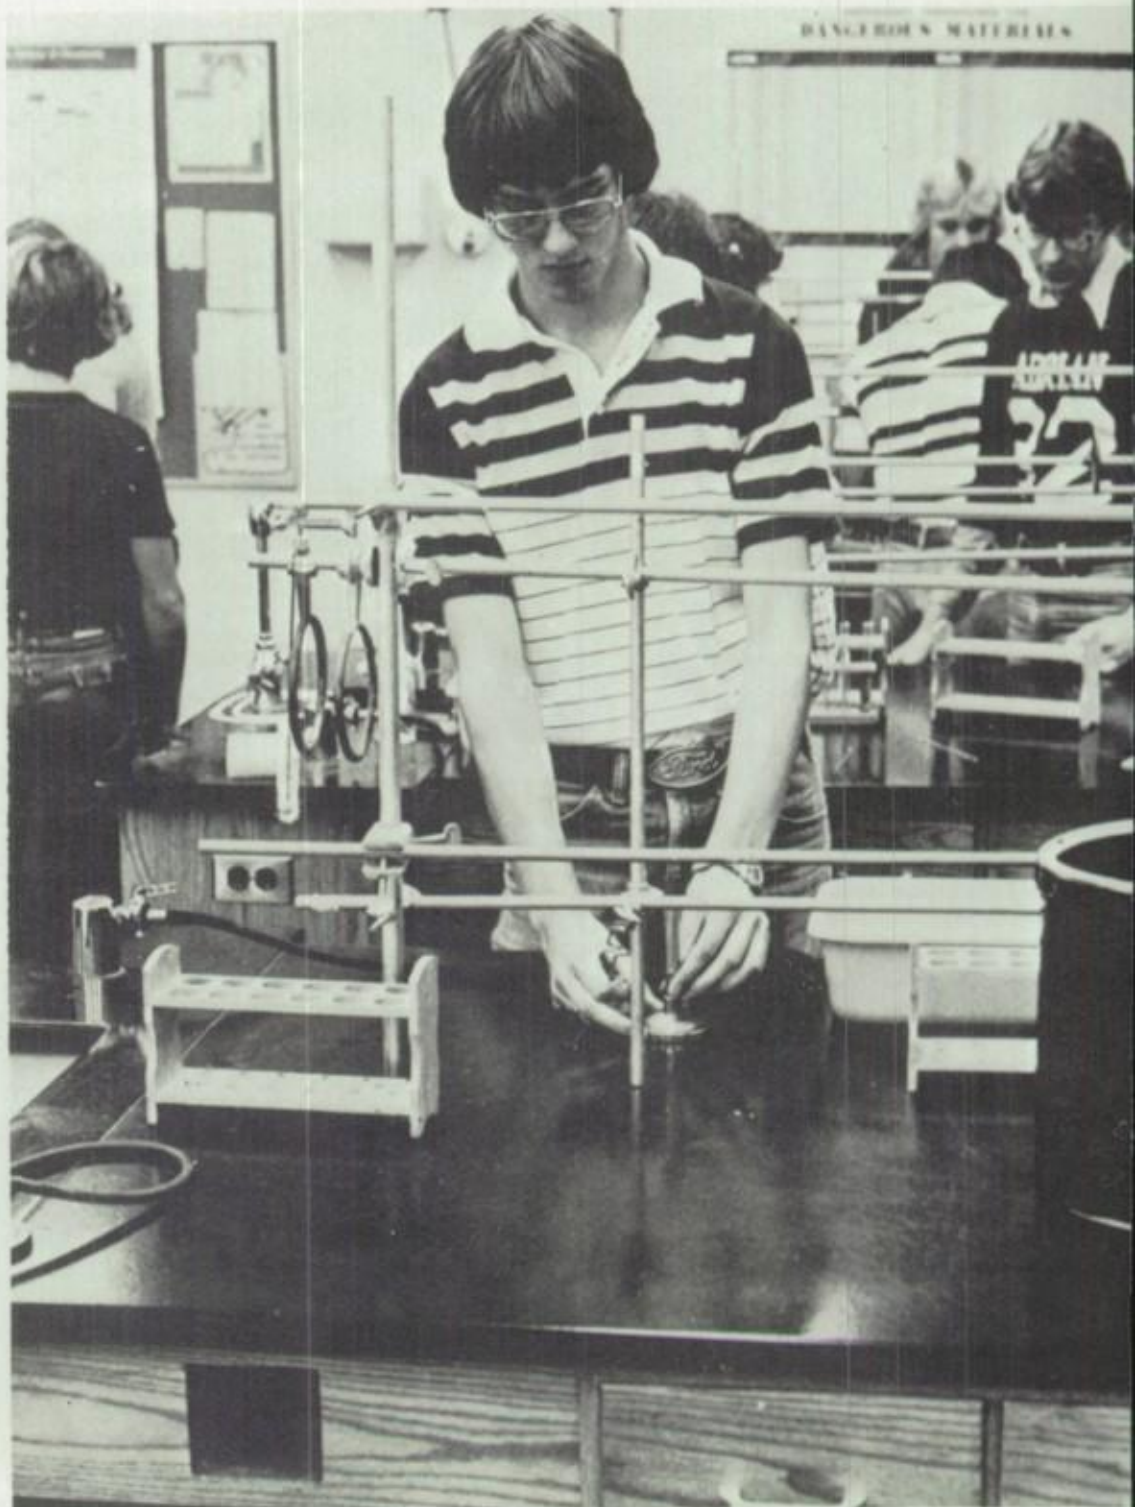

Nick Davenport takes his eyes off his assignment to have his picture taken.

Even though math can be puzzling, there is always some way to figure it out. Today's math classes at Western include Consumers Math, Elementary Algebra, Algebra, Advanced Algebra, Plane Geometry, Plane and Solid Geometry, Trigonometry or Senior Math and Vocational Algebra. Students have many classes and many instructors to choose from.

SCIENCE: EXPLORING, EXPERIMENTS, LEARNING

Science involves a great deal of hard work and concentration, but in the long run many students enjoy the experience they get. Lab investigations, experiments and growing plants are only a few of the many different experiences that are offered to the students. Science attracts many students that are preparing themselves for college, but it also attracts students that are just interested in the study of science itself. There's a wide variety of courses available from General Science to Physics. With the many different classes offered, the Science Department has proved to be very popular.

Brad Wishowski prepares for an experiment.

Brian Paige, Matt Pangborn, and Fred Schweinsberg use the microscopes.

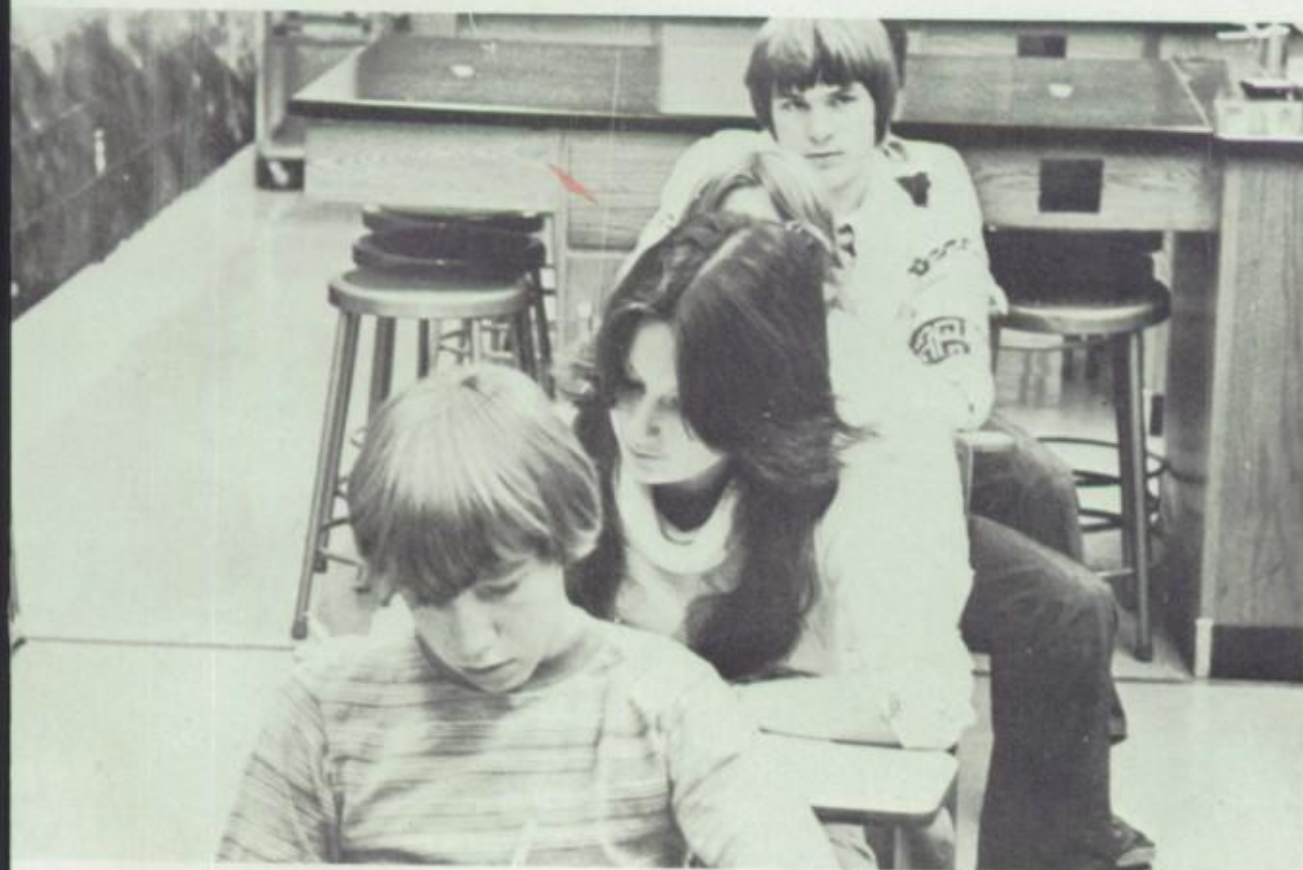

Tom Laetz remembers to turn the water off.

Junior Jeanine Sinke meditates on chemistry problems.

Jeff Dixon and Francie Finn do their bookwork studiously.

Kim Stone carefully follows the lab.

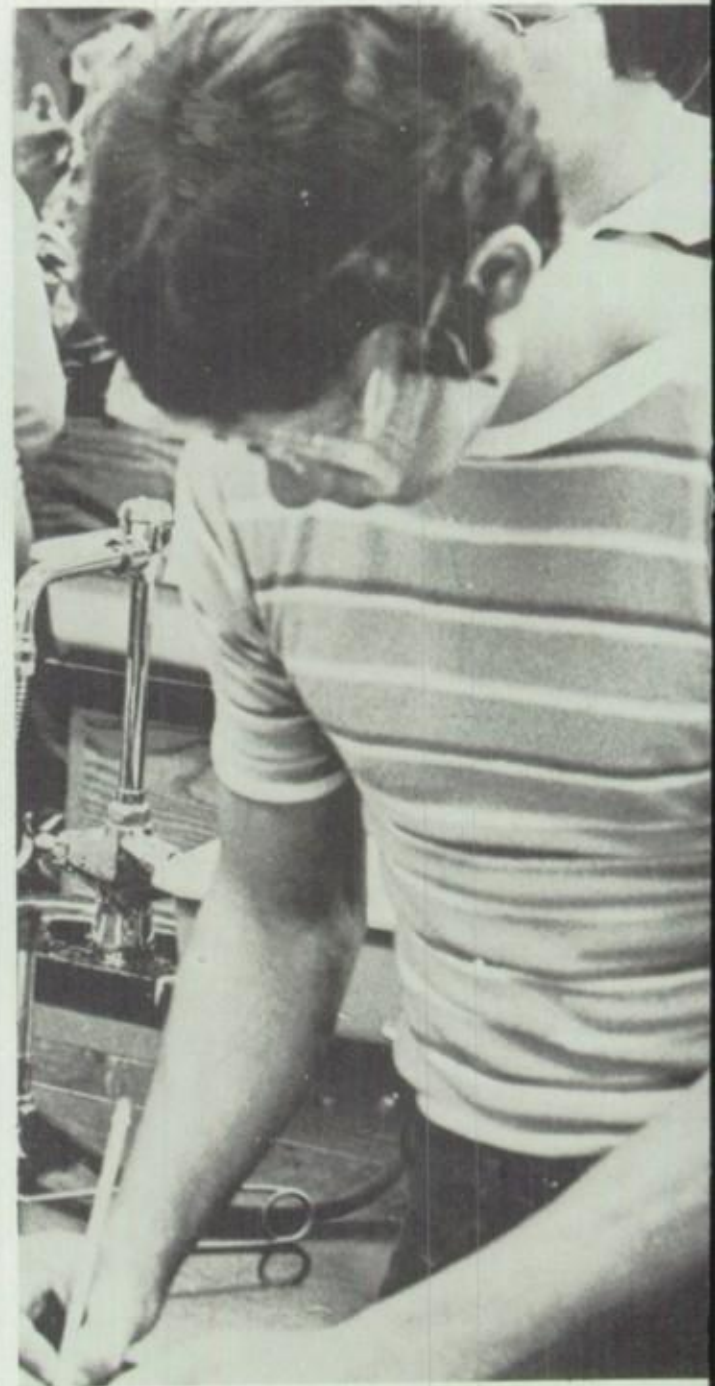

Vicki Knoerr and some friends help each other.

Three heads are better than one discovers Dave Pashack and his friends.

Joe Bachelder figures the final solution.

Senior Tammy Braun listens to the lecture.

Some of Mr. Packard's 2nd hour class absorbs the day's lessons while others daydream the time away.

Mr. Drummond demonstrates a lab.

Pam Engelhardt and Cheryl Jones look on as a friend works.

the classes that they teach in the science department.

Connie Roth and Joan Rabideau examine their final results.

Carefully, Connie Luptowski starts an experiment.

Mike McCann, Doug Wirsing, and Stu Kernstock observe their specimen in science class.

Kelly McDonald and Sherry Wegener look for the true answers to their questions.

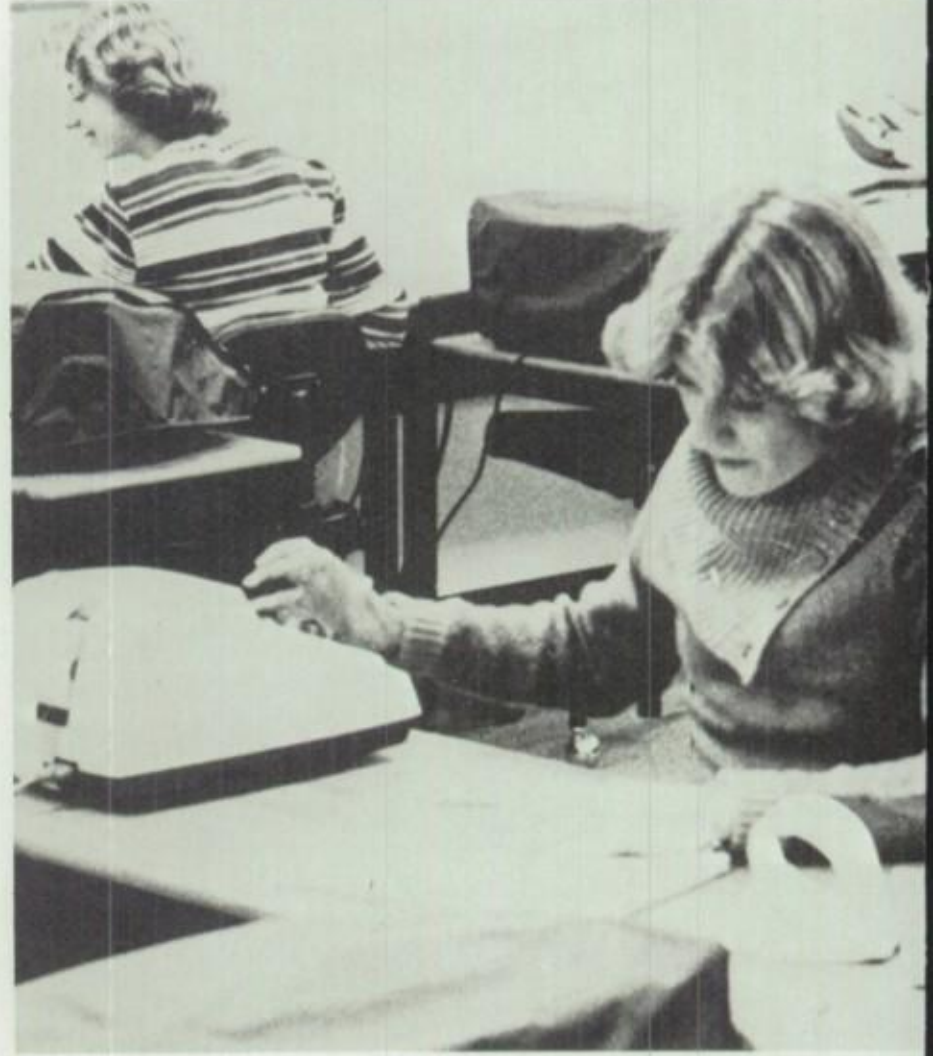

Dave Griggs concentrates on his homework.

BUSINESS DEPARTMENT

Come on Eugene Martin! Let us in on the secret.

Dana Walker concentrates on getting her job done.

DEVELOPS SKILLFUL STUDENTS

Linda Long takes time out for a quick picture.

Mr. Grocholski looks down as he explains an assignment.

Brenda Chapman and Kelly Averill work diligently at their assignments.

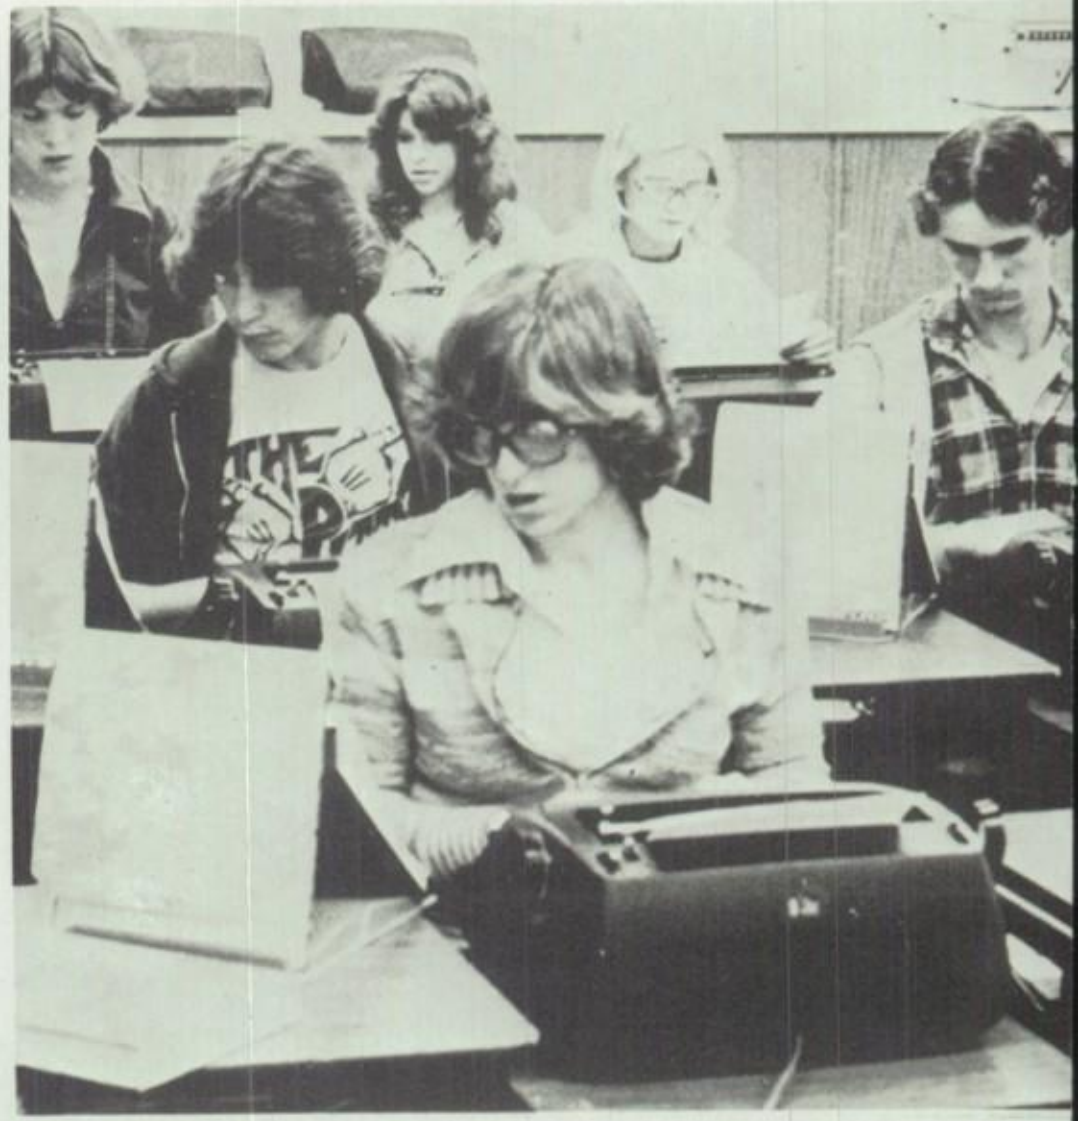

Western business education classes aid college and business bound students because they offer opportunities to learn important skills. This year's courses included Accounting, Typing, Shorthand, Record Keeping, and Business Machines.

Because of the millage defeat this year the business department could not enroll all the students who wanted to take some business classes.

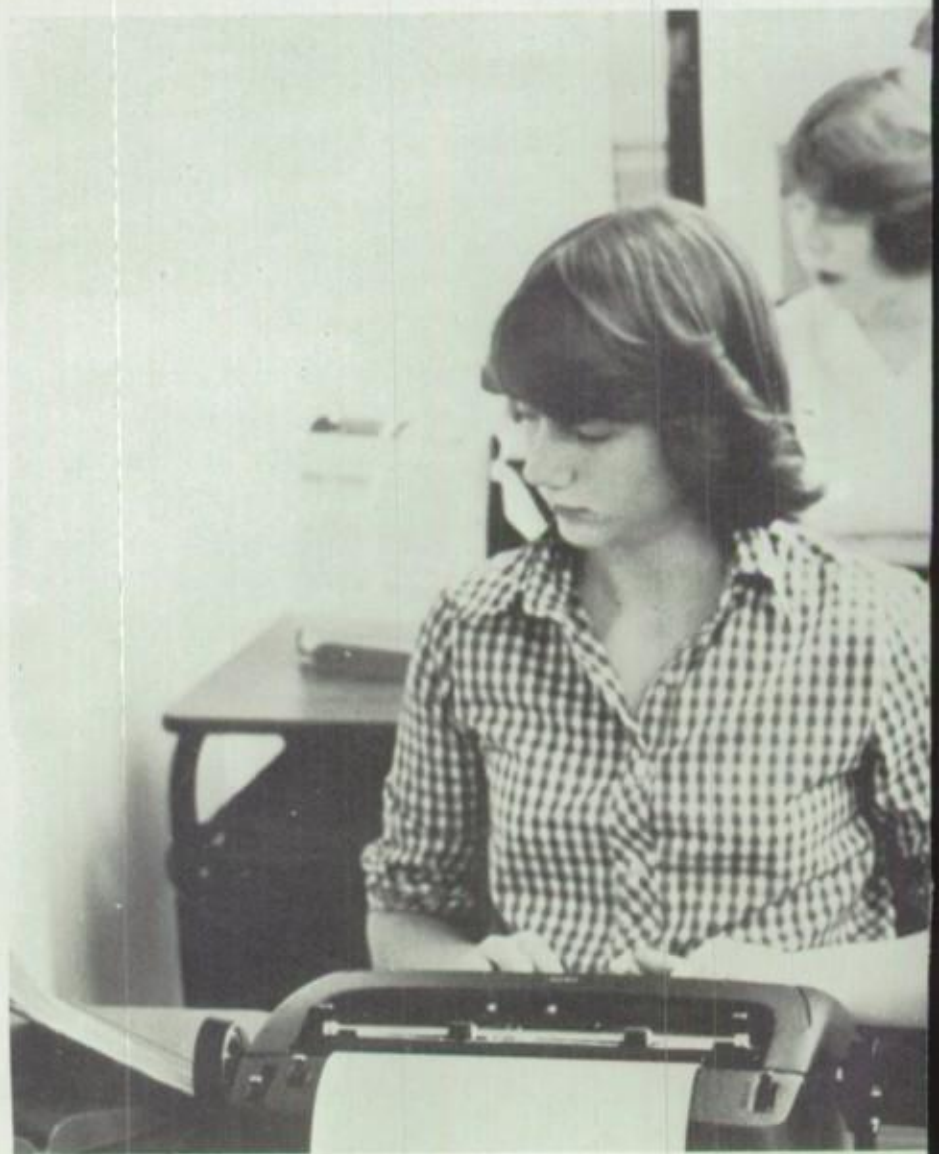

Accounting students work hard on keeping their minds on their assignments.

Typing students concentrate on keeping their eyes on their books.

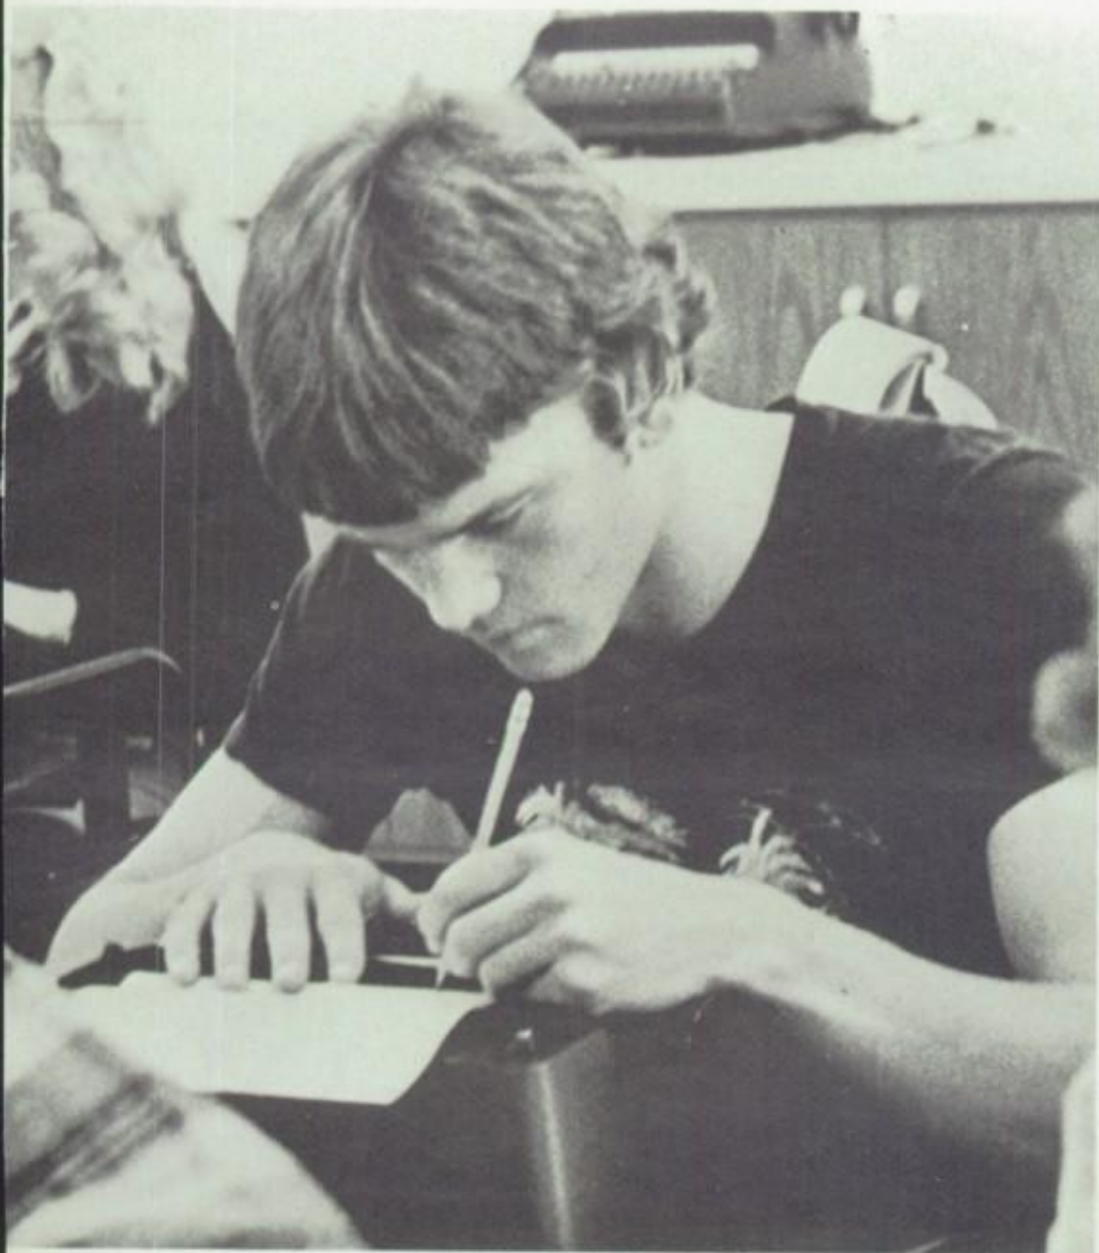

Accounting student Nancy Smith daydreams during her class period.

Don't fall asleep Vickie Casey.

Oops! Steve Datte makes another mistake.

Bruce Grezegorczyk concentrates on his typing.

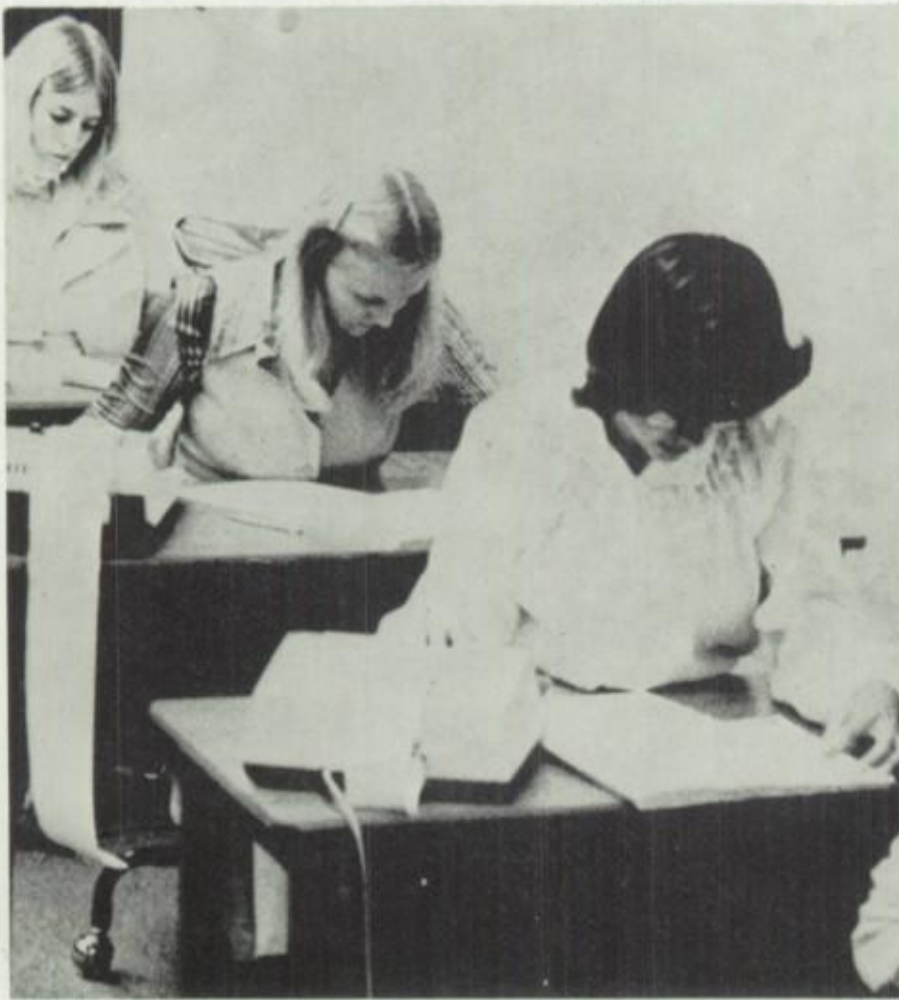

Kathey Horstman and Wendy Martin take a break from their accounting.

Janet Kruger looks over her assignment in Business Machines.

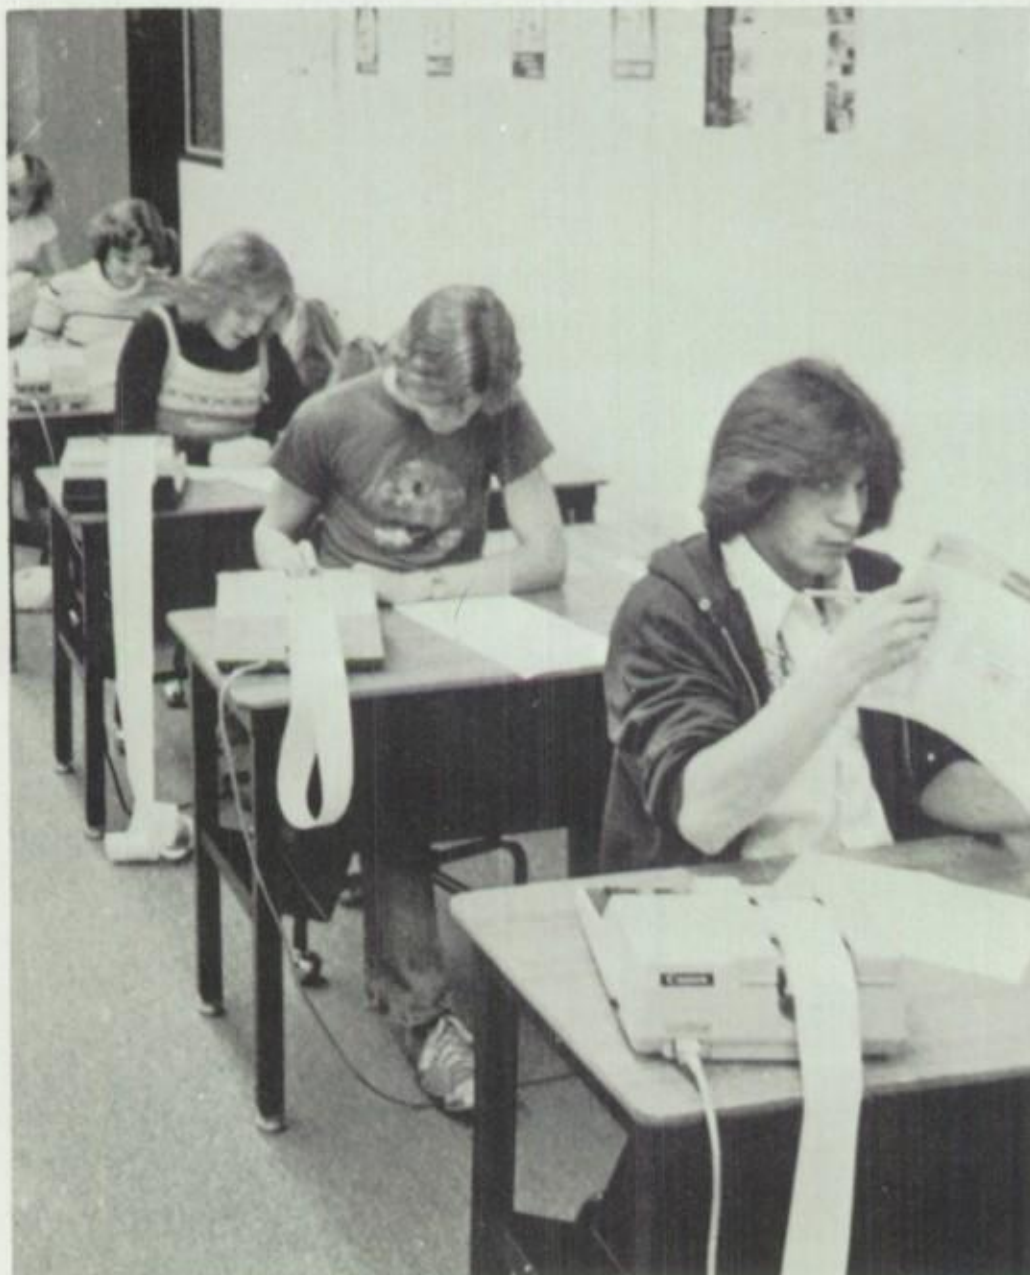

Business machinists work on keeping their eyes off the keys.

Kent Winslow stays after school for a make-up assignment.

Look how the business machine students keep their concentration.

Steve Beyer looks over his assignment.

Jolette Babinski has quick fingers in business machines.

Business students enjoy business law classes.

Marcy Stockwell and Lisa Lovely discuss their accounting assignment.

Business students work hard to complete their assignment.

FOREIGN LANGUAGES

C. Ennest and R. Post stop for a moment.

"Not more work," moans Scott Prill.

Foreign languages help our Western students to develop and expand their vocabulary and increase their knowledge and understanding of the English language, and most importantly it introduces them to the history, culture and different lifestyles of foreign lands. Western offers four courses in this field: French, German, Latin and Spanish. Any one of these will be valuable to any Western student for international travel, for the job market and as good preparation for the college bound student.

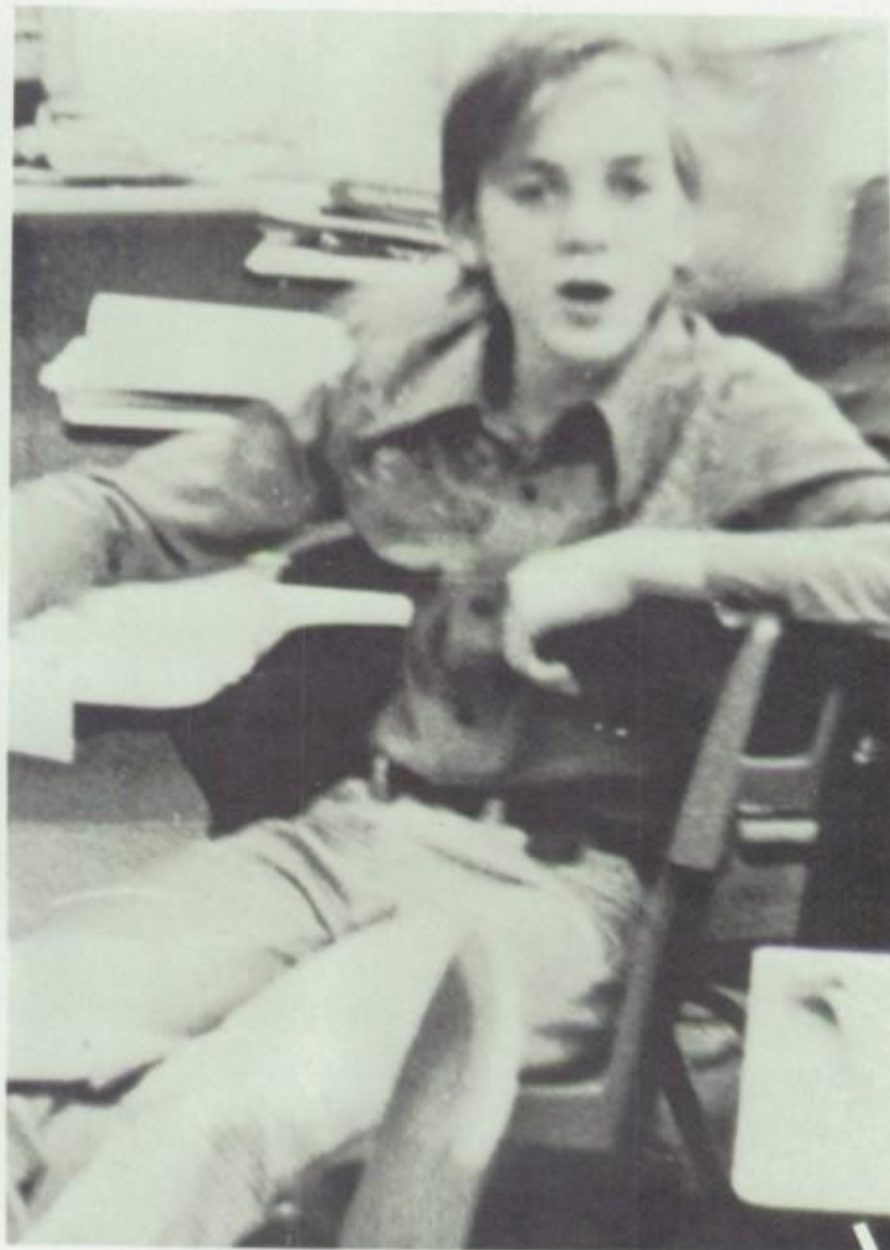

Studiously at work is E. Anderson.

ARE SPOKEN WELL

Fred Avlia studies hard in language class.

"Hey, what's happening?" says Bob Kuehne.

Zoanne Hnatiuk plays teacher in class.

Everyone's hard at work.

"That freshman look" is expressive.

"It's easier than I thought."

"Gee don't blush easy," snickers Brian Mehlhose.

Andy Diment is just so happy.

"OK, Heidi, hand it over," whispers Darlene Foco.

Reading seems to be interesting.

Sue McIntyre enjoys her work.

Kathie finds time to smile while doing her assignment.

Ah, Brenda Satkowiak, reading isn't that bad.

Andrea Baker is hard at work.

Jan Bouza finds that class can be fun.

"Don't be shy, Cathy Heritier."

"Isn't he gorgeous!" exclaims Mary Kaczmarek.

Robby Rybkowski wants to know what's going on!

Miss Mitchell keeps the class on their toes.

Sharon Rice explains her thoughts to Tina Nashatka.

The class listens intently.

Pam Buckland prepares for class.

PHYSICAL EDUCATION KEEPS

Sophomores jog on their way out to Phys. Ed. class.

Sharon Smith and Lori McGee prefer to walk.

Students of Western High are required to take a Phys. Ed class their freshman year. Often sophomores, juniors and seniors continue longer than required, enjoying the many benefits from Phys. Ed., among these, better health and physical fitness. Western offers a wide variety of gym classes to suit everyone's taste, whether it be soccer, volleyball or even dance. No matter which one the students choose, they all help to keep a person physically fit and usually are quite enjoyable.

"Oh no, another fumble!" moans Tammy Hoffmeister.

STUDENTS IN SHAPE

Students compete in a volley ball game.

Sophomore girls keep their eyes on the ball.

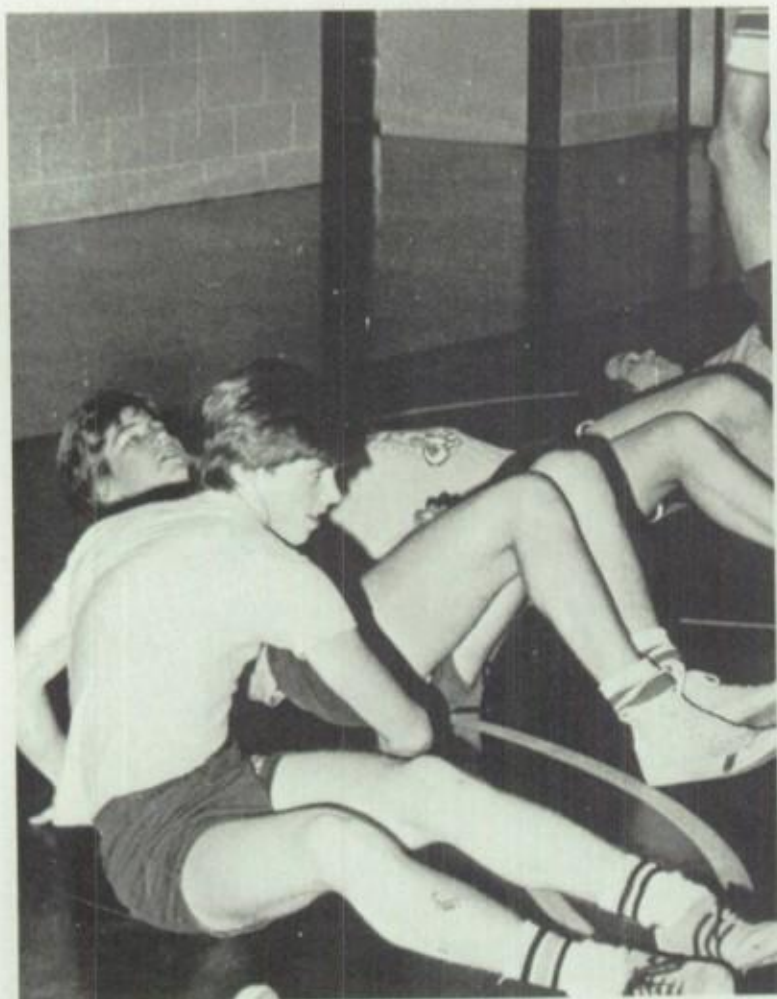

Lori Goss shows off her volley ball skills.

Sophomores take a break during class.

Kellie Houk enjoys a good run.

Now, now girls, shouldn't we be running?

Debbie Bujalski shows her flexibility for the camera.

Paula Pichiotino is dumbfounded.

Phys. Ed. students plan their strategy.

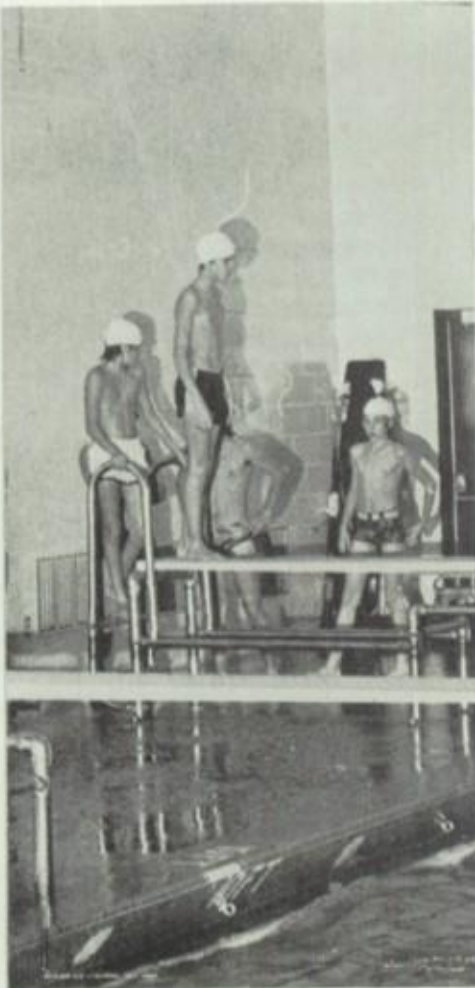

Students relax in Mr. Whipp's class.

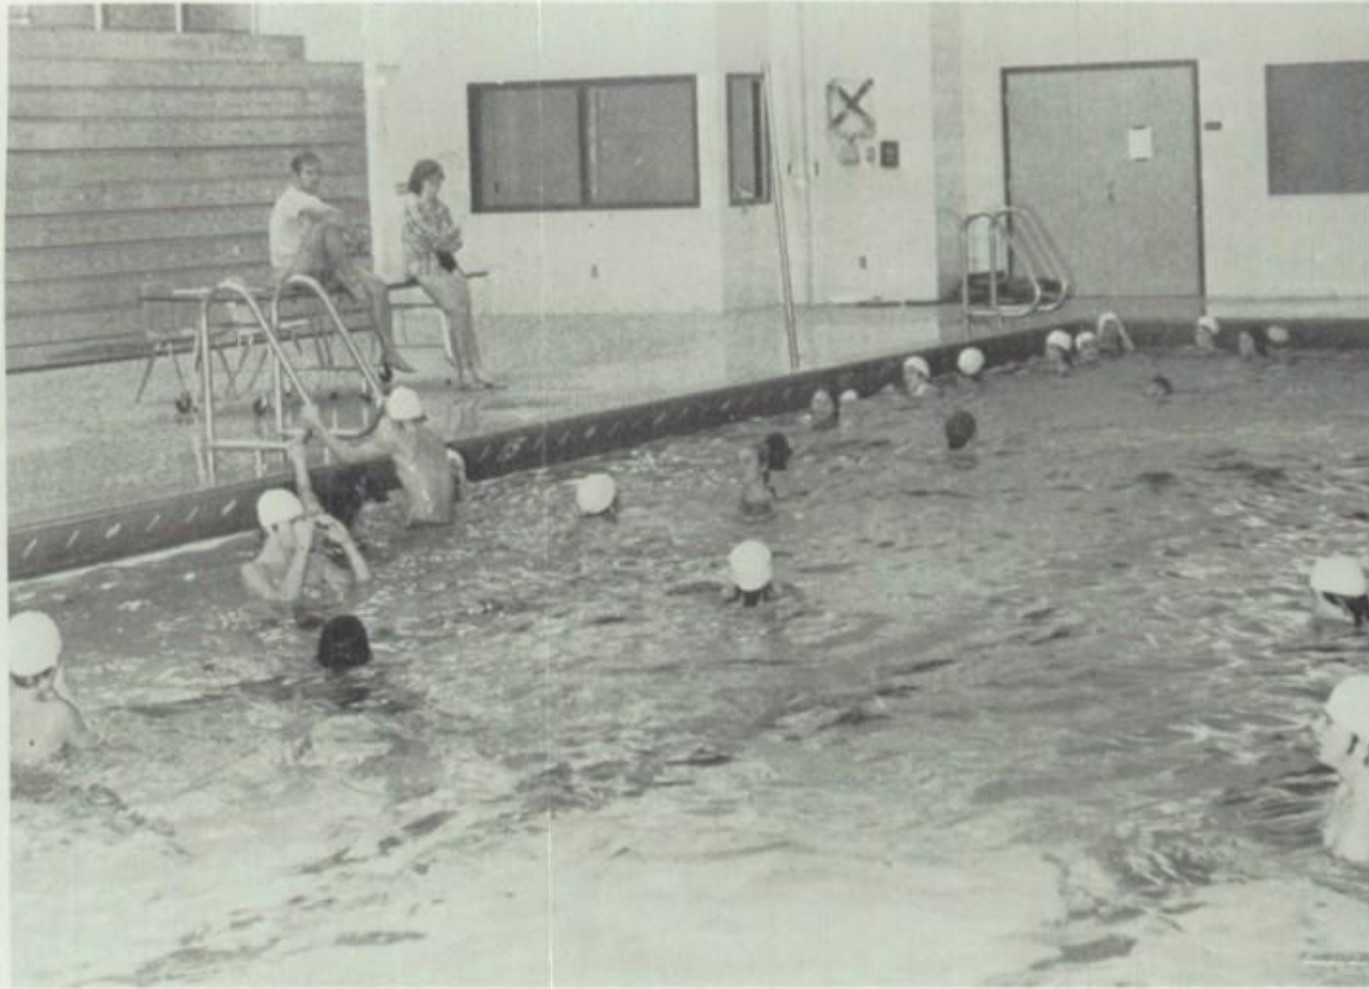

Isn't he talented?!!!

A freshman uses concentration before his next dive.

Mr. Manwell watches over his students.

Becky Lamb and Chris Howard have fun splashing around.

Kathy Ferrio emerges from the pool.

A group of girls take time to pose.

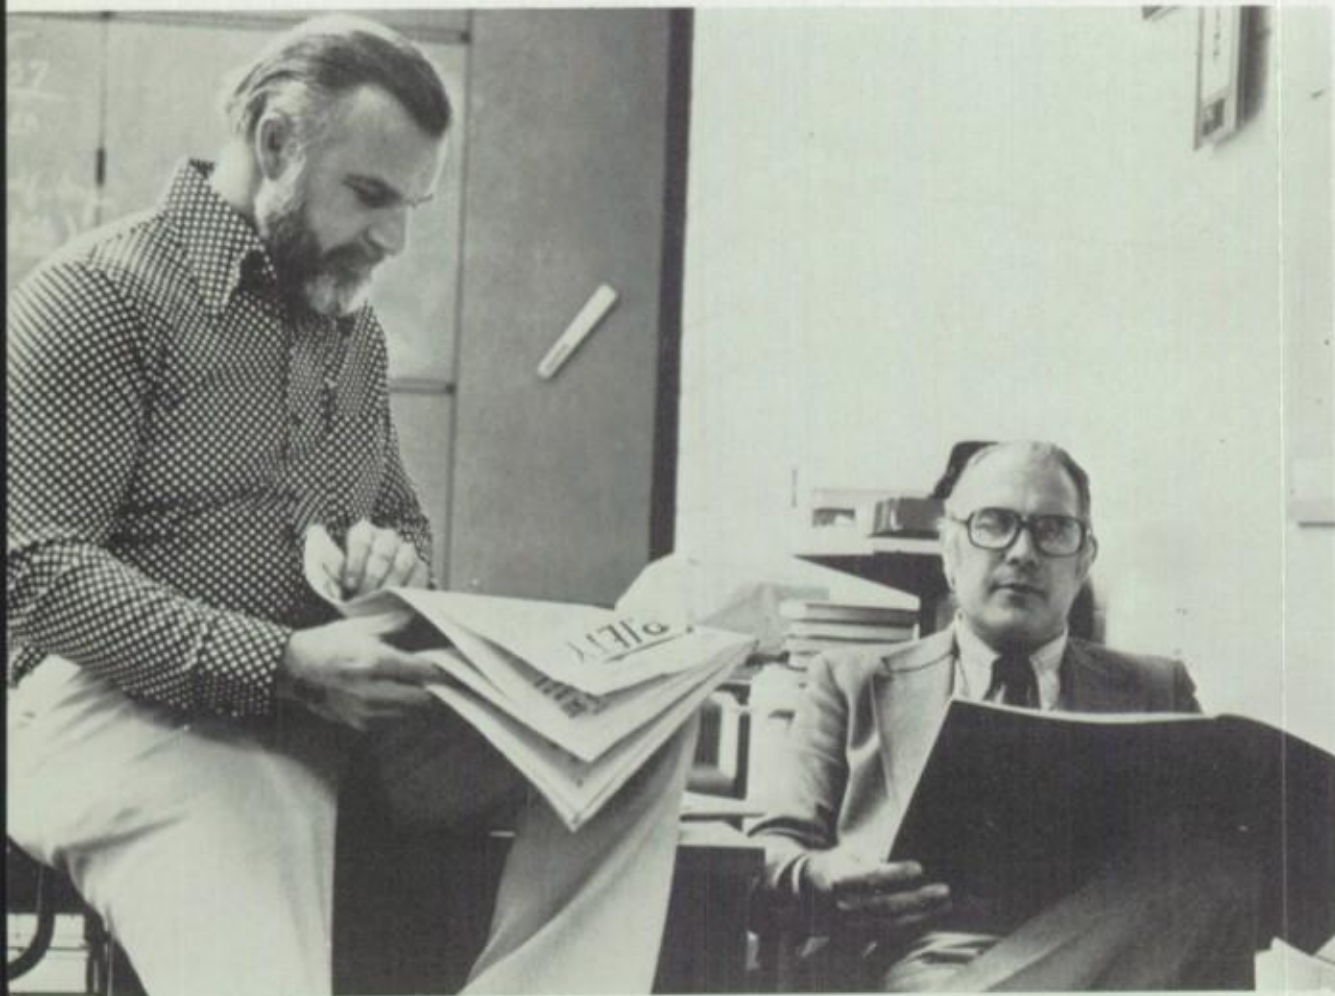

A pool student returns to the pool with his kickboard.

Phys. Ed. teachers left to right are: A. Manwell, W. Smiley, T. Cody, L. Laracey, C. Whipp, R. Syring, P. Markel.

SPEECH IS A LOT

Speech instructors, Mr. Ferguson (left) and Mr. Bradley (right) are hard at work.

Freshman Kim Rosenbrock enjoys Let's Get Acquainted

Chris Mathewson and Bill Anderson goof around, while Brian Chartier tries to study.

Marcine Grzegorzcyk can't help but laugh at Mr. Ferguson

MORE THAN SMALL TALK

Bill Anderson and Cindy Bryant prove that Speech isn't all talk.

Junior Joan Brewster looks for just the right word.

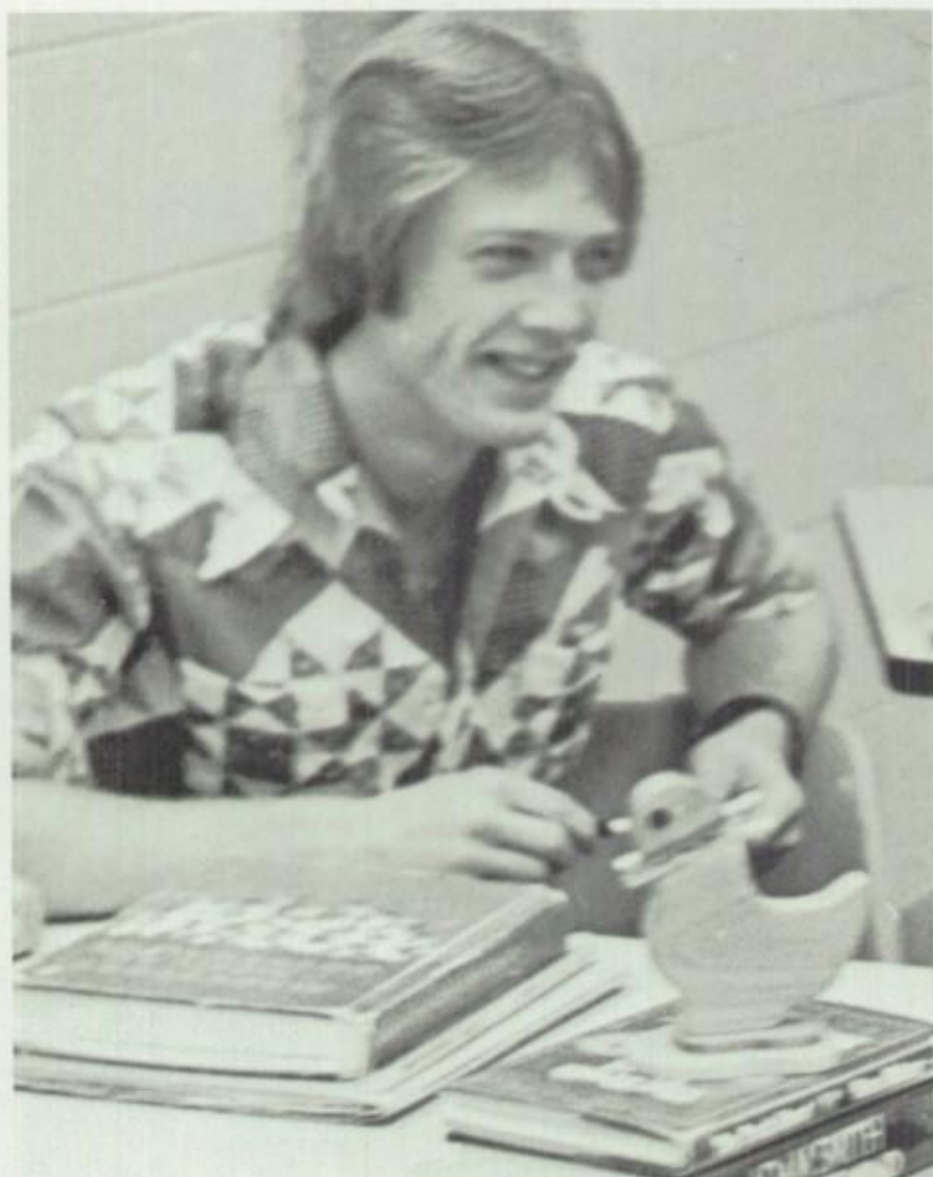

First hour Speech is too much for Roxi Nowak.

Speech is a required class at Western High. But it is one of the most useful courses offered. No matter what field a student decides to go into, it will help him to better understand the people he will encounter in the future.

The classes offered to fill the speech requirement are Let's Get Acquainted, offered to freshmen to help them adjust to Western High School's way of life. Drama, which instructs students in the basics of acting. Radio and T.V. is for the student that is thinking of going into the field of broadcasting. And finally, Interpersonal Communication, which most juniors take to fulfill their speech requirement.

Even though speech is one of the smaller departments in the school, it is staffed by two competent instructors. Mr. Ron Ferguson, Speech Instructor, and Mr. Frank Bradley, Drama and Radio T.V. instructor.

Larry Kennedy enjoys speech.

Laurie Schindler gets a kick out of speech.

Juniors talk over their speech topics.

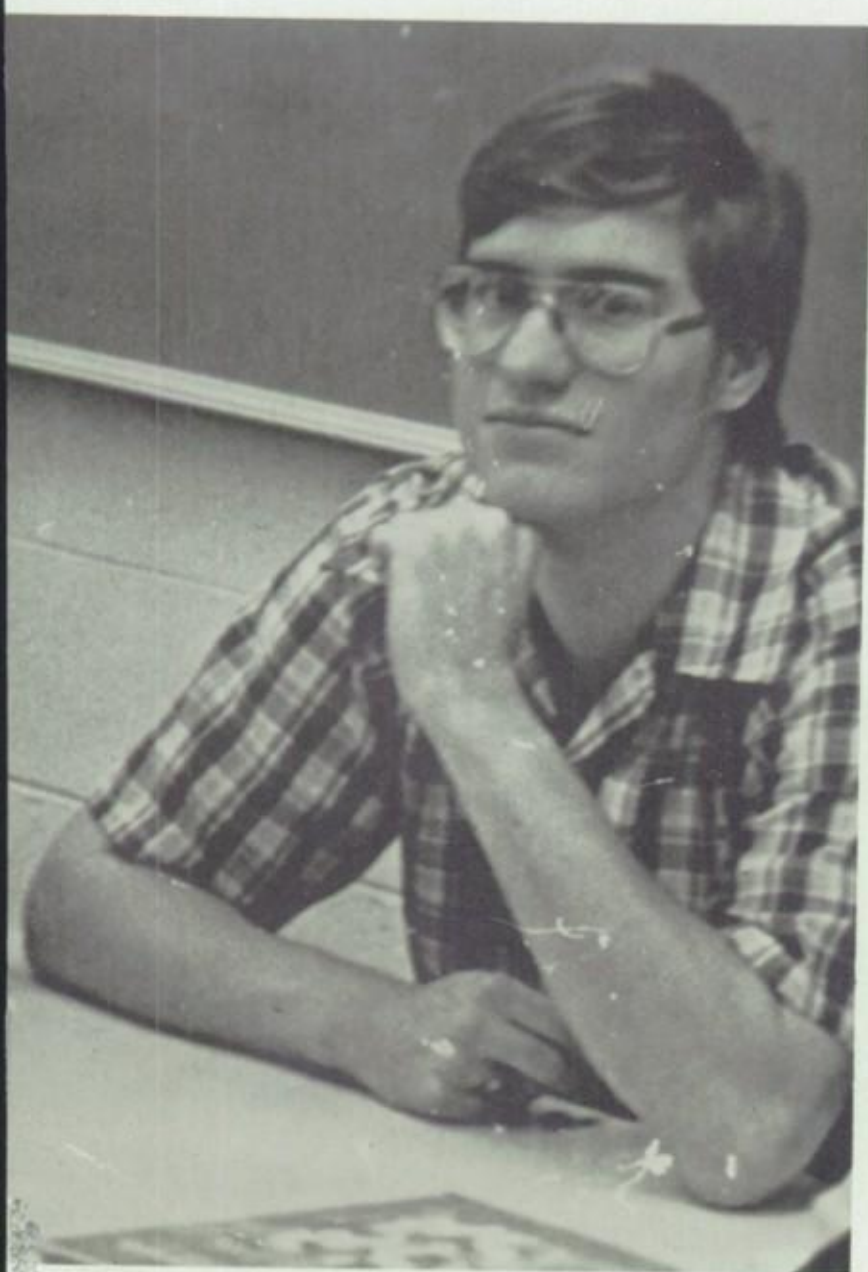

Mr. Ferguson gets his point across.

This group of juniors learn to use their language in an informal way during speech class.

Scott Jansen seems very interested.

The library sure comes in handy.

These students all seem to be working hard in preparation for their next speech assignment.

Mike Briggs concentrates on the speaker.

D.J. Jim Duby practices his show.

Julie Marlinga goes over her speech just one more time.

Debbie Reer listens to another dull speech.

Beth Satkowiak and Pam Klosowski are on the air in Radio and TV.

"ENGLISH PROVIDES BASICS"

English is necessary for communication throughout most of our daily lives. A good English background is necessary for survival, advancement, and job placement, which is why English is required for seven semesters during high school. Students have their choice of choosing from over forty different classes in the categories of Language Studies, Composition, and Literature. English classes also provide us with the annual yearbook, "Concept," and the school newspaper, "Western Star," which is published every three weeks.

Discussing research papers are Cindy Miller and Judy Neumeyer.

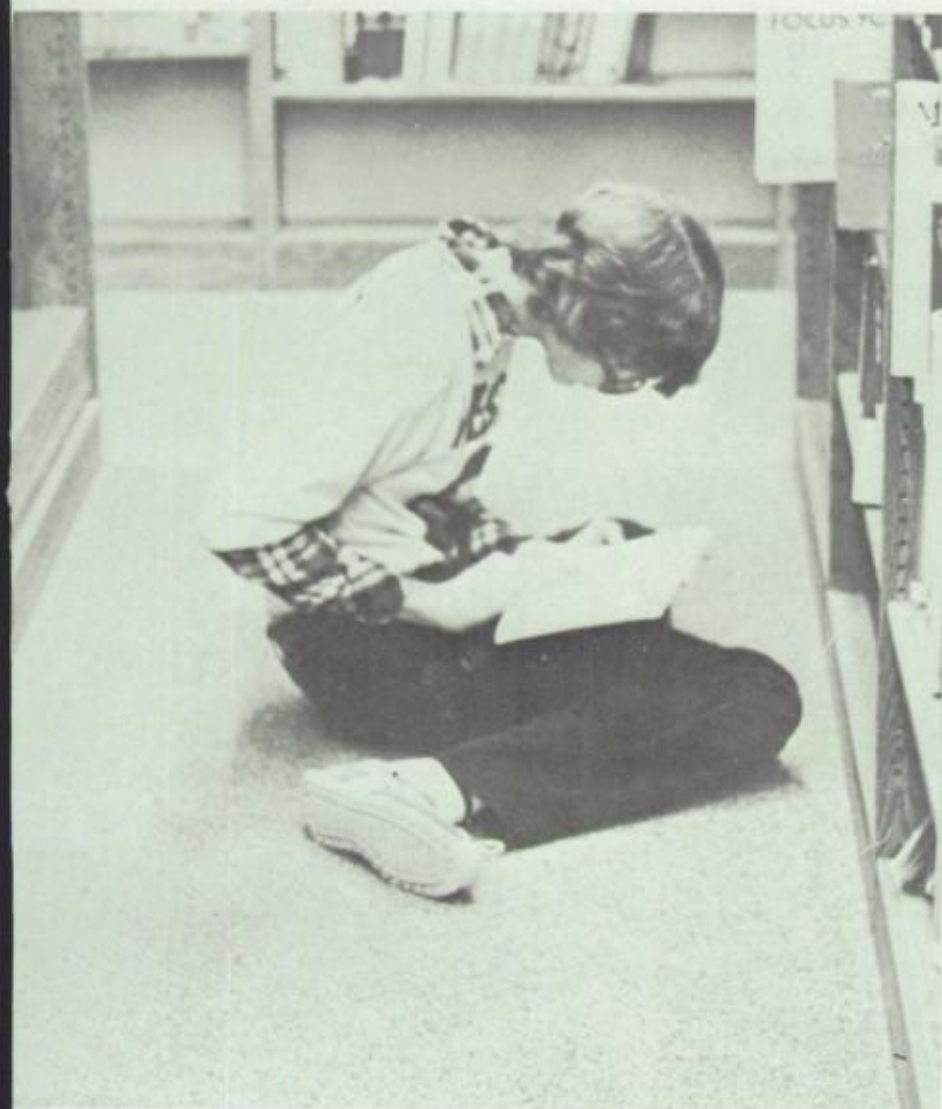

Rich Koehler expresses his talent in writing.

Cheryl Straley takes a break looking at a cheerleader.

Todi Watson gets comfortable while looking up information.

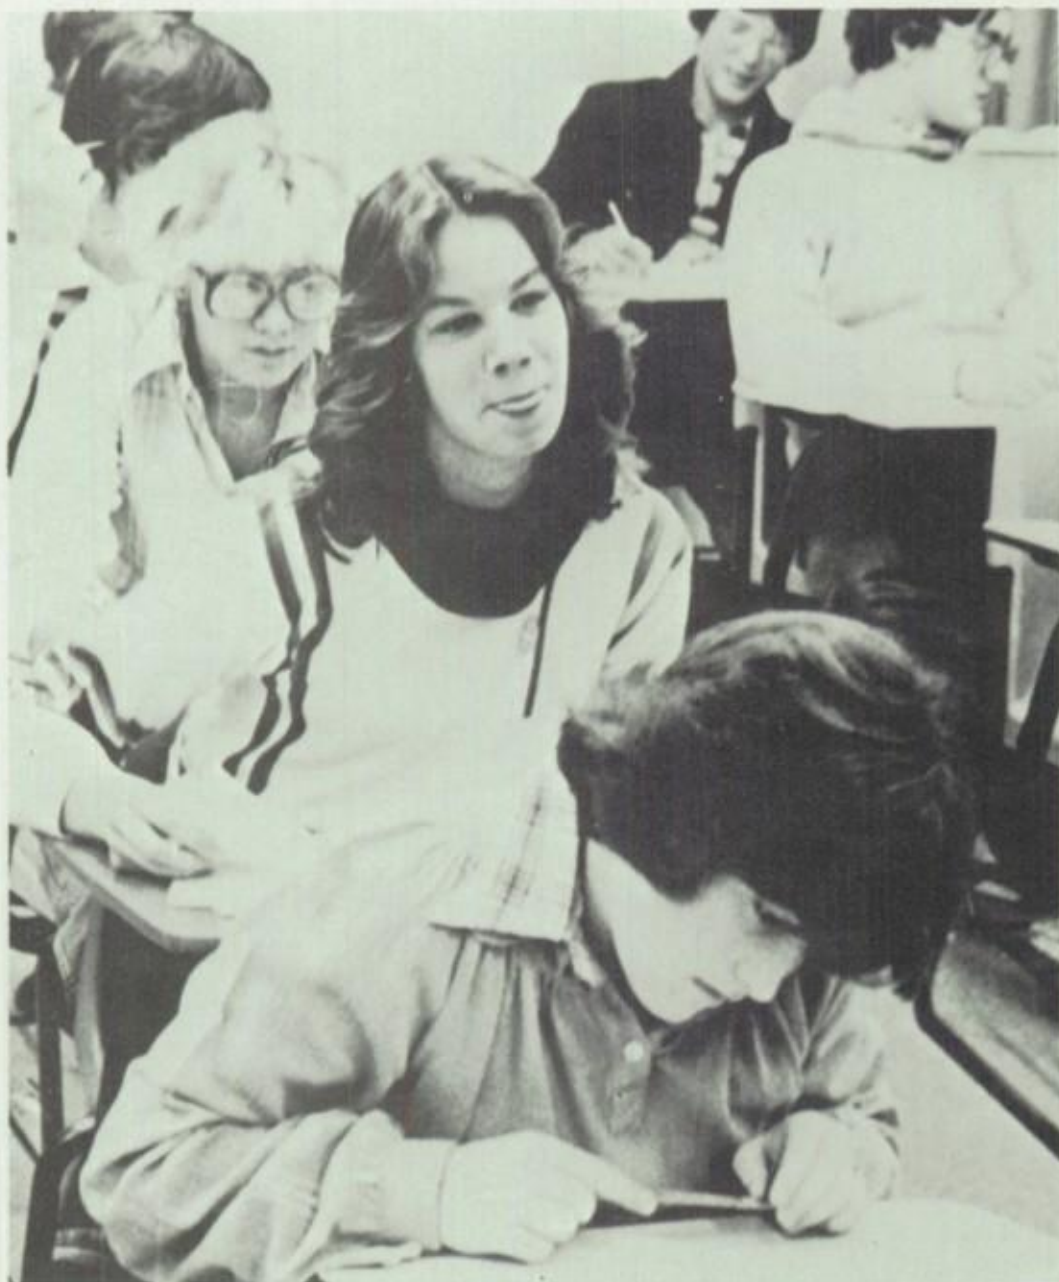

Instructing Michelle Abeare with a problem is Mr. HacsKaylo.

Acting surprised is Julie Schlicker during a Developmental Reading class.

le Gwyn Roth looks on.

Kim Coates studies as Janelle Krawczyk expresses her opinion.

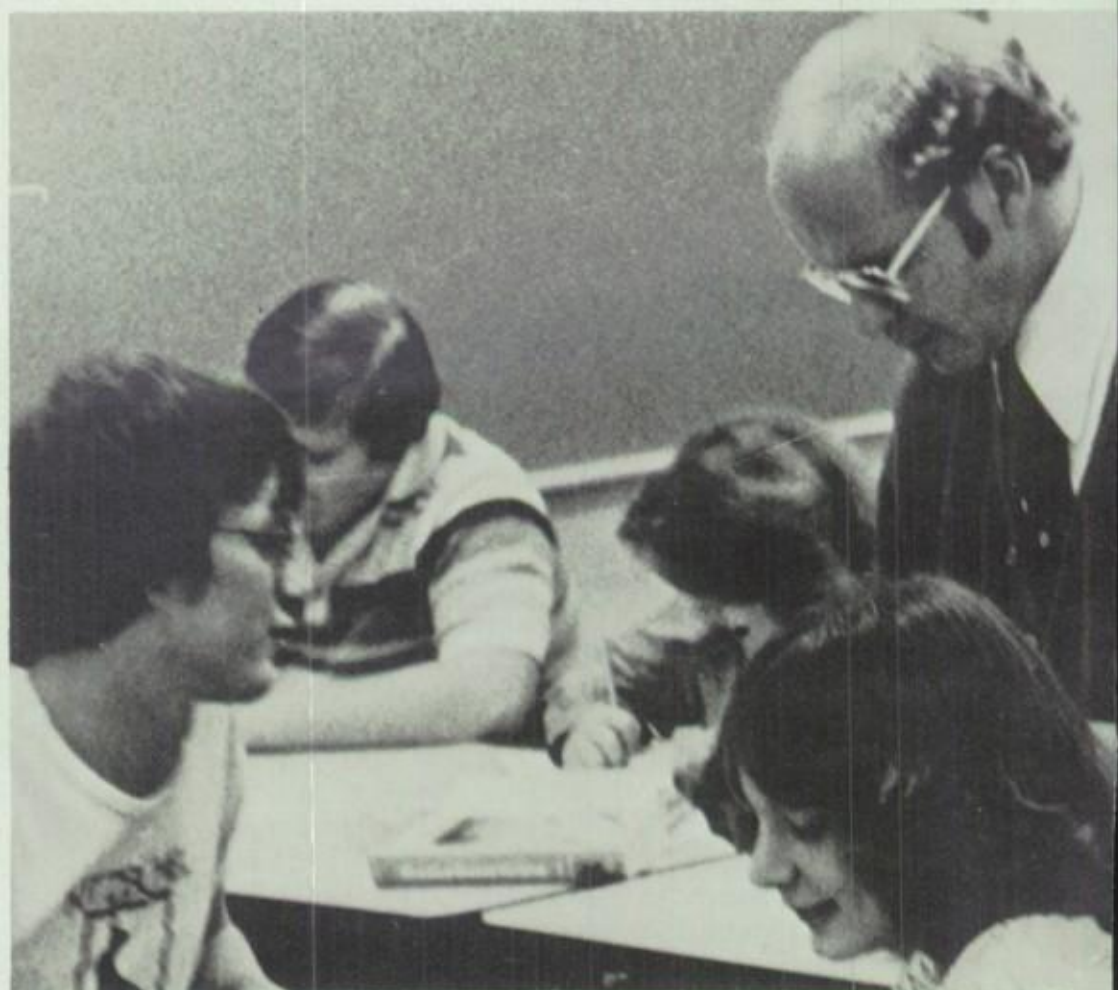

Cheryl Barringer diligently works on her research paper.

Norm Pischel uses the library as Dean Davis thinks things over.

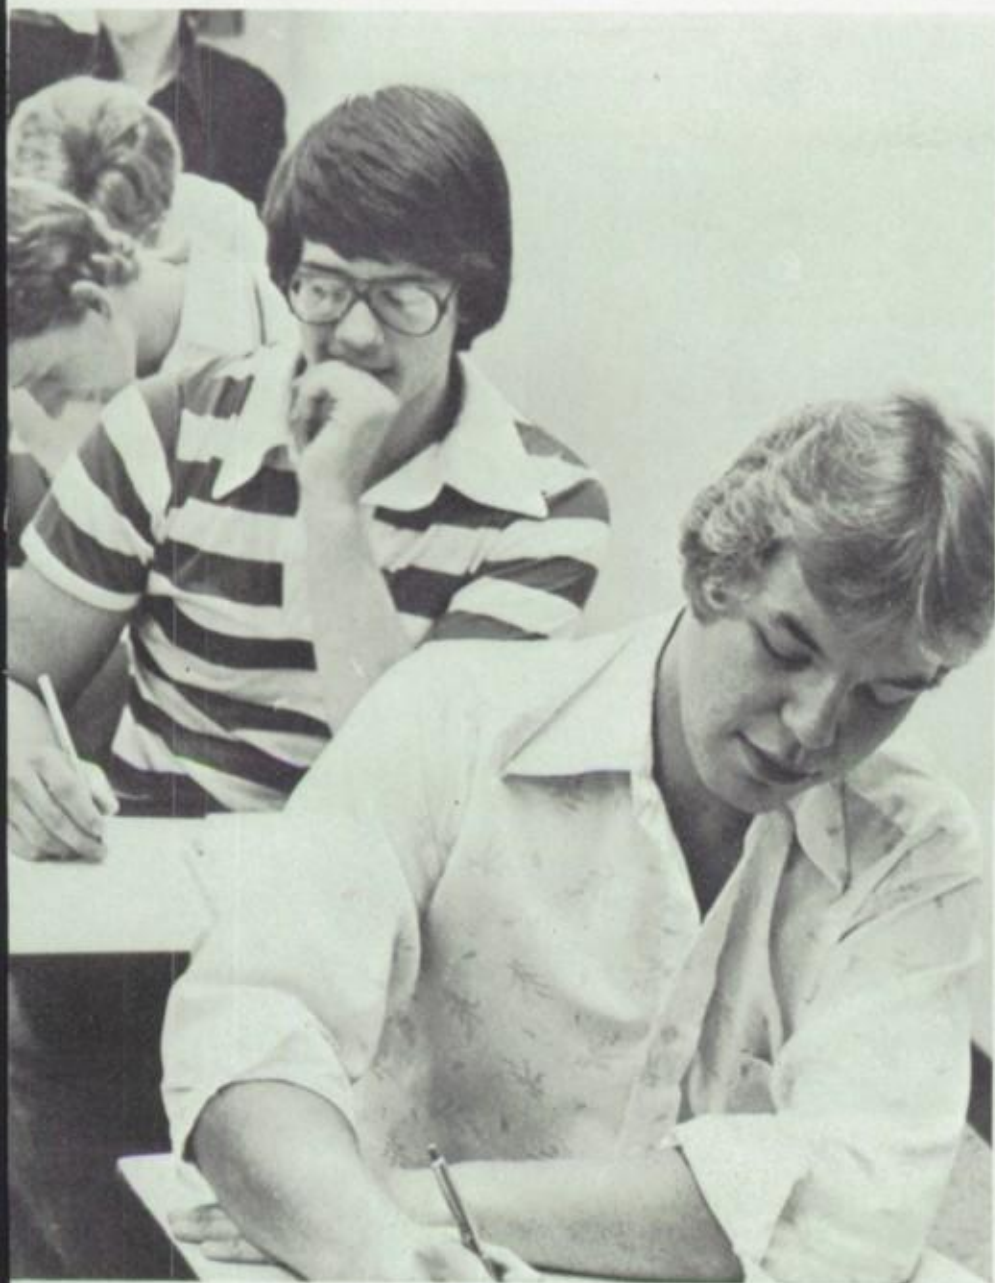

Has Sue Roth been caught for coming in late?

Mr. Anderson willingly lends a hand to his students.

Taking everything down on paper is Tom Sheridan and Rick Hanover.

Smiling bashfully is Greg Rorrer.

Many different reactions come from Mr. Livingston's lit. class.

The English teachers are seated from left to right Carolyn Rexer, Gail Sochacki, Connie Ennest, Diane Sullivan, Judy Ransom. Standing:

George Hacksaylo, Mary Erdman, George Anderson, Carole Hoyl, Watson, Charles Rorrer, Barbara Mitchell, Bruce Livingston.

Students in Mrs. Sullivan's class are trying to get an assignment done on time.

Are the English classes really that cold?

Julie Alstott makes Jeff McNeal smile during a grueling day at school.

Hold back that sneeze Julie Krzyzaniak so you don't disrupt the class.

Is it against school rules to smile while sitting in the back of the class Paul and Cliff?

"Give me back my notebook!" says Ray Beaver to his seat mate.

The vocabulary assignment doesn't seem to thrill Michele Toyzan and Kathy Frost in Developmental Reading.

INDUSTRIAL ARTS

The yearbook photographer catches these welding students taking five to discuss the day's work or what happened the night before.

"Da, to draw or not to draw" says Don Brown.

Industrial Arts helps a student to find his skills for the future. At Western a student can take a wide variety of industrial arts classes, ranging from mechanical drawing to auto mechanics. Many students go on to use these skills in the profession they choose later in life.

What's on your mind Kirk Tagget?

PROVIDES FUTURE SKILL

"I wonder where this piece goes?"

"Hi there!" It's Brad Warren, your friendly neighborhood welder.

"So that's what an engine looks like!" comments Marty Schlicker.

Dr. Rugenstein examines his patient

Matt Saia looks over his work.

Kathy Behmlander thinks mechanical drawing can sometimes be dull.

Students work together in Auto Mechanics.

Jodi Jeske shows style in gas welding.

Dan Sylvester works on his wood project.

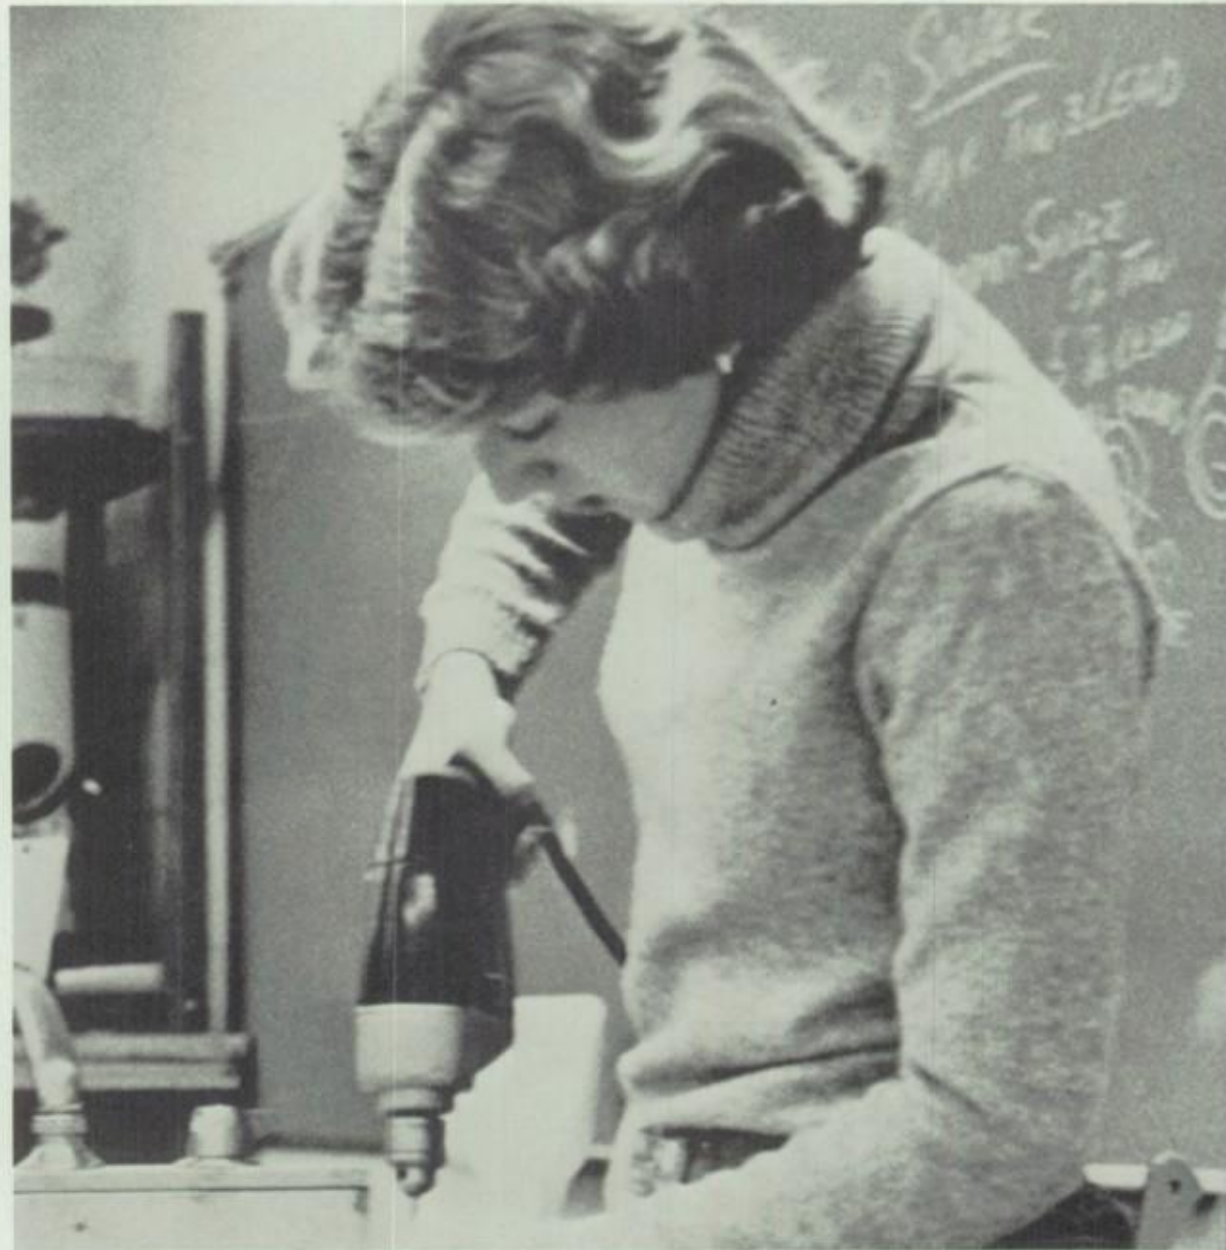

Mechanical drawing finds Fred Schwab hard at work.

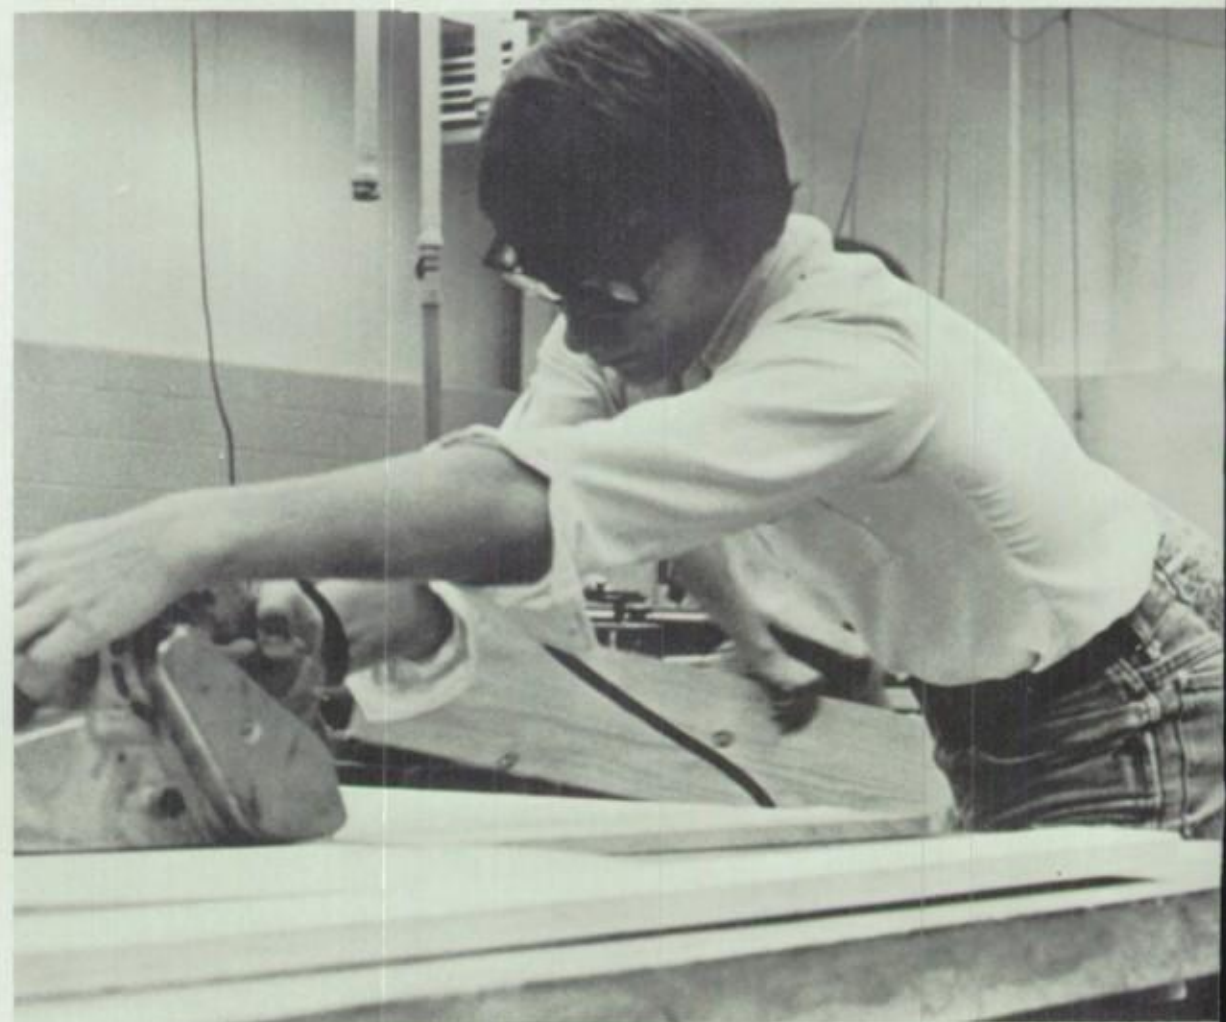

Mike Meyer starts another project in woodshop.

Karen Christie has no trouble in Household Mechanics.

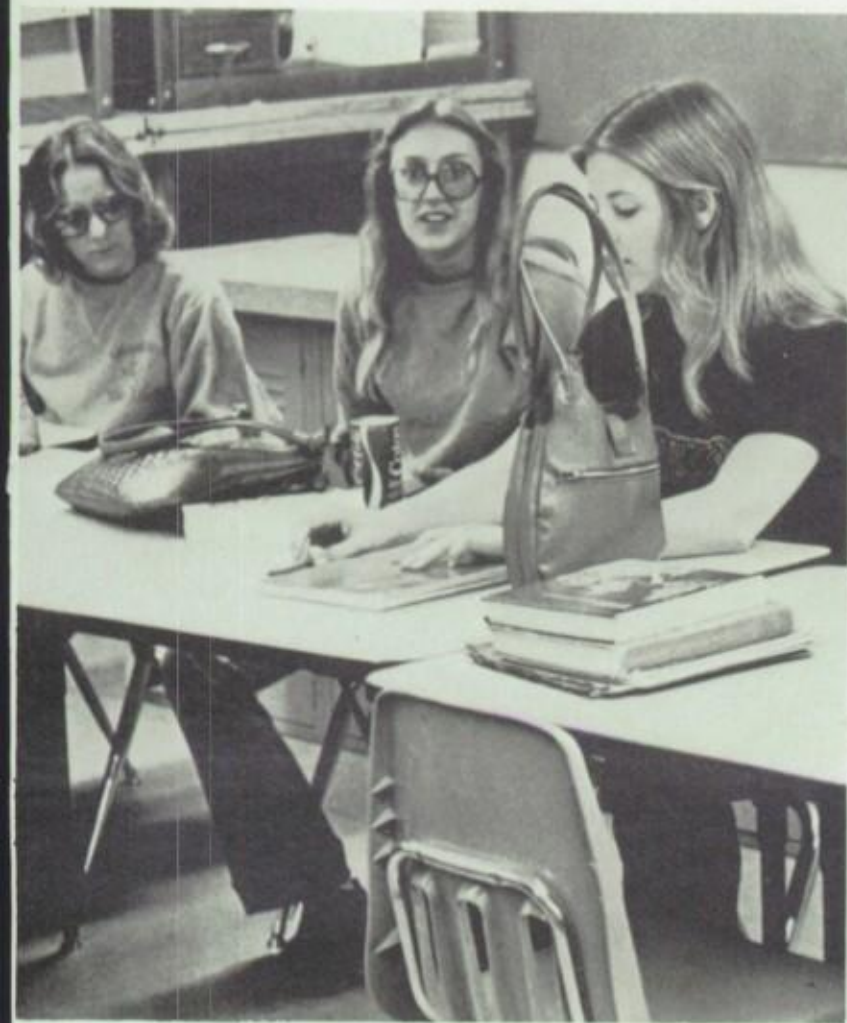

Kevin Lupo shows measuring is important

George Twigg is trying to "fix up" those mistakes.

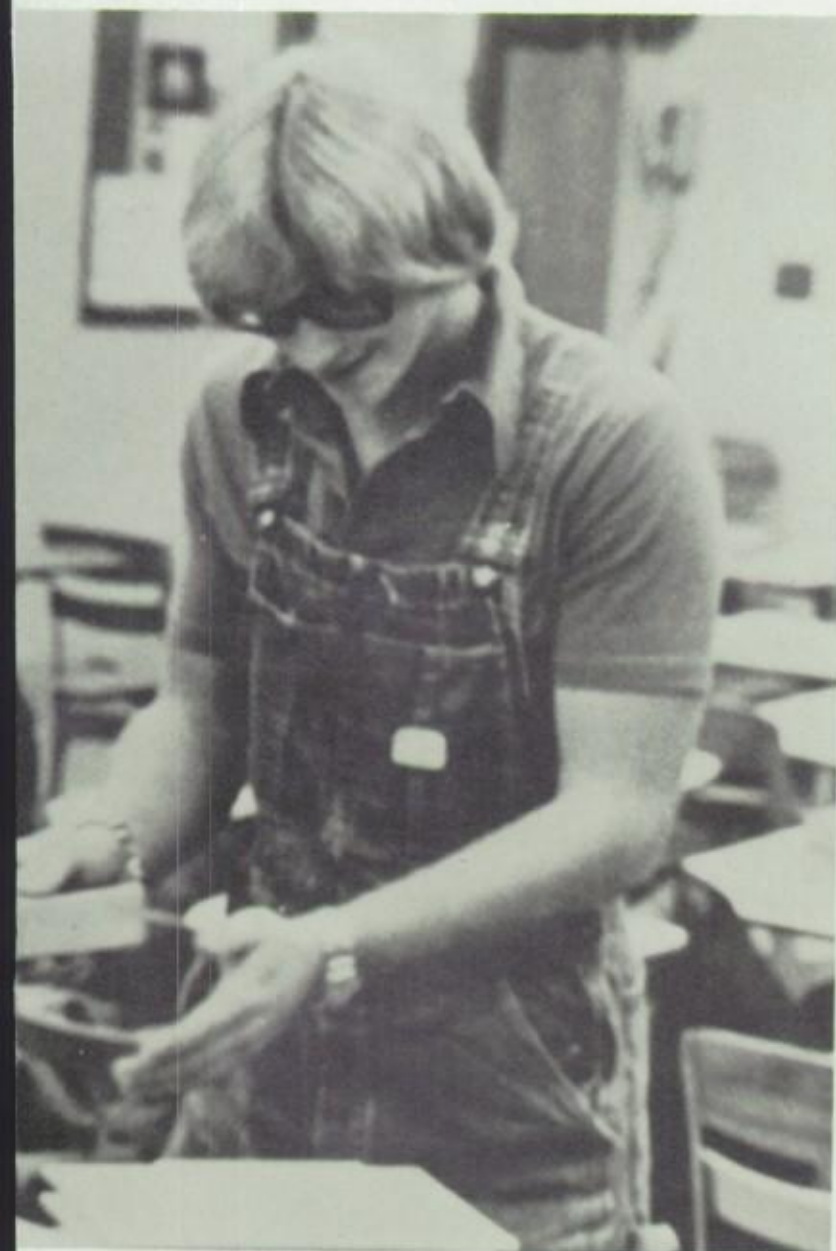

Students take a break to discuss their plans.

"Looks all right to me!" says Larry Zalucha.

Two students working together isn't always such a good idea.

Mark Lynch looks for a place to hide that piece.

SOCIAL STUDIES INFORMS

History, usually taken in the 11th grade, and Government, taken in the 12th, are the two required social studies classes, but students may take others. Some of the more popular elective classes are Psychology, Sociology, and Economics. Michigan History and World History are the other social studies classes students may choose to take during their high school career.

Social Studies classes can be interesting and informative. If you made up your mind to work hard at them, you will soon realize they are helpful in getting it all together.

Psychology captures these students' minds.

Pam Fulks takes a peek at the camera.

Mr. B. can't believe that late excuse.

Michele Kleinsmith isn't camera shy, but Randy Knoerr seems to be.

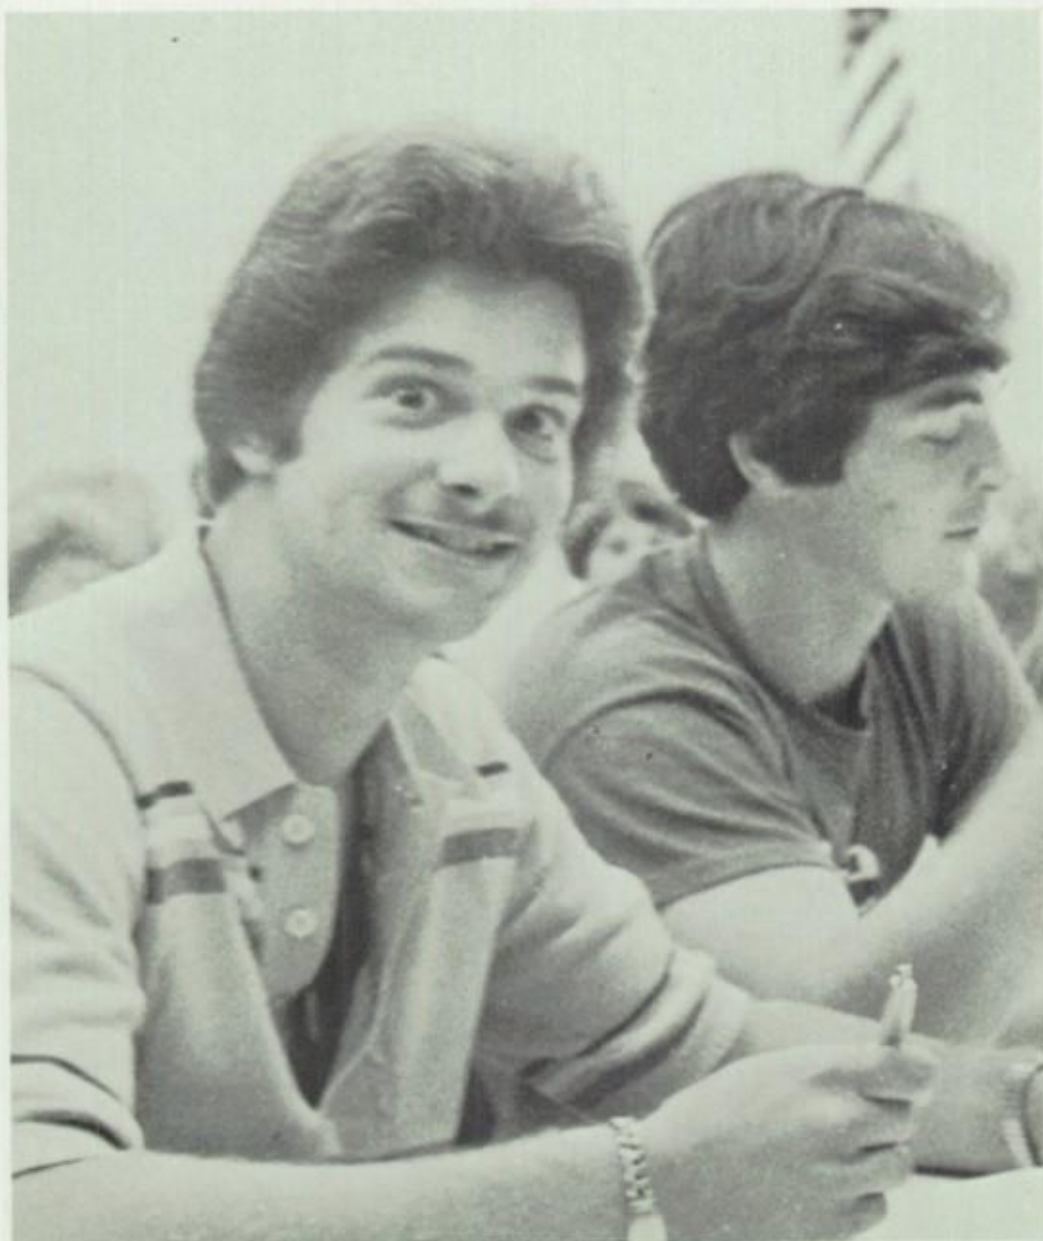

Seniors discuss Government as Mr. Fitz supervises.

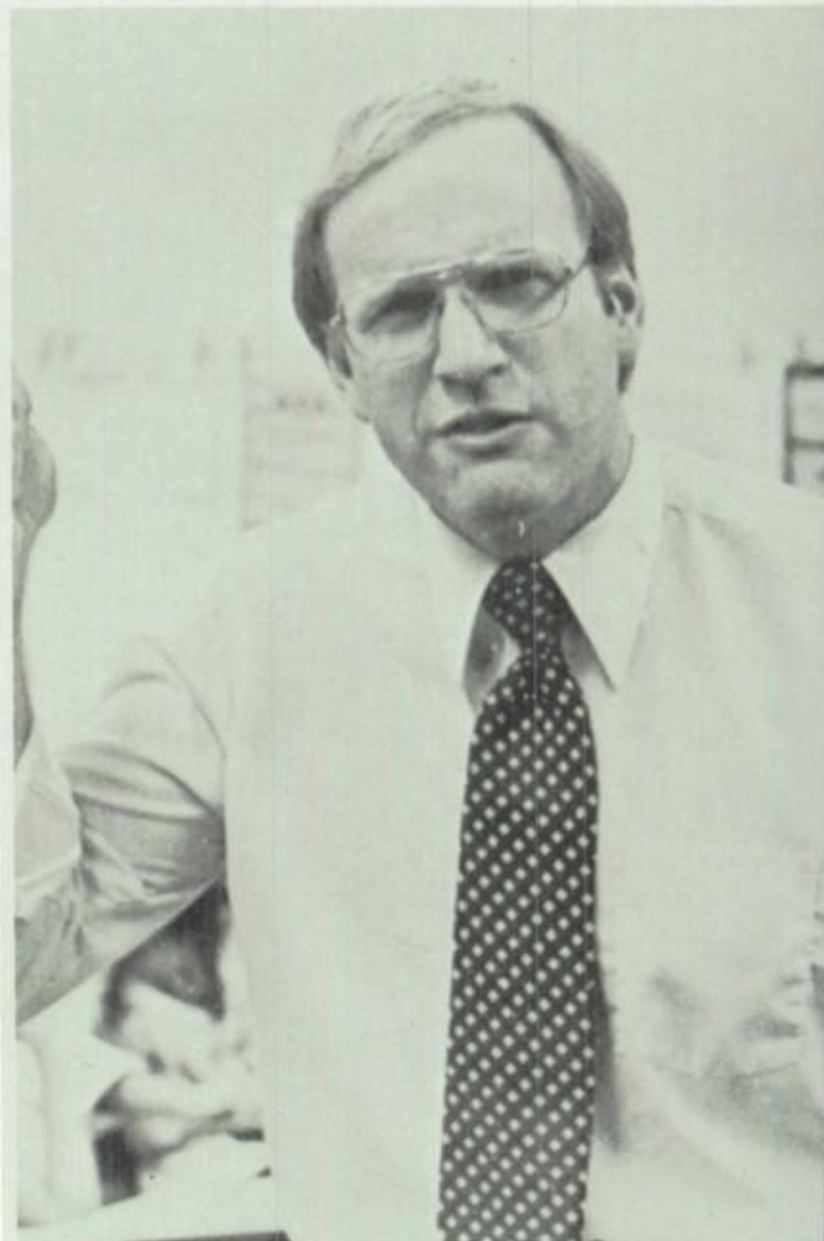

Mike Janowicz and Robby Burt, are you day-dreaming in Government?

The camera catches Wally Vogtmann by surprise.

Mr. Gibson, Sir, I was only kidding!

Students' reactions to Psychology are varied.

History requires concentration.

Hey guys, it's only a camera!

Tracey and Janice laugh in Government.

Sandy Brinkman, is Government that interesting?

Social Science teachers, seated L. to R. are Richard Balwinski, Jim Fitzgerald, John Zuraw, Richard Harmon, Richard Thomas, Warren

Sinke. Missing is Ben Gibson.

Juniors are amazed by what they hear in history.

Cathy Kaczmarek, what will Mr. Fitz say?

Students work diligently on a history assignment.

Leasa Howard say "cheese!"

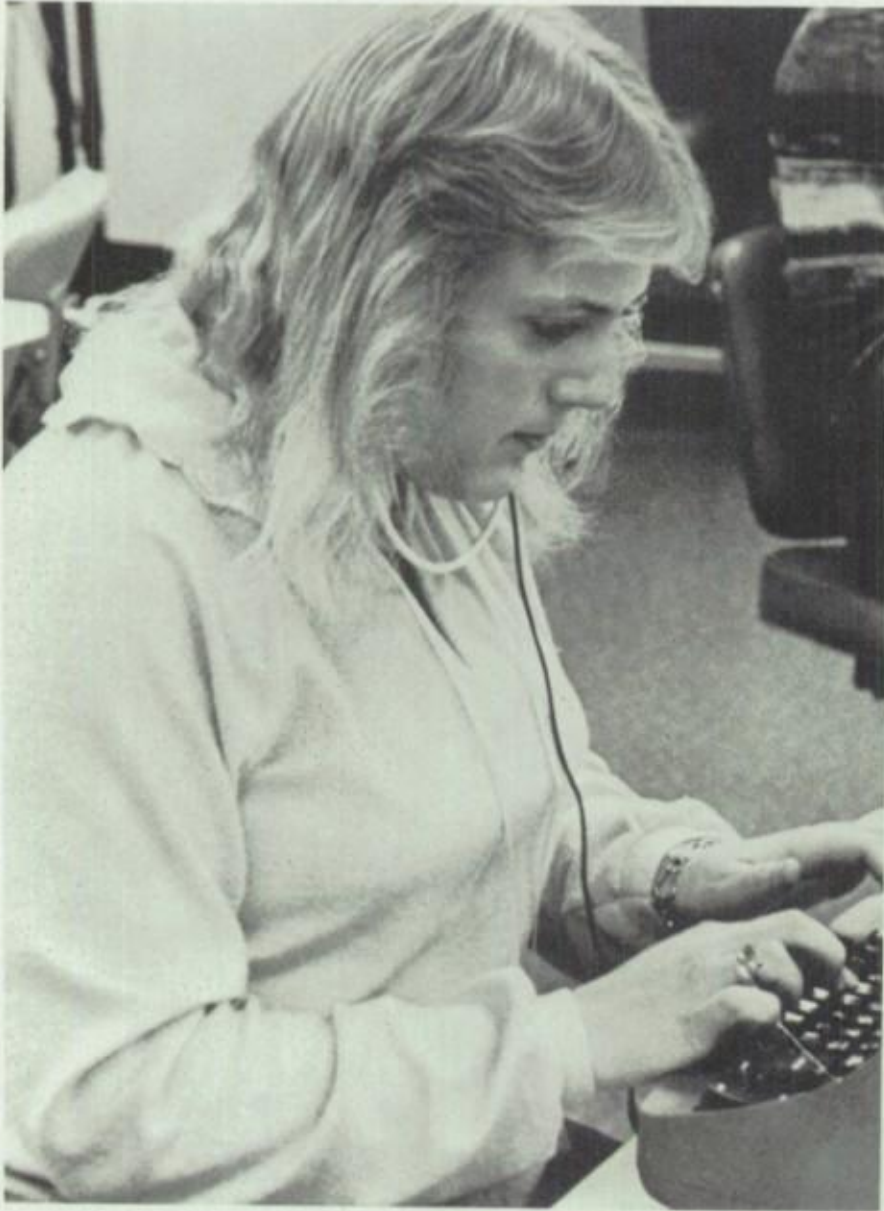

unions analyze a movie just seen in history class.

Sue Roth and Deanne Reiss, look behind you!

STUDENTS ENJOY

Sue Reder sharpens her typing skills.

"Now what do I do with it," wonders Paul Firth.

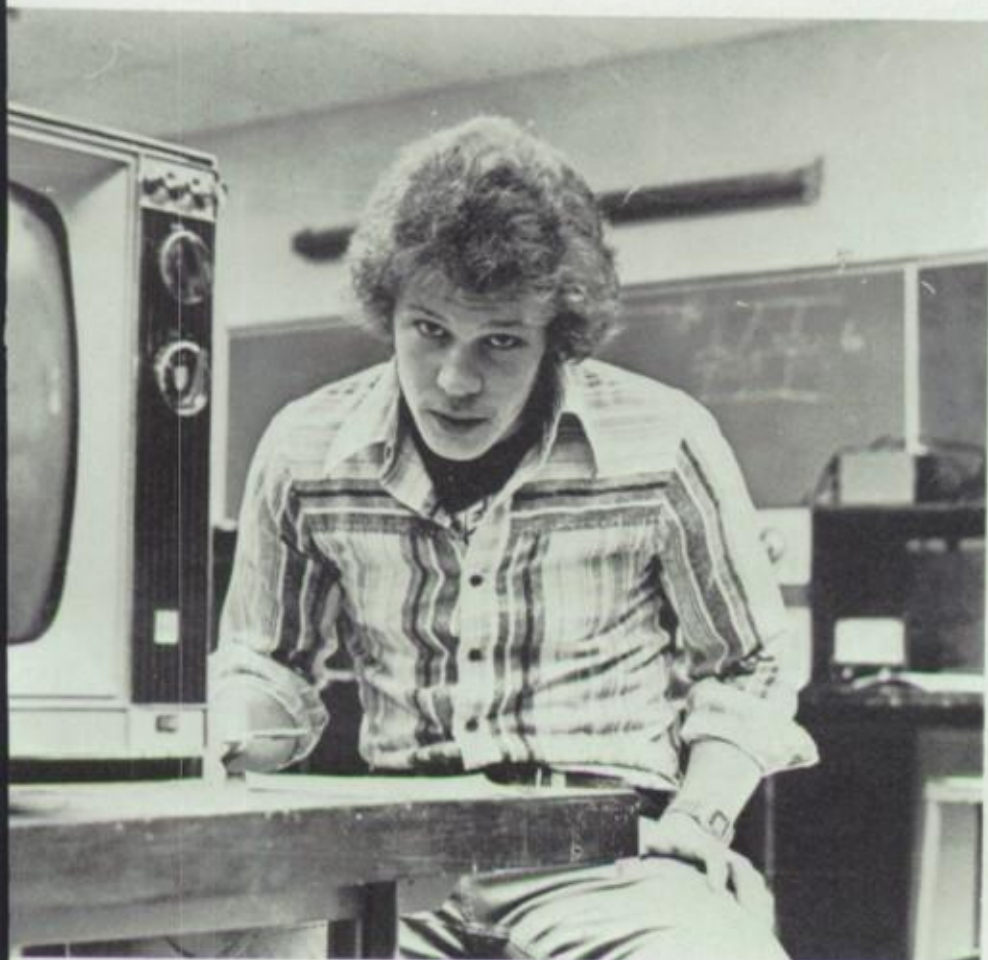

Bay Arenac Skill Center is offered to 11th and 12th graders from a number of different schools in our community, including Western. A wide variety of classes is offered to teach students a skill. The classes range from Radio and TV to Food Management. The classes are enjoyed by many of the students and help train them for future careers.

"It might work if I plug it in," thinks Cary Gordon.

SKILL CENTER

"Do you have the answers?" asks Bob White.

"Welcome to my laboratory," comments Sandy Williams.

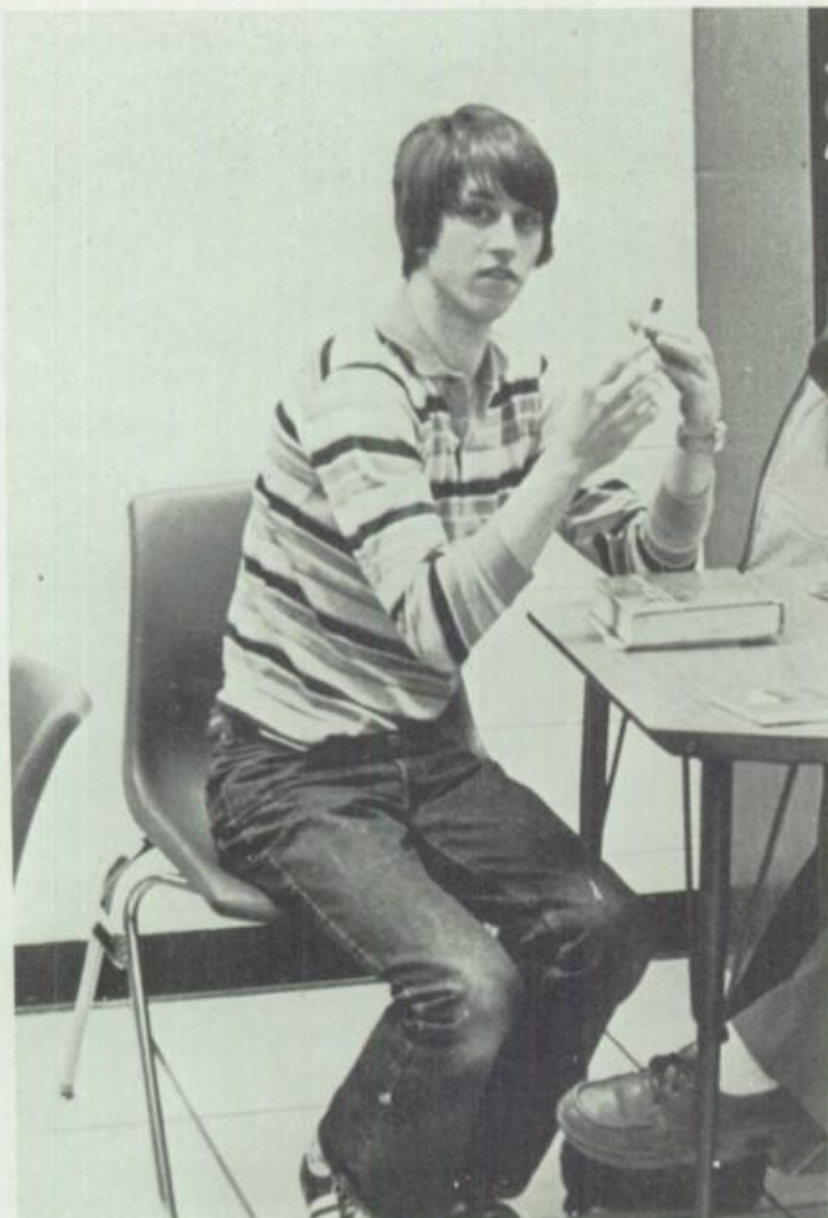

"The teachers are half of the fun," says Ann Klepser.

"Ah-ha"! I have another victim," smiles Amy Szezulski.

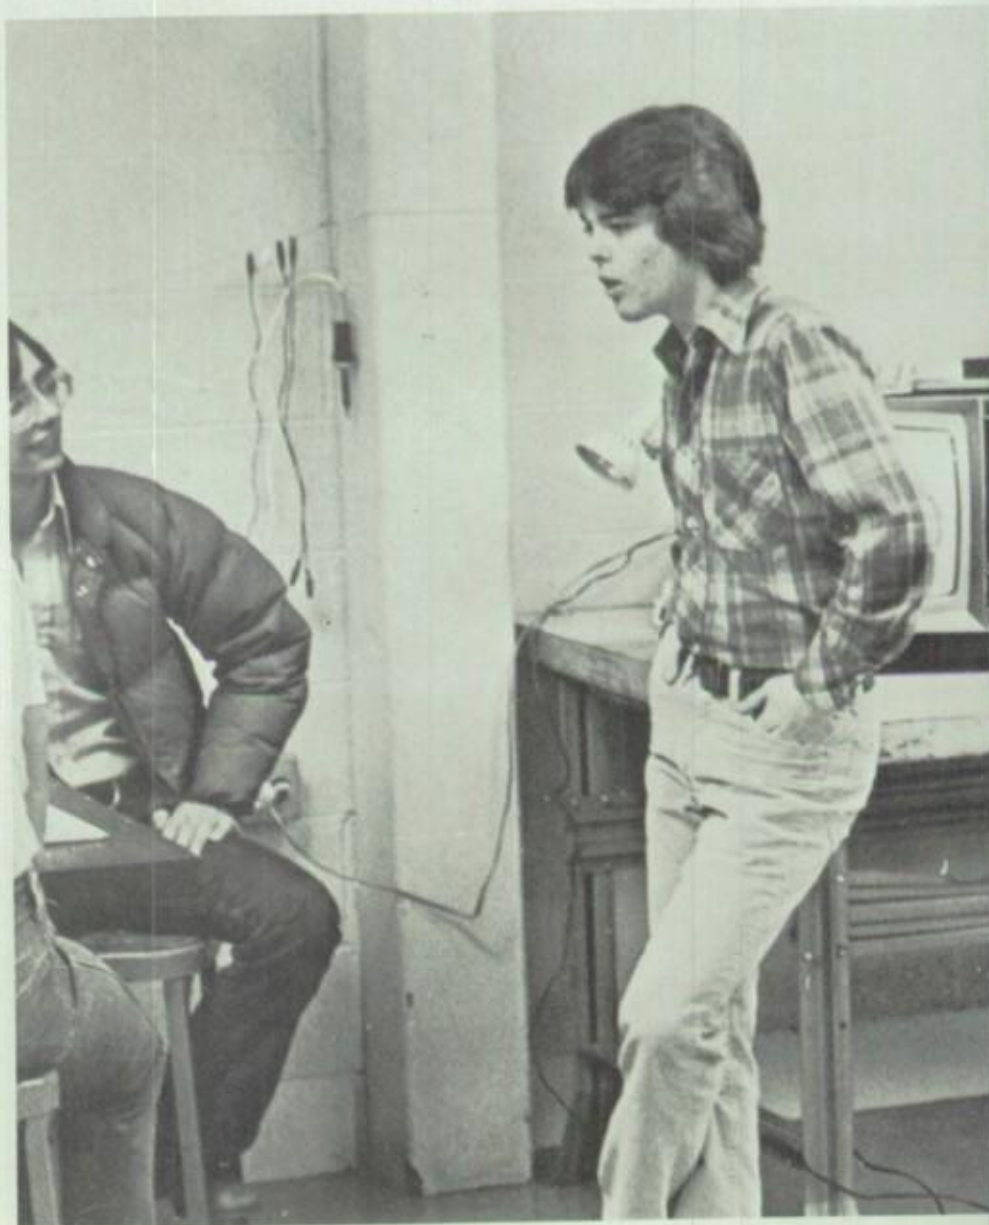

"I think I broke it," says Dave White.

No peeking Sharon Rivard.

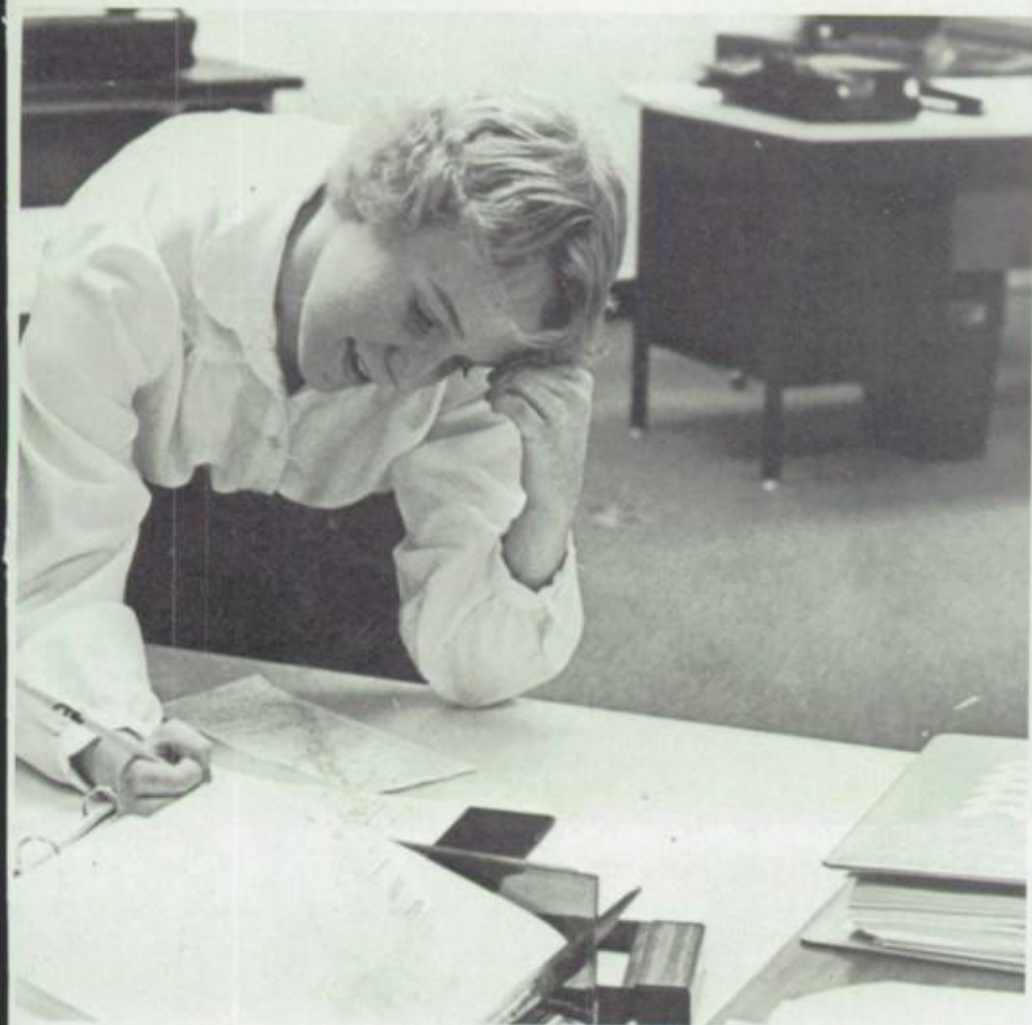

Students enjoy working with wood.

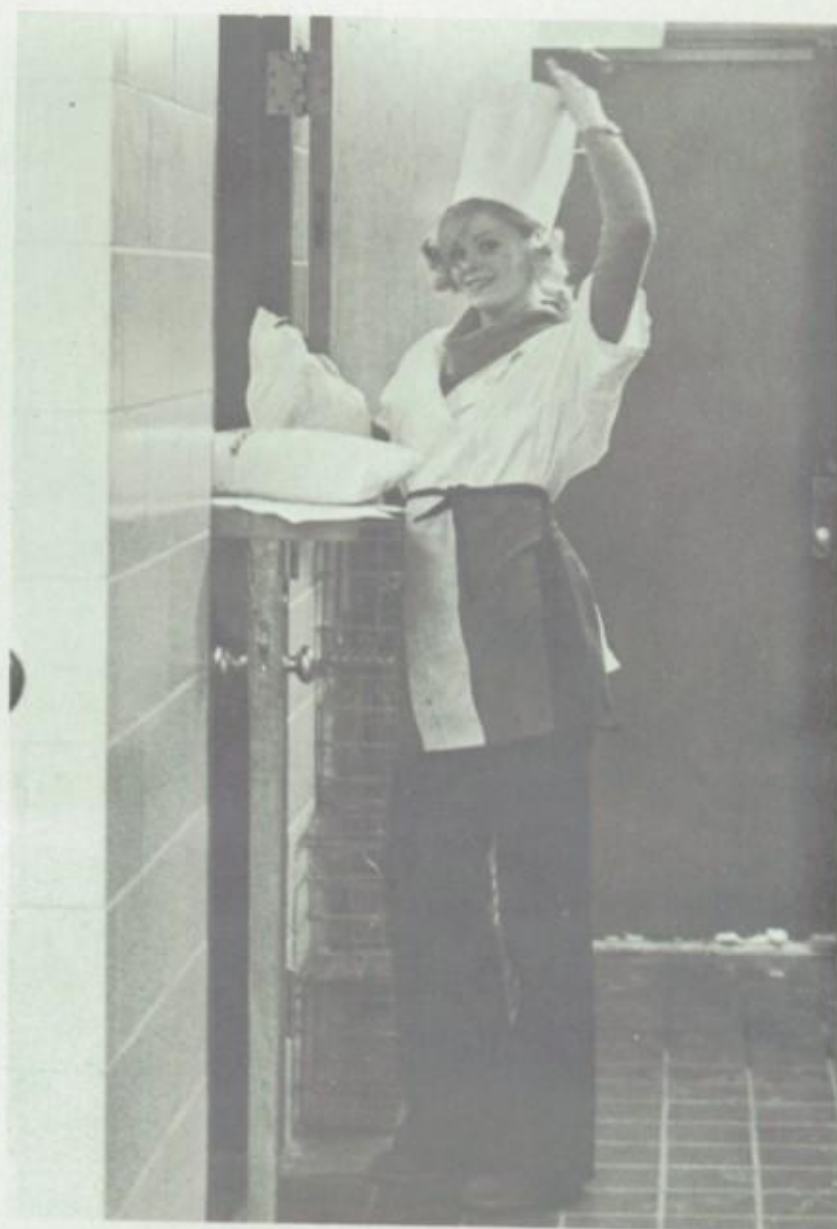

"Boy, and you think you have problems," complains Jeff Hair.

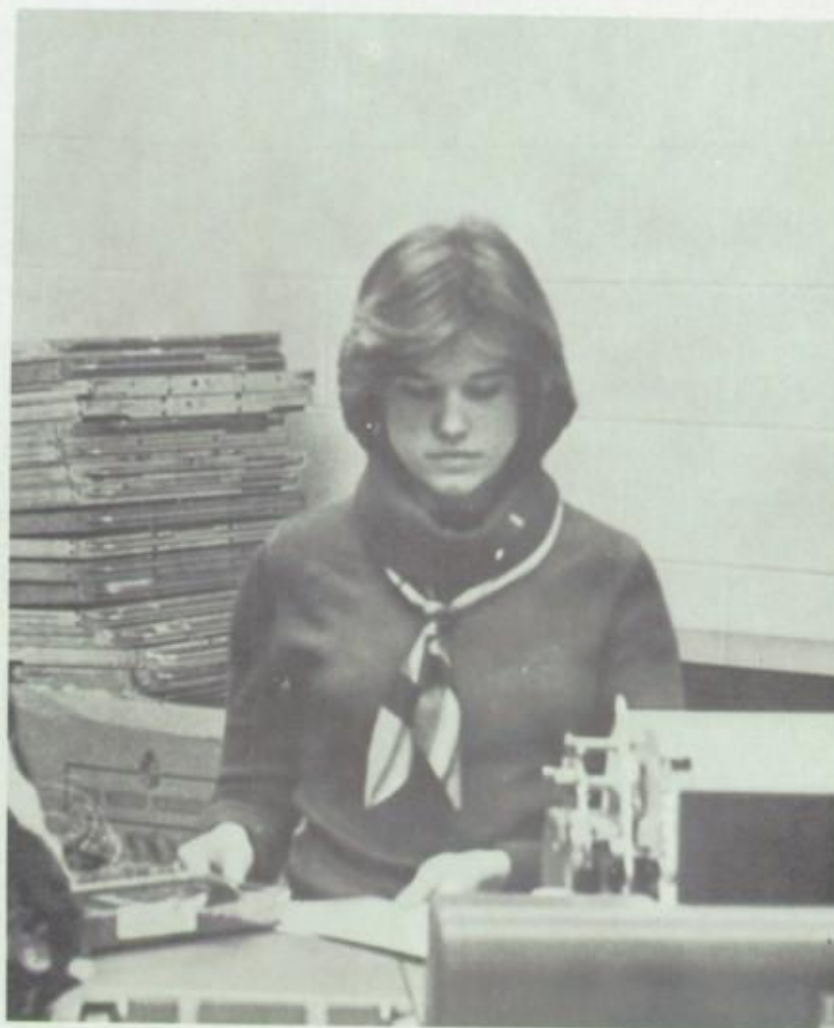

Anne Bujalski strives for perfection.

"Service with a smile," says Sandy Krupa.

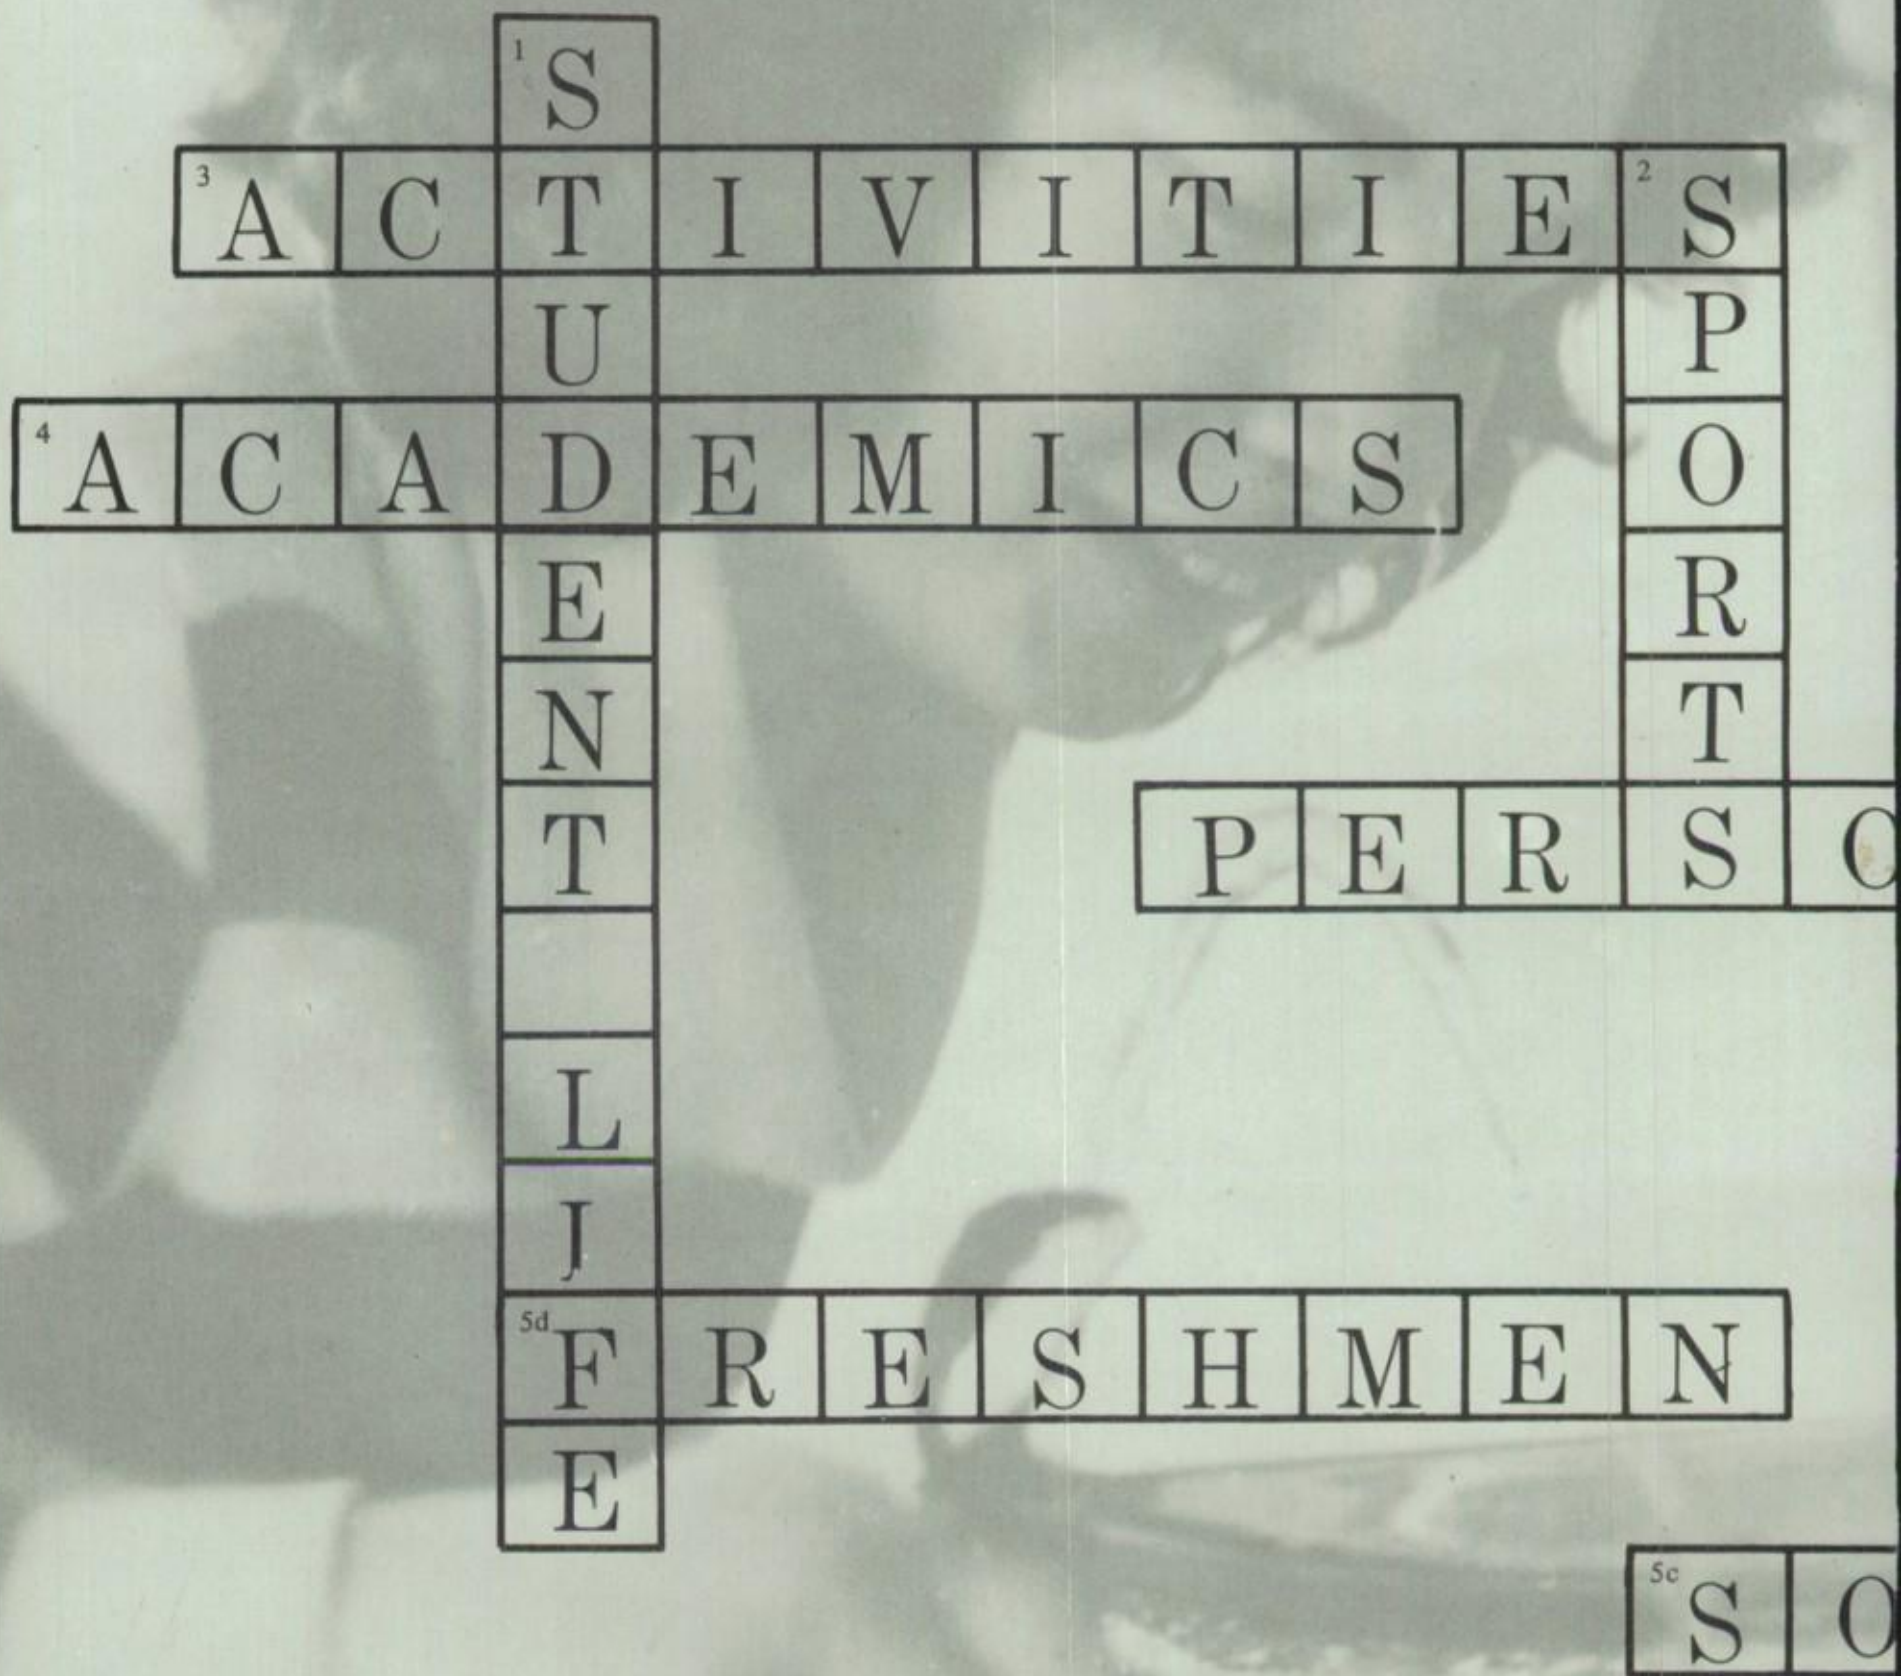

Kurt Williams checks his work.

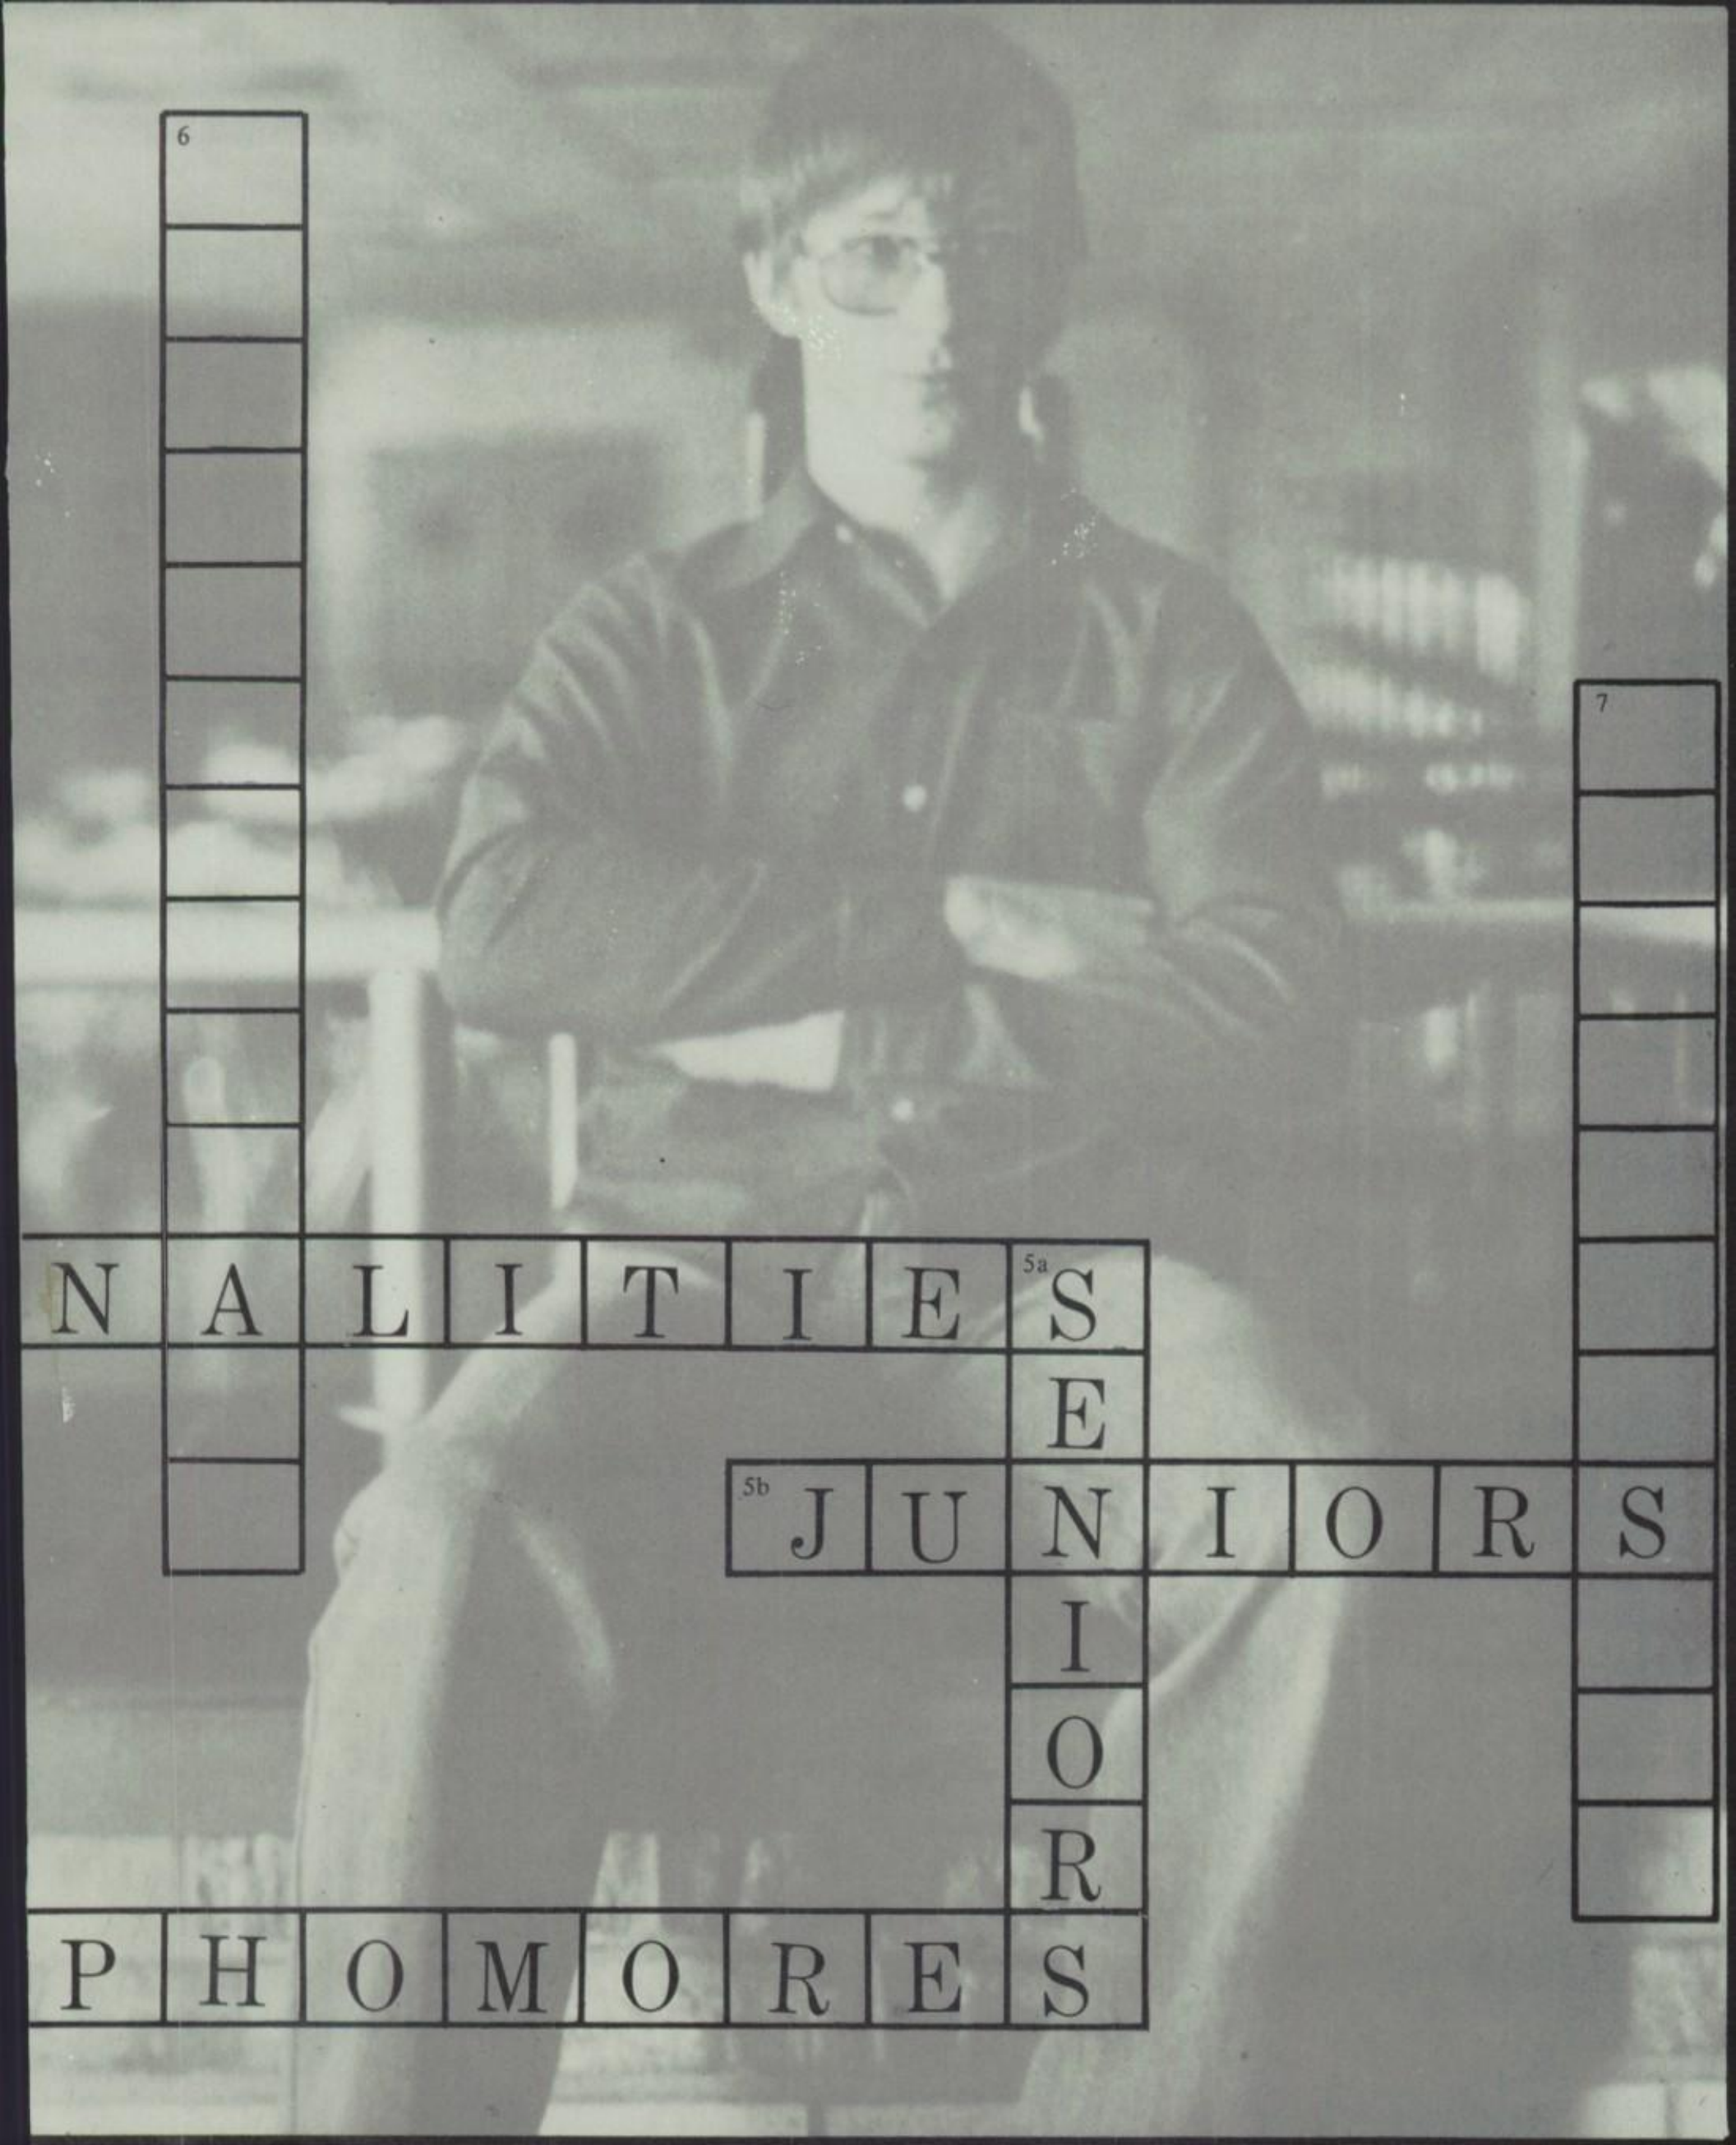

"I think I did this wrong," says Sandy Michalski.

SENIORS OF "79" ARE SUPER FINE

Officers for the senior class from left to right are Treasurer Cindy Miller, Vice President Billy Kohn, Secretary Kelly Coates and President Tony Lupo.

Super Fine "79" — We the seniors came to Western four years ago, and now that is all behind us. Our class has been through a lot together sharing many memories like Celebration, sports, dances, and parties together.

As freshmen we came, strangers from many area schools, soon to make new friends. We saw and some participated in all extracurricular activities. The following years we have seen many activities we enjoyed gradually being eliminated. Our final year or "best" year came and is gone with nothing but those memories.

We have learned a lot about life during our school years. Now it is our turn to accept the challenges and responsibilities life has bestowed upon us. We shall go out in the world with pride. Many of us plan to go on to college; others will find jobs or get married.

We do have many memories that will never die whether good or bad. We owe many thanks to our friends, teachers, administrators, and the unknowns who have helped us to complete our education, and we will never forget them. This is only our beginning.

Senators Norm Walters, Jim Campbell and Paul Steih show a miraculous interest in their work.

JUNIORS MOVIN' UP

Top row L. to R. Pat Schmidt, Sue Brinkman. Middle row: Jeanine Sinke, Vicki Knoerr, Leslie Greenwood. Bottom row: Audrey Buechler, Kendy Bridgewater.

The class of "80" started the year off with a bang with the largest candy sale ever held at Western. The juniors made almost five thousand dollars on the sale. Mike Savoie took top honors and Sue McNally second in total sales. The money raised will be used for the junior-senior prom and for the senior class trip.

Class officer elections were held in the spring for the 78-79 year. Vicki Knoerr was elected president, Jeane Sinke was elected vice-president, the secretary is Audrey Buechler and treasurer is Leslie Greenwood. The senators are Kendy Bridgewater, Sue Brinkman, Pat Schmidt and Gigi Wessely.

Many of the juniors also had to put up with PSAT and ACT tests which are required for college. With only one year left the juniors showed they won't have any trouble being seniors.

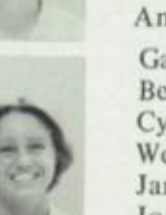

Top row: Secretary Audrey Buechler, Treasurer Leslie Greenwood. Bottom row: Vice President Jeanine Sinke, President Vicki Knoerr.

Class senators are Rhonda Rees, Yvonne Rozek, Jill Campbell, and Pauline Wasek.

This year the class of '81 went from frightened freshmen to brave and daring sophomores. They started their progress last spring with student council elections. Elected were Dave Burk, President, Jay Handy, Vice President, Diane Kren, Secretary, and Robin Martin, Treasurer. Senators chosen were Jill Campbell, Rhonda Rees, Yvonne Rozek, and Pauline Wasek.

Class rings were ordered this fall and mums were sold for homecoming which are both annual events for sophomores.

Class officers are Jay Handy, Dave Burk, Robin Martin, and Diane Kren.

"82" IS ON THE MOVE

Bottom L to R: Terry McNally, Lynda Vennix, Lisa Stoars, Cari Wieck, Colleen Herner. Top L to R: Tim Fournier, Tom Fryzel, Ann Trompeter.

When the freshmen came to Western High School, they had to adjust to the scenery and to the changes of scheduling.

As the year progressed, they became aware of where they were going and what they were going to do.

The freshman president and class officers include: Pres. Tom Fryzel, V.P. Tim Fournier, Sec. Ann Trompeter, Treas. Lisa Stoars and Senators Colleen Herner, Lynda Vennix, Terry McNally and Cari Wieck.

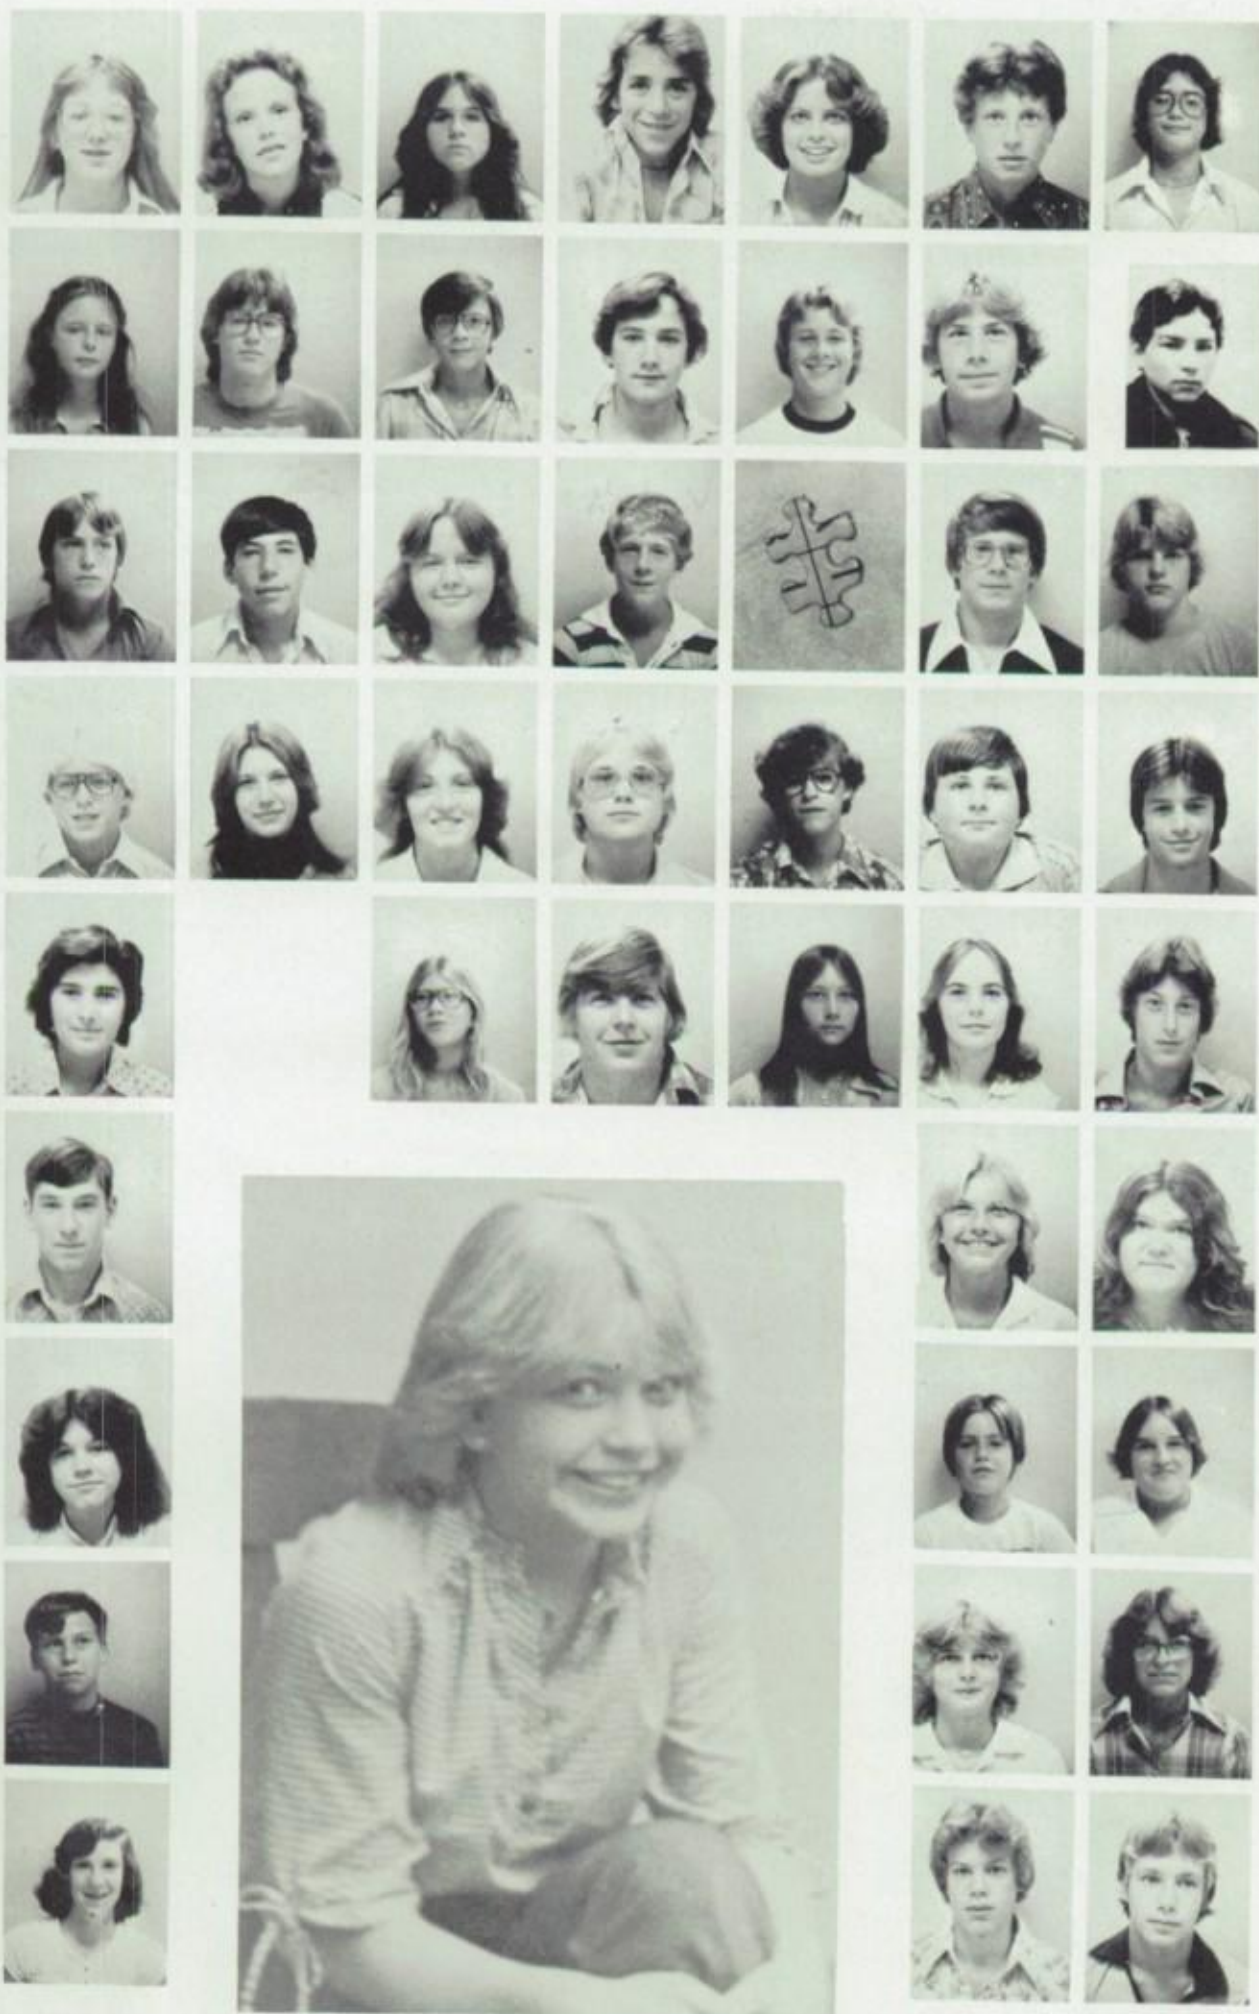

Freshman class officers pose for a picture.

"Can't a man drink in peace," says President Tom Fryzel.

"Gosh don't take my picture," says Bouza.

IN MEMORY

Kathy Behmlander was in her fourth year at Western. She was actively involved in the art program and had plans to major in art. In her senior year Kathy was a member of the yearbook staff. She died in a car accident in the fall of 1978.

*As long as time has been
people have been rushing
through life.
trying to do it all
today
as though they really knew
tomorrow
would surely come.
It all seems so practical
this preoccupation with today
till suddenly
is taken away.*

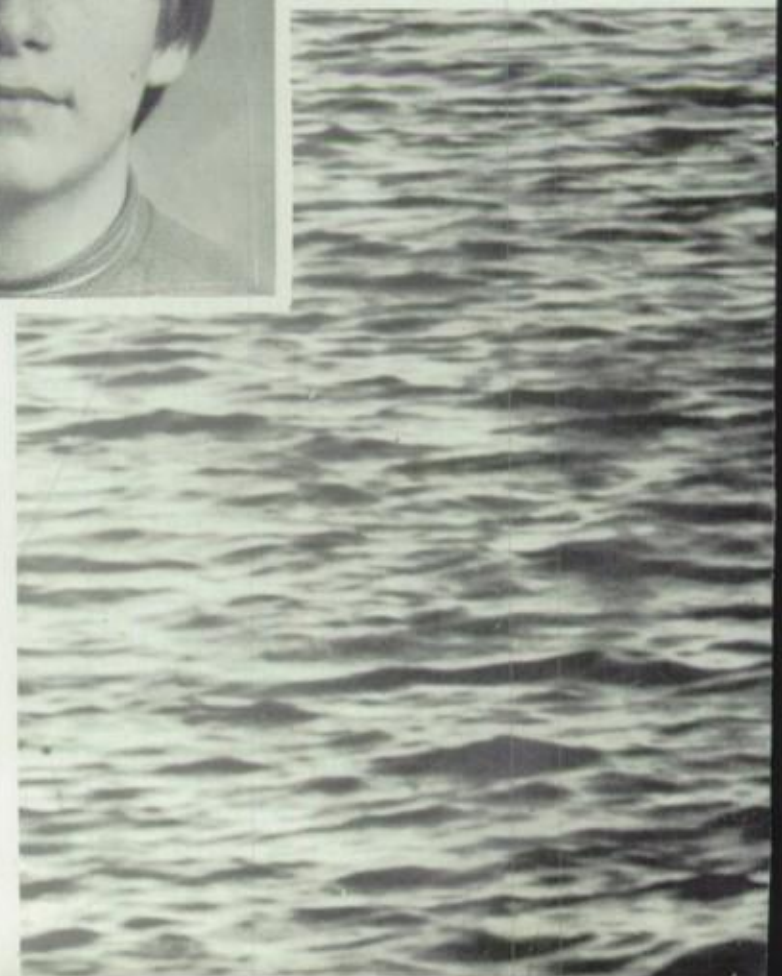

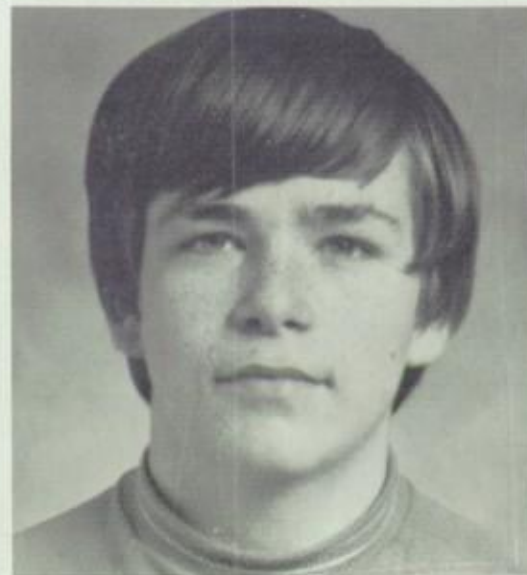

Cindy Koch was very active in sports and participated on volleyball, basketball and softball teams. Her favorite hobbies were reading and macrame. As a freshman the first year Western opened, Cindy died of pneumonia.

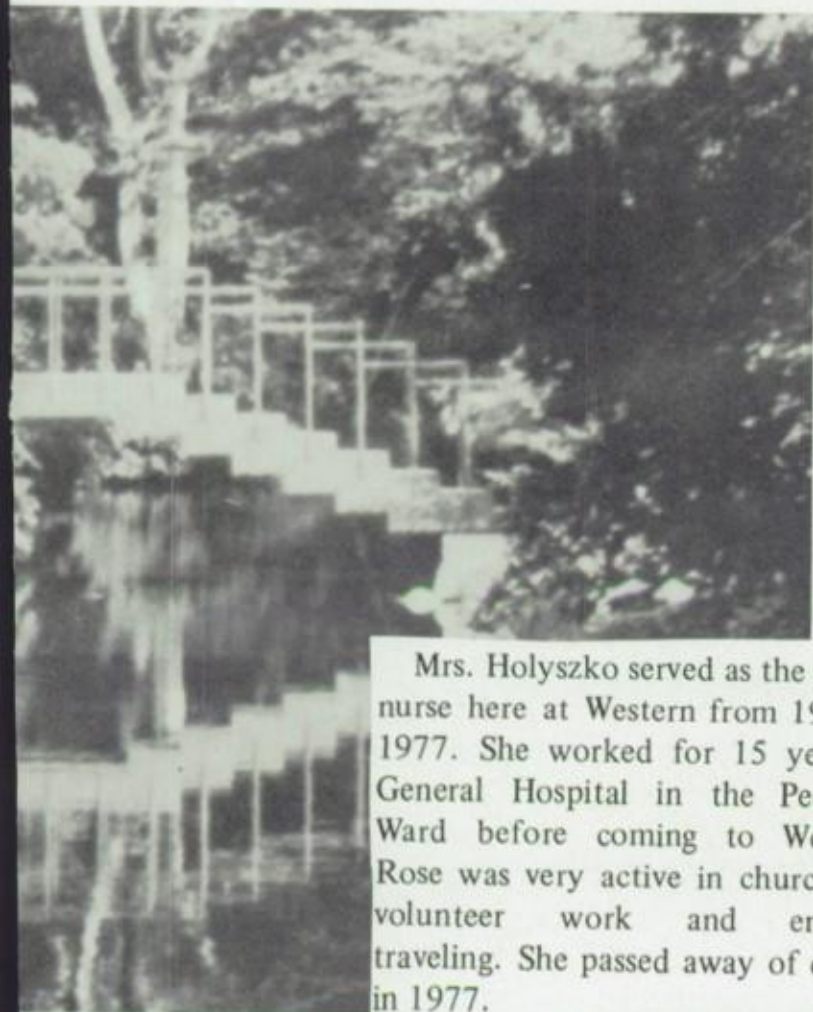

Diane DeShano was in her senior year at Western. She was involved in gymnastics and enjoyed skiing. Having lived on a farm, she also liked horseback riding. Diane was killed in a car accident in the winter of 1977.

Robert Klemm was in the second semester of his freshman year at Western. He was very much interested in fishing and camping. He passed away during the spring of 1976 of leukemia.

Mr. Hoag was a social studies teacher at Western from 1973 until 1978. He taught for 20 years at Handy High School before Western opened. He was a graduate of Roosevelt University in Illinois and received his Masters from the University of Michigan. He enjoyed target shooting and traveling. He passed away of cancer in 1978.

Mrs. Holyszko served as the school nurse here at Western from 1974 to 1977. She worked for 15 years at General Hospital in the Pediatric Ward before coming to Western. Rose was very active in church and volunteer work and enjoyed traveling. She passed away of cancer in 1977.

Mrs. Reif was Western's first nurse. In 1941 she graduated from Hurley School of Nursing, receiving her Bachelor of Science from Central Michigan University in 1960. She was Assistant Supervisor of Nursing for the Bay City Health Department. In 1966 she began working for the Bay City Public School System and came to Western when it opened in 1973. She passed away of cancer.

Mr. Toth taught science in Bay City schools for 18 years and spent his last five at Western. In 1949 he graduated from East Carolina University in North Carolina and received his Masters from Michigan State. He was the head volleyball coach at Western and enjoyed fishing, hunting, bowling, hiking and traveling. He passed away of cancer.

Mrs. Walther was a cook during Western's first year. She also worked as a Brownie Scout Leader and was an organist at her church. She was killed in a car accident in the spring of 1974.

SPECIAL SERVICES GUIDE

Director of the career resource center is Mr. Davidson.

Mr. Link is a staff specialist.

Mrs. Mary Lou Jammer attends her attendance records.

Looking for something Mr. Przybyski?
Another specialist is Mr. Schwartz.

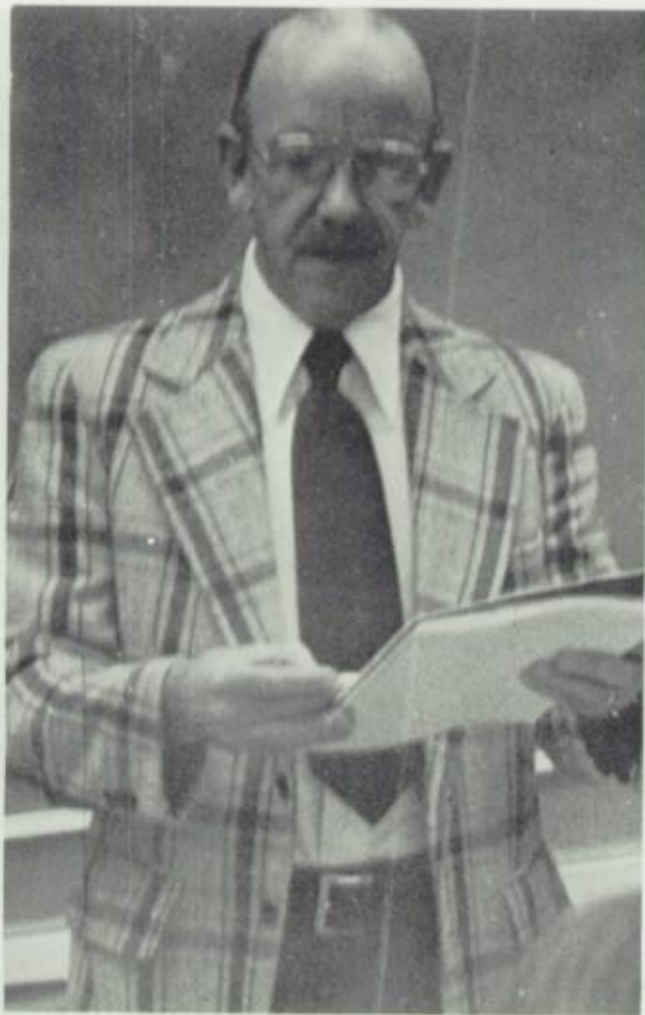

Special services are an important part here at Western High School. Some teachers and school advisors spend their time with students to plan for their career in college and for their futures.

Others enforce the rules, violations, attendance, and discipline problems with the students.

STUDENTS FOR THE FUTURE

Mr. Jacobs is the co-op coordinator at Western.

The school social worker is Mrs. Waynee.

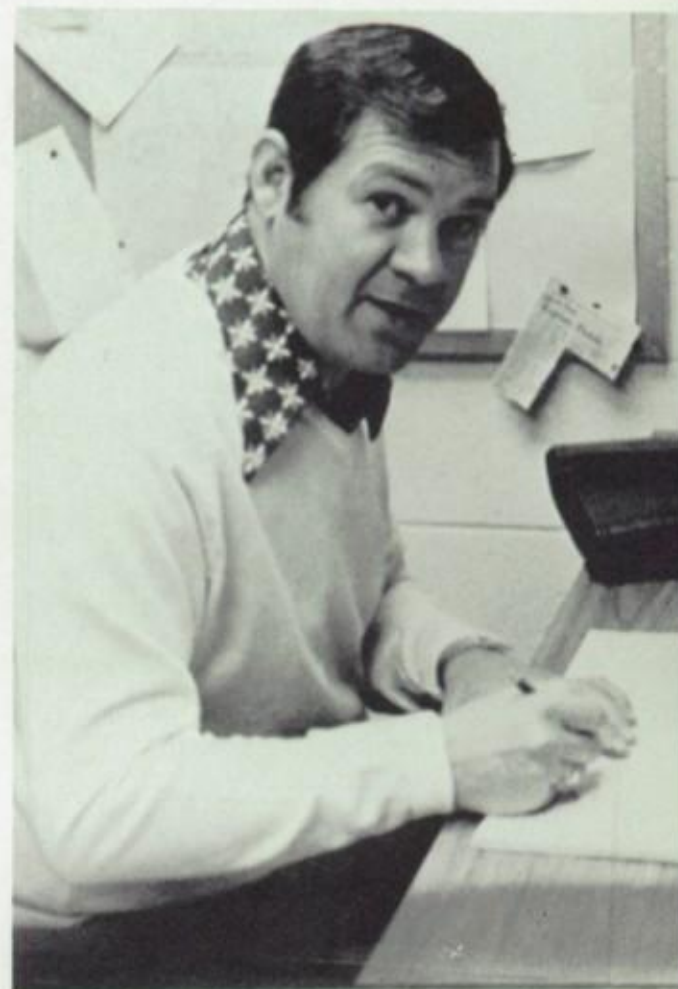

Mr. Saxton is another staff specialist.

The school career counselor is Mrs. Davis.

Librarian Mrs. Hoag takes time out from her work for a quick picture.

Mr. Syring looks up from his records.

BEHIND EVERY MAN OF SUCCESS THERE'S A WOMAN

The secretaries are a very important part of Western High School. In short, they keep Western going by taking care of all the calls and letters coming in and going out of the office.

The office secretaries are Deb Hanczewski for Mr. Bryant; Maxine Barker for Mr. Bloenk and Mr. Langenburg; Carol Sabourin, Switchboard; Dorothy Lehman, high school records; Eileen Doan, Guidance Center; Ruth Wilhite, General Secretary; Sue Thomas, Library and Kay Linda, attendance clerk.

Mrs. Wilhite takes a break from her work to smile for the camera.

Secretary for Mr. Bloenk and Mr. Langenburg is Mrs. Barker.

"Not you again!" says Deb Hanczewski.

Keeping things quietly in order in the library is Mrs. Thomas.

The school attendance clerk is Mrs. Linda.

Mrs. Doan shyly poses for the camera in the Guidance Office.

Mrs. Sabourin smiles while answering the switchboard.

Dorothy Lehman enjoys taking care of the school records.

CUSTODIANS AND

Custodians left to right are Rose Simons, Harland Holliday, Leonard Bellor and Donna Zessin.

Bob Weber takes a coffee break.

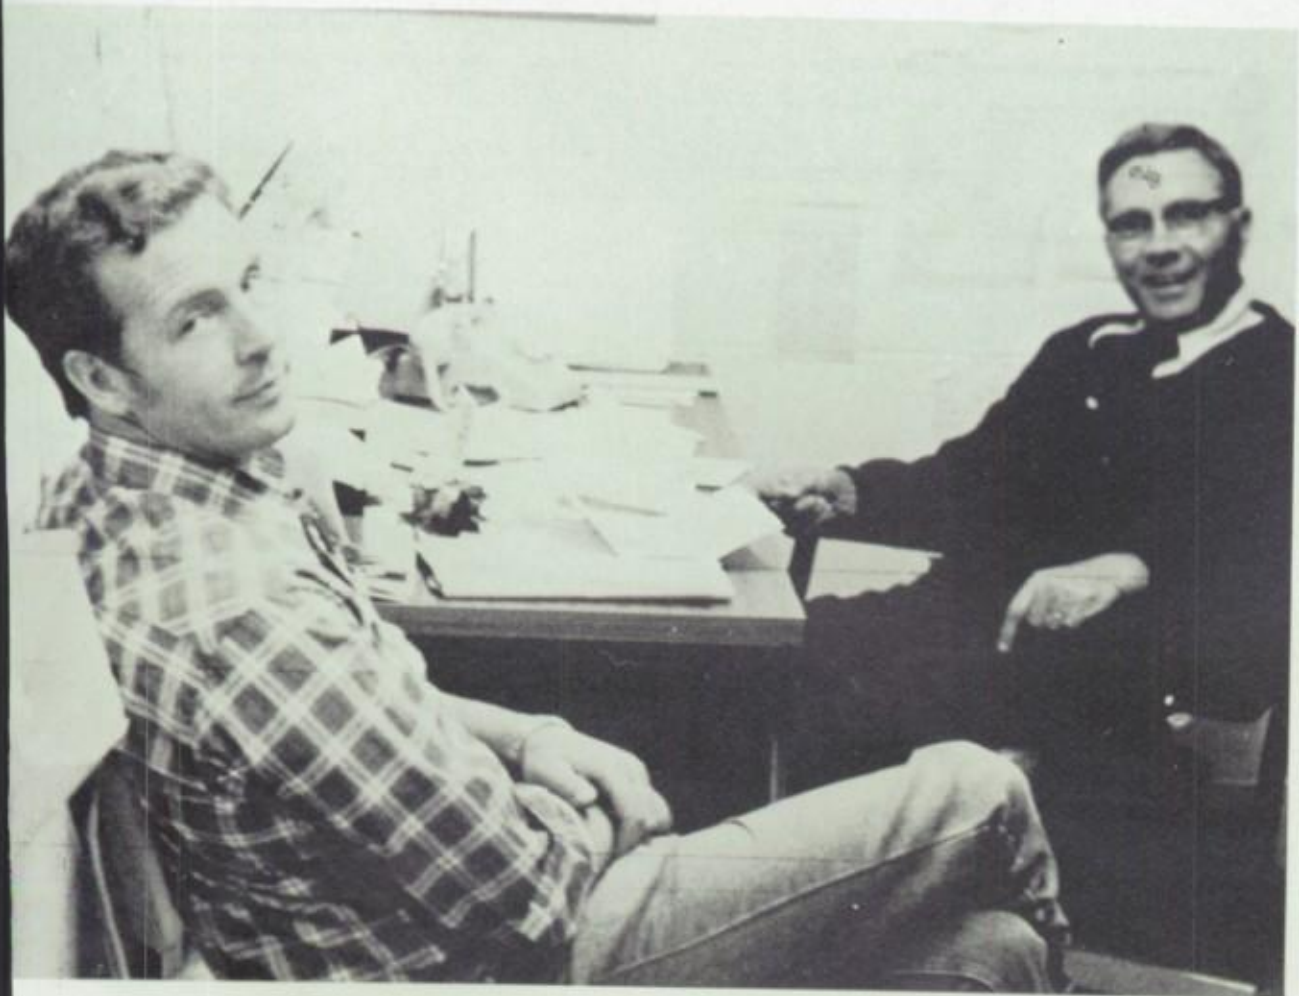

Ken Christopherson keeps the bathrooms spotless.

HALL MONITORS HELP OUT

The hall monitors are Penny Wakfeld and Larry Lloyd.

Bob Weber and John Owens talk over the day's work.

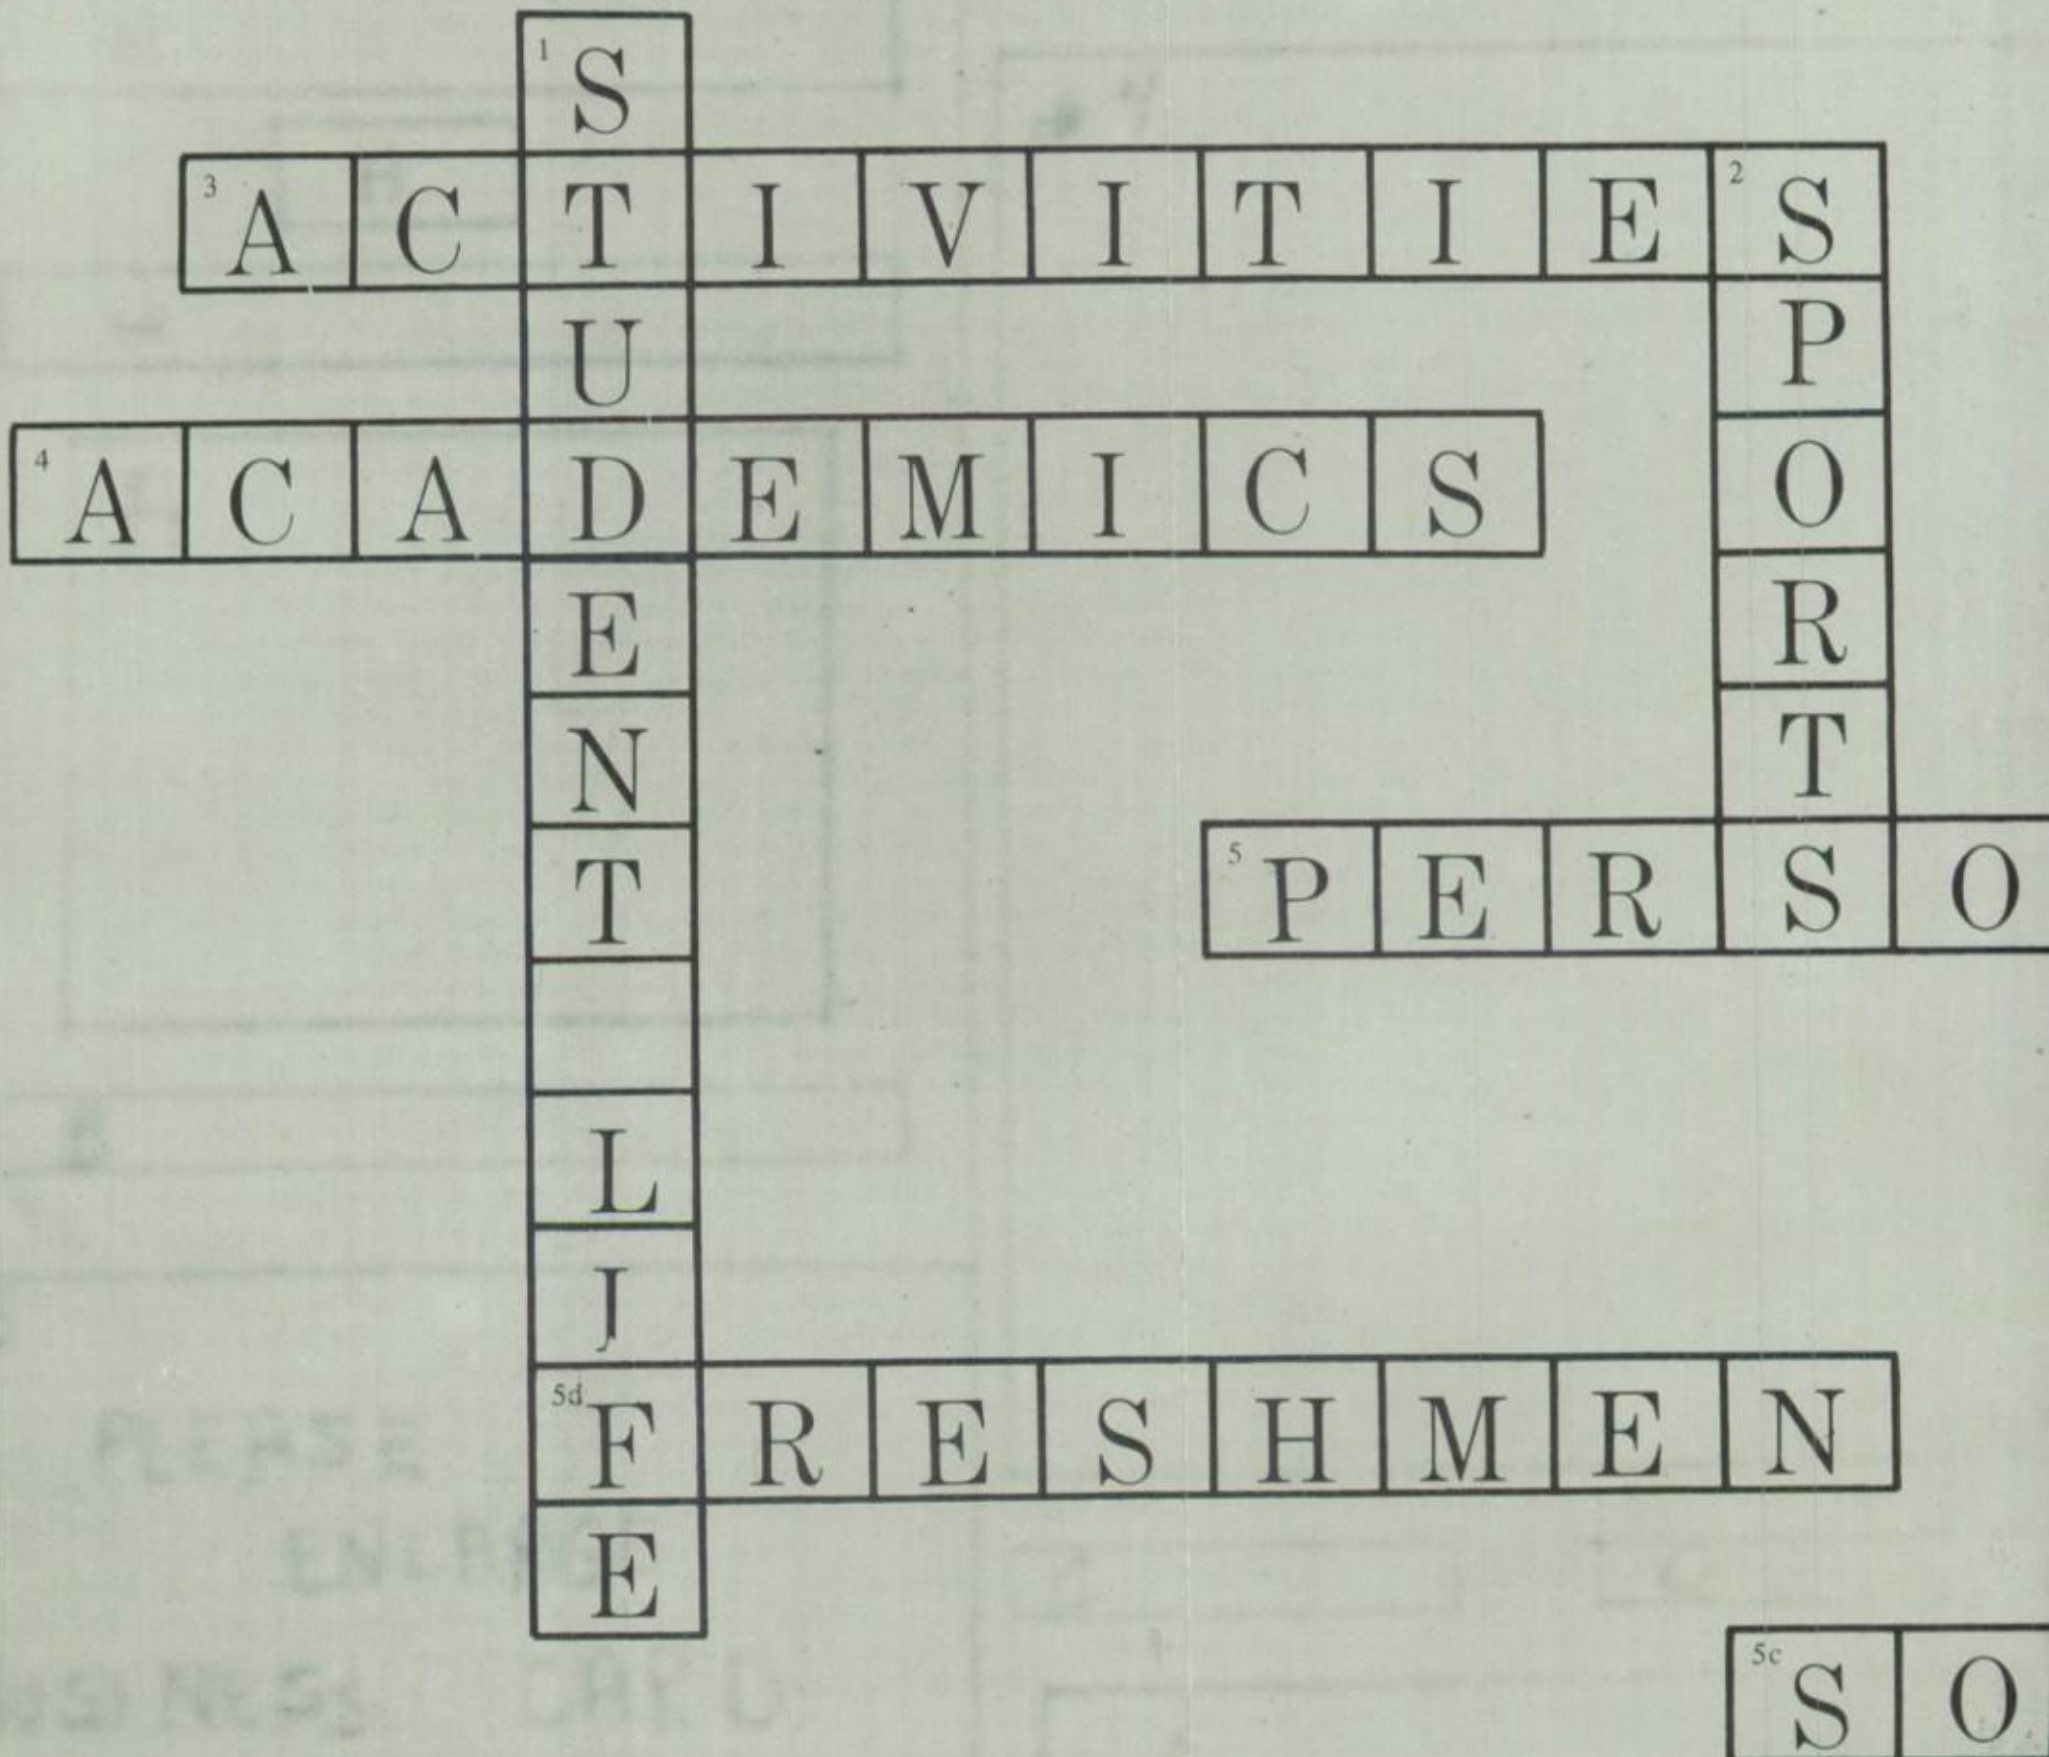

Leonard Bellor takes time for a picture.

The custodians and hall monitors work behind the scenes to help make Western run smoothly. The hall monitors patrol the halls and the parking lots. During the day they make sure the students stay in line.

The custodians work during the night cleaning and mopping. The custodial staff is supervised by Mr. John Owens. Mr. Owens and his staff are also in charge of the boilers and the snow removal.

Without these two groups Western High School would have a hard time surviving.

Well, this is it, the page on which each year the editor of the yearbook gets to jot down some philosophical statement about the yearbook, school year, or both. This appears on one page in the back of the book just before the index pages. It's a statement which is not usually read by too many, but, nevertheless, it appears each year without fail. Ah, the injustice of it all, well, anyway, to get on to the "good stuff."

This yearbook more than any in the past had one of the toughest years. There was not only some doubt about whether there would be a yearbook, but if there was, what would make up its contents. With the millage defeat, sports, a major part, was lost along with many other activities. Due to the guidance of Miss Ransom, our advisor, we not only kept the same number of pages, but we increased the number.

I would also like to say a few words about the staff. This year we had more students in yearbook than ever before, and they did a great job. Sally Rechsteiner deserves much credit. She not only took on the job of business manager, but along with that, the responsibility of doing all the add layouts. She also helped with division pages, co-op, and graduation and baccalaureate layouts. I would also like to give special thanks to Leo Grotkowski our photography editor. I am not sure if we really get along, but he did a fine job getting us the pictures we needed when we needed them. Credit should also be given to Todd Frank who not only had guts enough to become editor next year, but also undertook the task of designing the sports section. But I and the three above would not have been effective if it had not been for the entire staff, the ones who deserve the credit as much as anyone. They sold more ads than ever before and supported the decisions of all involved. With many of the same students returning next year, I think next year's yearbook will be in great hands.

I would like to express my deepest thanks to Miss Ransom who gave her time and help. I am sure that as long as a Miss Ransom is the advisor, yearbook will always be a great success.
